The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock EDITION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 105. TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1894, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVII.

ICE IN COMMOTION.

Western Bound Steamships Pass Immense Floating Bergs.

SOMETHING NOT SEEN IN YEARS.

Many Vessels Belated.—All Report Having Seen an Unusual Number of Glacial Giants.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The route usually taken by the western-bound steamships at this season is literally blocked with ice and the commanders of several vessels, which left the other side before the bergs began drifting down on the Labrador current, have doubtless been surprised to find themselves nipped in immense fields. [illegible]

The reports of three steamships, the Kansas City, the Venetia and the Gellert, all of which have just arrived [illegible]

The second officer of the Venetia, from Christiansand, [illegible]

It is probable that several vessels of the belated fleet of passenger carriers and freighters have got into trouble because of the ice, [illegible]

Her passengers were transferred to the Fuerst Bismarck, and arrived here several weeks ago. [illegible]

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

Miss Eleanor Elverson to Jules Patenotre.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—The marriage of Jules Patenotre, the French ambassador, to Miss Eleanor Louise Elverson, the publisher of the Inquirer, occurred this afternoon at the Elverson residence. Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, and Prince Cantacuzene, the Russian ambassador, were witnesses for the groom, and Mayor Stuart and James Elverson Jr., for the bride. [illegible]

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The marriage of the French ambassador M. Jules Patenotre, to Miss Eleanor Louise Elverson, is the first marriage of an ambassador in this country [illegible] Only two foreign ministers in Washington have American wives—Minister Romero, of Mexico, and Minister Mendonca, of Brazil. M. Patenotre is one of the most distinguished of the French diplomats. He came to Washington as minister in December, 1891, and was raised to the rank of ambassador April 13, 1893.

FOUND DEAD.

A Foul Murder that is Shrouded in Mystery.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, March 27.—The mutilated body of Charles Tiffany, a comparative stranger here, was found last night about six miles from here, [illegible] Tiffany being reputed to have had considerable money.

Southern Pacific Retrenchments.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—The Chronicle says that owing to the necessity of economy that has commenced in Southern Pacific offices [illegible] It is also reported that a general reduction of wages is contemplated by the Southern Pacific.

IN HONOR OF COLQUITT.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Senator.

A Distinguished Gathering in the Senate Chamber of Friends and Relatives.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—A distinguished company gathered in the Senate chamber this morning and participated in the funeral services over the remains of Senator Colquitt. The President was absent, but all the members of the cabinet, except Lamont, were there, together with the members of the Supreme Court and the diplomatic corps. [illegible]

The plain black casket with silver handles was placed in front of the vice president's desk. [illegible]

At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne from the chamber by eight Capitol policemen, [illegible]

READY FOR BREAKFAST.

Coxey's Army a Little More Cheerful This Morning.

LOUISVILLE, Ohio, March 27.—Coxey's army all reported for breakfast this morning and seemed satisfied with the rations of potatoes, ham and sausages. [illegible]

ONE HUNDRED FORTY-THREE MEN IN LINE.

MAXIMO, Ohio, March 27.—Coxey's army, which left Louisville at nine o'clock, arrived here at ten. [illegible]

ALLIANCE, Ohio, Coxey's army arrived at 1 p. m. The streets were crowded with people to get a glimpse of the famous Good Roads leader and followers.

THE POLLARD CASE.

Chief of Police Moore on the Stand for the Defense.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—At the opening of the Pollard-Breckinridge case this morning Chief of Police Moore was put on the stand by the defense. [illegible]

A Brief Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—The Senate met at 10 o'clock and immediately adjourned till noon tomorrow.

PENSION DECISION.

In Favor of Deceased Soldiers' Helpless Minor Children.

THE BILL TO BE MUCH ENLARGED.

The Act of June 27, 1890, Held to Apply to a Certain Class During Their Lifetime.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—Assistant Secretary of the Interior Reynolds rendered a decision today which will greatly enlarge the pensions rolls. It will admit to pensions a large number of insane, idiotic and permanently helpless minor children of deceased soldiers, [illegible]

MYSTERIOUS MAIL ROBBERIES.

Ten Thousand Dollars Disappear and Cannot be Found.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 27.—Mysterious mail robberies, detectives who cannot find the thieves, and hundreds of angry correspondents [illegible]

A Denial from Brazil.

LONDON, March 27.—The Brazilian minister has received the following from Rio: [illegible]

A Fatal Quarrel.

FLEMING, W. Va., March 27.—Last night [illegible] Collins was killed instantly and Napier survived only a few hours.

Krug Sentenced.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 27.—Ex-City Treasurer Adolph Krug, who was on Monday last convicted of unlawfully using $100,000 of the city's money, [illegible]

THE PLAN FAILED.

The Employes of the Crane Company Threaten to Strike.

