Social and Other Happenings in the Sugar Factory Town.

LEHI, March 19.—From a letter he received we learn that Joseph Ricks who is laboring as a missionary in the Birmingham conference, England, is doing a good work since his friends are persuaded to return. Joseph some of his relatives are expected to arrive in Utah this spring.

The Mahara minstrels will open in the opera house next week and a full time is expected.

At the close of our district school held on Friday last, in the high school house and in the room where Professor O. M. Child is teacher a very neat present was given by Junie Kirkham to the school and was drawn the last day during the term. This was done unknown to all in school and was quite a surprise. Mr. G. H. Stover was the happy recipient of the prize.

The saloon of Mr. Rockhill was entered through the transom over the front door the other night and about $10 or $12 in nickels, besides some bottles of liquors and a few other articles, were taken. Nightwatchman Thomas Smith saw the parties in the saloon, and went to warn Mr. Rockhill, but by the time they returned the burglars had made their exit and were going up the street about a block away. U. to the present the parties have not been caught.

The Young Ladies' associations met in a special session. Stake Superintendents Bean and Meacham and Sister B. Manning were the speakers. Other visitors were present and a good time was had and many good instructions were given.

The K. of P. had a nice social time at their hall to the opera house.

Mr. Jas. Gust gave his friends a social at the residence of his parents and a very enjoyable time was had. Everybody was made happy.

On Monday evening the Goodrich Variety company gave an entertainment to a good audience in the opera house. The company has a number of specialties and is well up in its work.

The friends of Mrs. Eliza Peck Jr. gave her a surprise on her 21st birthday. A good program was carried out, with a fine spread to which a large company sat down, after which all retired, wishing the lady many happy returns.

Marriage is not a failure here Mr. L. Wilcox has taken unto himself Miss Ada Wagstaff for a helpmate and Mr. C. Brown has taken to his home Miss Mary Wilcox, while Mr. Eugene Rice led to Hymen's altar Miss Lovena Peterson. Reception were held at the residences of the parents, a fine time was had and many presents were given, with many good wishes for their successful journey through life.

On Saturday evening a reunion of the Austin family will take place at the residence of Mr. John Brown, son-in-law of Father Austin. It will be held to commemorate the birthday anniversary of his wife Emma (born deceased); also his grandaughter Jimmie's birthday, all of which occur on the 20th of March at 11 a.m. Grandmama Austin would have been 79 years old and it would have been her fiftieth wedding day, and the 19 birthday of Miss Emma Austin, the granddaughter. Father Jack Austin has had seventeen children born to him, eleven of whom are now living, seven sons and four daughters, eighty five grandchildren, one great grandchild, daughter. Three grandchildren are are now married and one son is still single.

A very fine surprise was given Mrs. Thomas Rosen at her home on her forty-first birthday. A large number of relatives and friend assembled.
