SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE

Announcement by the Superintendency of Salt Lake Stake.

The Sunday School Conference of the Salt Lake Stake will be held in the Tabernacle on Sunday, Dec. 9. Three sessions will be held, commencing at 10 a. m., 2 and 7 p. m., to which the public are respectfully invited. At the morning session the officers and members of the city Sunday schools are requested to attend in a body, coming from their several schools to that manner to the Tabernacle; those from the first twelve city Wards entering by the southeast door and those from the remaining eleven wards by the northeast door, and occupying the center seats of the building. The officers of the other schools of the Stake, while continuing their sessions as usual, will please arrange to be present at the conference in person or arrange to have their schools properly represented. The officers in charge of each city ward Sunday school will please see that their several schools are fully prepared to recite the Articles of Faith in concert, in response to the wishes of the general Sunday school authorities, who expect to be present. A portion of the intervening time should be devoted to diligently rehearsing the Articles of Faith by classes and in concert.

Prof. Evan Stephens will conduct the musical exercises, and will meet all over fifteen years of age for rehearsal at the Assembly Hall on Friday evening, December 7, at 7:30, and all under fifteen years of age at the same place on Saturday, December 8, at 2:30 p.m.

All are requested to bring with them copies of the Deseret Sunday School Song Book.

SCHOOL BOARD NOMINATIONS.

The Republicans Name Four Candidates and the Democrats One.

The Republicans met in the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth precincts last night and nominated candidates for membership on the board of education. In the Second and Fifth precincts the primaries were very large and unusually interesting, the contest in each instance being decidedly spirited. The Democrats of the First precinct also met and nominated a candidate. In brief the business transacted was as follows:

The meeting in the Second precinct was held in the Tunnel, H. G. Batten being elected chairman and E. G. Carlisle secretary. On motion the chair appointed three election judges as follows: A. L. Williams, S. P. Armstrong and M. M. Lipsnack. Candidates were placed in nomination in the following order:

Thomas C. Bailey, by Colonel M. M. Kaighn; D. H. Wenger, by George W. Joyce; William F. Colton, by Phil Robinson; James H. Anderson, by A. H. Kelly; George Cannon, by W. J. Harvey; N. W. Sommerdorf, by L. C. Cannon; William Nelson, by Frank R. Gilmore.

The first ballot resulted: William F. Colton, 109; James H. Anderson, 55; George Cannon, 51; D. H. Wenger, 33; William Nelson, 32; T. C. Bailey, 26; N. W. Sommerdorf, 23; R. G. Harrison, 5. Total number of votes, 334; necessary to a choice, 168.

Messrs. Sommerdorf and Wenger withdrew and the result of the second ballot was:

Colton, 119 votes; Anderson, 55; Cannon, 44; Bailey, 31; Nelson, 5. Total, 334; necessary to a choice, 168.

The final ballot gave Mr. Anderson 118 votes and Mr. Colton 116. On motion of Mr. Anderson Mr. Colton's nomination was made unanimous.

In the Third precinct the Republicans reconvened. Walter J. Beatie, F. Grant acted as chairman and R. L. Conley as secretary. A resolution was accepted setting forth that preference be given to home interests for employment in the public schools. A resolution against charges high taxation for school purposes was defeated. Nominations were declared in order and A. F. Dotson named Walter Beatie, the outgoing member. The names of E. H. Tyson, O. J. Olsen were also presented. On the first ballot Beatie received 41 votes, Olsen 37, and Tyson 27. The second ballot Beatie received 49, Olsen 34, and Tyson 23. Tyson withdrew and Beatie was nominated, receiving 65 votes while Olsen got 56, and Tyson 1.

In the Fourth precinct the Republicans met in the Burlington school building and the names of V. M. C. Olive, E. G. Rogers, F. M. Bishop, J. T. Atkin, James Sharp, J. W. Sharp, Spencer Clawson, L. E. Hall and S. W. Mattson were placed in nomination. The sweepstakes prize went to Mr. Mattson on the fifth ballot.

