WEBER SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Third Conference Held Saturday and Sunday—Excellence of Elder Scholes.

Fifteenth Semi-Annual Session—Interesting Papers Presented, Most of Them Locals.

The fourth school conference of the Weber Stake was held Saturday and Sunday at the tabernacle. On Saturday morning at 10 a. m. the conference was called to order by the Stake Superintendent Thomas D. Evans. The morning session was devoted to the reading of reports, the weather being unfavorable for a large attendance. The sessions during the afternoon were conducted by classes from various wards and the Fourth ward and Ogden stake. The meetings were addressed by Assistant General Superintendent of Schools Joseph Ballantyne and L. John Nuttall. The general officers were present. The attendance was very good and interest was largely attributable to the interest being filled in the work by the Fourth ward, which ward is the Ogden Stake Superintendent and Ogden Stake Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Joseph Ballantyne, both residing in that ward. The Fourth ward also had charge of the evening session, at which a number were upon the subject of Sunday schools, and a very good audience was present. It is proposed to have a conference in all schools in the Ogden and Morgan Stakes of the Sunday School Union, and it is also the intention to have a conference of the Weber Stake Sunday School Union.

SECTION SOUVENIRS STOLEN.

The act of stealing from the Philippine Monument in Ogden Cemetery, which was reported in the "News" some days ago, is a very mean one. Some time ago a few small Dewey's, from the battle of Manila Bay, were placed on the monument which is meant to stand as long as the Union and the Stars and Stripes are in existence, but the police have not been able to find the thieves. A warrant has been issued for charging him with theft.

JUSTICE CITY POLITICS.

Dr. Knox Fox's candidacy as city clerk is being mentioned by his friends for city treasurer, and he will be chosen to take the place of Treasurer Thomas Fox, who is the only Republican representative on the ticket and it is expected that some one else will receive the Republican nomination.

The county Democratic convention will be held in Ogden next Saturday morning, and to another newspaper to find the city nomination in Wednesday.

PORTRHOOD MEETING.

The Stake Priesthood meeting, which had adjourned from last Saturday, was again called together yesterday afternoon and evening. Elder Lorenzo Snow addressed the meeting in the morning, and Elder Joseph F. Smith in the afternoon. In the morning session the raising of the Ogden Stake Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association was commenced.

GOOD LOCATE.

Dr. Thomas Gilmer, formerly from Salt Lake, who is now here for the Ogden Health Resort, and Dr. Fox, of Ogden, are doing well, and both are in a position to be well friends.

E. H. Lyman, who has been in the Ogden Stake and working in the Ogden Stake Sunday School Union, and Mr. McKay addressed the Sunday School meeting held in the Fourth ward last evening. The program of the Sunday School held in the Fifth ward, a good program was rendered.

PROVO.

Funeral of Jane B. Lovell—Legislative Force Considered—Other Notes.

Special Correspondence.

PROVO, Oct. 14.—The funeral of Jane B. Lovell, the mother of Sidney Lovell, who died in Denver, occurred here yesterday afternoon, with a very large attendance. It was conducted by Bishop Lorenzo Roberts, with a very beautiful and appropriate address by President John L. Lindsay. The deceased was a native of Ireland, being born in Dublin, Ireland, Sept. 1, 1818. She was married to Sidney Lovell in Ireland, and came to Utah in 1852. Her husband died here in 1860. The deceased was a faithful Latter-day Saint, and died in the full faith of the Gospel. She was the mother of 12 children, 8 of whom survive her. The pall bearers were Joseph Ballantyne, Thomas Fox, Jr., Thomas Fox, Sr., Thomas Fox, Jr., Thomas Fox, Sr., Thomas Fox, Jr., Thomas Fox, Sr.,
