BOUNTIFUL.

Sad Demise and Funeral of Stephen Parkin.

Special Correspondence. South Bountifol, Davis Co., Sept. 4.— Bountiful was deeply shocked by word received from Spring Valley, Wyo., of the death of Stephen Parkin, who was fatally injured by falling rocks while working in the coal mines August 29th, 1901. Funeral services were held at Spring Valley August 31st, after which the remains were shipped to South Bountiful, accompanied by his wife, father-in-law and Frothers W. J. and George Parkin, Services were held at South Bountiful meeting house at 2 o'clock September 2nd, Bishop Egan presiding. Consoling remarks were made by Bishop Egan, who read a letter from the Bishop of Spring Valley, which spoke highly of the deceased as a ward worker, he was ward clerk and a ward worker; he was ward clerk and assistant superintendent of the Spring Valley ward Sunday school, Remarks of sympathy were made by Elders W.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF Fios, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYBUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. LOA.

Death of Jedediah M. Grover Close of a Useful Career.

Special Correspondence. Loa, Wayne Co., Sept; 2.—Jedediah M. Grover died at Loa, Wayne Co., August 25th, of typhoid fever. He was the son of Thomas and Hannah Grover; born at Farmington, Davis Co., Nov. 25th, 1861, thus lacking but two months of being forty years old. Brother Grover has had more sorrow in life than usual-y falls to the lot of men of his age having twice been bereft of a loving wife, each of whom left small chil dren to be cared for. Through all his career he has been a faithful worken in the Church, and filled many posiions of trust in connection therewith among which was that of counselor to the Bishop in the Loa ward. He was an active worker in the Sabbath school and labored in his calling in the Priesthood as ward teacher, or wherever his services were required. Some four weeks ago he was taken fil, but his ondition was never regarded as criti cal, and he was fast becoming convales cent, when unexpected to all, he suddenly passed away, leaving behind him a loving wife, four children, and a host of friends to mourn his departure. A singular feature in connection with his demise is that he is the third broth-er in the Grover family who has died in about as many months, and in each case the departed has been in the prime of life and full vigor of manhood.

BEAVER.

Opening of the Beaver Branch of the B. Y. Academy.

Special Correspondence. . Beaver, Beaver Co., Sept. 4.—Drs. Fennemore and Christian have been up at the branch inspecting conditions and as a result of their visit they have sent in a report to the state board as to the sanitary conditions existing here The report is a very favorable one, it does not overstate the facts, nor elaborate upon them, it simply shows that the grounds and buildings are in good healthful condition, and that no danger of disease exists here. The report is sent following a request from the state board. Nearly all the rooms on what is known as Faculty row are now taken by students, who are coming in as never before. Special Correspondence. Soda Springs, Idaho, Sept. 4 .- Mrs. Anna Frances Campbell Stevenson, his place, died at Preston, Oneida Co., Idaho, August 23rd, 1901, and was buried here Sunday, August 25th; born January 17th, 1881, at Soda Springs. She was a good and lovely woman, beloved by every one that knew her. A large concourse of people attended the funeral, and consoling remarks were made by several of the brethren to the bereaved husband and relatives.

MARION, IDAHO.

Another Pioneer Laid to Rest, Mrs. Alice Tolman.

Special Correspondence.

Marion, Cassia Co., Idaho, Aug. 30.—
Another worthy ploneer has gone to rest in the person of Alice, wife of Cyrus Tolman, who departed this life August 23, in her 70th year, after an liness of less than two weeks. She was born in Yorkshire, England, and camto Utah in 1848, and with her husband was among the first settlers in Tooele, Brother Tolman building the first house there and plowing the first seven acres of land, Sister Tolman was the mother of the second male child born there With her husband and family have lived in Sanpete. Sevier and Rush valleys and came to this place in 1882. She leaves a husband and nine children, two of whom are living in Canada, one daughter in Salina, Utah, and the others reside here; all were present at the funeral. Sister Tolman was conored, loved and respected by and died firm in the faith of the Gospel. Crops of all kinds are below average, the water supply having beer ery limited.