In the Fifth precinct there were three candidates, Mr. John E. Dooly, the present member, Dr. T. E. Beatty and A. S. Miller. Mr. Dooly was chosen on the first ballot receiving 172 votes to 50 for Beatty and 27 for Miller.

In the First precinct the Democrats met in the Exposition building and nominated Adam Spiers.

The Democrats of the Third precinct will meet in the Seventeenth ward school house and nominate a candidate this evening.

Unique and Much of It.

The young ladies of the Seventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards of this city have hit on a very unique and in all probability successful plan for establishing and disposing of holiday goods of their own handiwork and genius. The display will be seen in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall for the first time beginning Friday evening next at 7:30. A pleasing and varied program will be rendered and refreshments served. There will be a general bear contracting candy booths, toy stands, gift counters, etc. In addition to these there will be quilts, aprons, totes and numerous other useful articles on sale. A prize doll is being dressed by the artist, Miss Nellie Thomas, and it is attracting much admiration among the young ladies and girls of the wards named.

STREET CAR HELD UP.

Masked Highwaymen Commit a Daring and Lawless Deed but Get Little Booty.

Two unknown and evidently desperate highwaymen, masked and armed with formidable revolvers, performed a daring act last night at 9:30 by holding up a First South street and Agricultural park car at the western terminus of the old race track extension. There were no passengers on board and the victims of the robbery were Conductor Knowles and Motorman Swan.

The former had just alighted, the trolley rope in hand and had proceeded to the west end of the car and while all was darkness about him he noticed a gaunt up against a highwayman who forced a pistol in his face commanding him to "throw up his hands and shell out." At the east end of the car a similar scene was being enacted. Both of the men saw their predicament and put no time in obeying orders. One of them gave up but dollars and a half in silver, nickels and quarters and a silver hunting case watch and chain. The other turned over just $2. Their work over, the men started to the west towards the White Bridge with their faces still masked. It is not thought, however, that they journeyed very far in that direction.

As soon as the car men recovered from the fright and astonishment they boarded their car and came on town and reported the robbery to the police, who, during the night, kept a vigilant lookout for the parties. At late hour the officers captured two suspicious characters whose general appearance tallied closely to that given by the conductor and motorman and they are now in jail awaiting identification.

A Receiver's Suits.

Late yesterday afternoon David C. McLaughlin, as receiver of the Park City bank, which made an assignment June 12, 1893, filed suit in the Third district court by which he seeks to compel the stockholders of the defunct bank to pay to him for the liquidation of its debts some equal to the par value of the stock held by them. The capital stock of the bank was $50,000. Its assets are estimated at $60,000, but included in this estimate is real estate valued at $15,000, which the receiver states cannot be disposed of at present, and this receivable, valued at $5,000, which Mr. McLaughlin believes will not be collected for a long time. The assets, he says, are insufficient to pay more than 40 per cent of the liabilities, leaving a balance of indebtedness of $20,000. The assets thus being insufficient to meet the obligations of the bank, Receiver McLaughlin has brought suits of same against the stockholders to recover from them, under the Territorial statute relating to the liability of holders of bank stock, amounts equal to the face value of their shares. Mr. McLaughlin also brought suit to recover $15,000 on an overdraft held by the bank against Charles A. Lowenberg, and against the firm of Shaw & Rendall, on two promissory notes given the bank, on which is said to be due $1,276.22.

The Dyer Estate.

In the Probate court late yesterday afternoon, counsel for Mrs. Grissom, mother of Frank H. Dyer, deceased, withdrew the petition by which it was sought to procure the widow's interest in the estate in a $5,000 lump, instead of $50 a month during the remainder of her natural life, and the letter of her son's will will be carried out.

About Croup.

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. To a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following the hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croup cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail.
