Deming, New Mexico, headlines, The Mormon colonies in Old Mexico, especially in Colonia Juarez, are being largely influenced this spring by an rivals from Utah and other states. The prospects for crops are reported extremely favorable.

A new railroad has been incorporated to be built from Deming, New Mexico, to Guaymas on the Gulf of California. The International Forty is to be designated name as provided by the articles of incorporation. Bird with the secretary of Harris, in which state the organization has been released. The road is capitalized for $10,000,000. It is to be built with mining and farm of Arizona and of Sonora, Mexico.

Victor Hugo, a business man of Santa Monica, Cal., took a big Alaska eagle Friday. He was on a gull chase three miles up the Santa Monica canyon when a large bird, leaving a heavy tower it had caught, suddenly came in sight around a corner. It seemed to alight a few feet away from him, the morning sun at his back, and attempted to fly upward. Just then Hugo brought down with a shot from a forty-four pistol, which he quickly drew. The bird measures 8 feet 6 inches from tip to tip.

Boise, Idaho, Statesman, 29d: A. C. Bishop, military parole of Utah, arrived in the city yesterday morning. He is interested as an attorney in the application for the withdrawal of 50,000 acres of land under the Carey act to enable the American Falls Canal & Power company, which application was denied by the commissioner of the general land office on the 18 instant, opening of the People's Canal company. Mr. Bishop says application for a rehearing will be made and if the commissioner cannot be so spared will be taken to the secretary of the interior.

The Blackfoot, Idaho, News says: "The two Indians confined in jail since sunrise of 1895, made a dash for liberty Thursday morning, but were promptly recaptured. The jailer took them out to the woodpile to get wood and they made that night only to get away." The same paper says relative the following: "Mrs. Bailey, a woman living in the Southern part of town, attempted a journey to the meadows yesterday morning. Mounting a mustang, by the backwoods and woodlots emerging upon Bonneville street, she did not know it. A little family dispute was the cause of the trouble."

Bisbee, Tucson, Arizona, Star: A Sheepherder a few days ago while searching for a horse in the Santa Catalina mountains, accidentally came upon an old well which had evidently been constructed by ancient beings. The curiosity he followed it up, and at length found a tunnel some thirty feet deep, at the mouth of which were some stones, the tools, etc., and a quantity of gold bearing quartz. It was evident that the tools were old and had not been used for years, as the handles were almost rotted and rotten. B. Biblofs, to whom the find was reported, has gone out for a party and now awaiting their return with full details, as the old mine will be thoroughly investigated.

A discovery was made at Bakersfield, Cal., Thursday, that between 200 and 300 feet of gelle has been in. It is an elevated band of earth twelve 1 the Pelonsonquito hills, in the Kern county, near Cuyama valley, where the lines of Kern, Ventura and Los Angeles counties meet. Lighter. Most of the stone taken were the property of Hatsey & Dunkerson stock owners, but were forced to resort to force to get it. A party of eight or ten men at one time came down to protect it for the Dunkerson. They were turned in the direction of Los Angeles, and when last heard from were in a wild region of mountains in the western part of Antelope valley. It is expected that when the other thieves are overtaken there will be a determined fight. The outlaws say they will kill the thieves on sight.

A great many people are influenced by what others do, and that is one of the reasons why so many take Pillsmore Liver Regulator. "I was suffering greatly from sick headache for the more quickness I took the worse I felt. I was told of Pillsmore Liver Regulator, by a friend in Arkansas, and I didn't want to take much of it before I was entirely relieved."—Byron Bradley, Tallahassee, Fla.

For it in Time.

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact the chief enemy of the human throughout. Neglected colds in the head should be relieved promptly to prevent catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.