CHICAGO, March 27.—The attempt at arbitration between the Crane Manufacturing company and its employes has failed completely. [illegible]

A Long Tramp.

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, March 27.—[illegible] who is walking from the United States to South America on a wager, passed through this city. [illegible]

A correspondent had a long talk with him [illegible] Thompson left for Bogota, where he expects to arrive within forty-three days.

IN HAWAII.

Mr. Davies Claims a Reign of Terror Exists.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—T. H. Davies, the guardian of Princess Kaiulani and one of the chief representatives of royalty in Hawaii, reached this city today. [illegible] Mr. Davies expects to remain here several years.

Sale of Horses.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—[illegible]

ALL FOR A GIRL.

Two Omaha Bloods Settle their Quarrel.

OMAHA, Neb., March 27.—The spectacle of the son of the dean of Trinity Cathedral ending up Holy Week by fighting with gloves for a chorus girl is disturbing Omaha Easter devotees. [illegible]

KNOCKED OUT IN A DOUBLE SENSE.

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 27.—Charles Sieving and Albert Harrington of this city fought a finish fight last night [illegible] Sieving was knocked out in the fourth round and resigned his claim as a suitor.

Kansas Populists Convene.

KANSAS CITY, March 27.—The Populists' state convention met today. Every congressional district except the tenth was represented. [illegible]

A Poor Government.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 27.—A political conference of the leaders of all parties has been appointed for the first week in April. [illegible]

The Gulf Case.

OMAHA, March 27.—The hearing of the Union Pacific Gulf case was resumed this morning in the United States circuit court. [illegible]

The wage schedule case is not to come before Thursday. [illegible]

AROUND THE COURTS

The Cope Case Up for Further Argument This Morning.

OTHER MOTIONS ARE DETERMINED.

The Dyer Estate Case Once More Before Probate Judge Blair: A Question of Stock.

The case of C. O. Whittemore vs Thomas H. Cope et al, motion to retax costs and motion for a new trial, was partly argued yesterday in Chief Justice Merritt's court and the further arguments by counsel have consumed all of today. [illegible]

On application of Assistant District Attorney Howat, the motion for a new trial in the case of the People vs George Hermish was set for Friday, the 30th inst. [illegible]

JUDGE SMITH'S COURT.

[illegible]

MISCELLANEOUS.

In addition to the News report of yesterday the following cases were heard during the afternoon: [illegible]

DICK HYDE CASE NOT SETTLED.

By the inadvertent omission of one word in the court items yesterday it was made to appear that the Dick Hyde suit had been stricken from the calendar. [illegible] way of explanation we may state that the probate court reporter was called away by serious illness in his family.

TODAY'S PROBATE COURT.

Petition With Reference to "Herald" Stock as to the Dyer Estate.

Business in the Probate court has been quiet today.

In the matter of the estate of Frank H. Dyer, deceased, hearing was had on petition for order concerning the Salt Lake Herald stock, owned by the estate. [illegible]

U. P. Conference Rates.

In another part of the paper is an advertisement giving the rates of fare for the round trip, during Conference, on the Union Pacific, [illegible]

DEATH OF COLONEL LETT

The Battle of Life Surrendered at Los Angeles This Morning.

Something of the Colonel's Life.—The Part He Played in Salt Lake Politics—His Business Career.

A private dispatch from Los Angeles, California, today brought the sad and unwelcome though not altogether unexpected information that Colonel H. C. Lett, of the Utah Commission, was dead. His demise occurred at that place this morning. The particulars of the colonel's illness are familiar to the readers of the NEWS.

For a considerable time past he has been under the treatment of the most skillful physicians of this and Eastern cities. [illegible]

Colonel Lett and his son Will went into the real estate business in this city soon after their arrival in 1889, [illegible]

[illegible]

Another Procession.

The industrial army fever seems to have struck a few in this part of the country. [illegible] the industrial army.

FROM FAR OFF INDIA

B. Nagarkar, a Distinguished Exponent of Indian Theism in the City.

TRAVELS IN AMERICA AND EUROPE.

The Visit to Salt Lake is Principally for the Purpose of Studying the Doctrines of Mormonism.

Mr. B. Nagarkar, a distinguished citizen and eminent religious student and teacher of Bombay, India, arrived in this city at ten o'clock this morning over the Union Pacific. [illegible]

During the course of his conversation he stated that he left Bombay in April of last year and that he reached London in May. [illegible]

[illegible]

"While I am in Salt Lake City," continued Mr. Nagarkar, "I hope to give as much time as I can conveniently to studying the faith of the Mormon people, [illegible]"

[illegible]

The Militia Project.

Commander-in-Chief Caleb W. West and Adjutant General Ottinger went to Ogden today for the purpose of mustering in an artillery company.