UTAH'S SHERIFFS.

Fifteen of Them Now in the Organization to Suppress Lawlessness.

ALL ARE DETERMINED MEN.

Will Make it Decidedly Hot For Men of the Coughlin-George Stripe and for Minor Criminals.

The future does not augur very well for criminals of the Coughlin-George stripe in Utah, nor for men of lesser degree in the art of wrong doing. Difficulty—great difficulty, has at times been encountered by sheriffs in this Territory in their attempts to apprehend the lawless. Oftentimes had they been "in touch" with their brother officers it would have been easier for them to capture offenders, in fact, to prevent them from being such, in a measure, had they been properly organized.

In view of the advantages that would come to them by being banded together, they recently, in this city, took steps, as chronicled in the News at the time, to protect their constituents by organizing the Sheriff's Association of Utah. It has today, says Secretary John Montgomery Jr., a membership of fifteen, with a record of having accomplished, during its brief career, much good and with the prospect of becoming a powerful organization and a veritable terror to evildoers.

The officers of the association are as follows:

Harvey Hardy, president, Salt Lake City; Heber Wright, first vice president, Ogden; John A. Brown, second vice president, Provo; John Montgomery Jr., secretary and treasurer, Salt Lake City.

Executive Committee — Harvey Hardy, chairman, Salt Lake City; J. M. McKellar, Tooele City; Fred Turner, Logan City; John M. Harrington, Coalville; D. A. Sanders, Farmington.

Finance Committee — John A. Brown, Provo; Heber Wright, Ogden; J. M. McKellar, Tooele City.

ASSOCIATION'S OBJECTS.

The objects of the association are set forth in the following preamble to the constitution and by-laws furnished the News today by Secretary Montgomery:

Whereas, The Territory of Utah is about to pass from the Territorial form of government and become one of the galaxy of states of the Union; and

Whereas, Under the state system of government there will necessarily devolve upon the officials of that government greater responsibilities and largely increased duties; and

Whereas, The sheriffs of the State of Utah will be particularly affected in the exercise of their official duties and responsibilities; and

Whereas, The State of Utah being of vast proportions, and embracing enormous tracts of wild, mountainous and barren lands, will materially assist escaping criminals and convicts and render it especially difficult for the sheriffs of the various counties to efficiently perform the criminal duties devolving upon them; and

Whereas, Efficiency in office, protection to life and property and the suppression of crime is most to be desired under the new order of government now coming upon us; and,

Whereas, It is the desire and heartfelt wish of every sheriff now incumbent in the various counties to fulfill to the utmost the said purposes for which their said offices were created, and to conduct the important public trust committed to their respective cares with honesty of purpose, and with the one end in view of shielding the public good, and also to leave to their successors every opportunity and facility to continue an efficient and careful administration of the said high office, be it resolved, That the objects and purposes of this association are hereby declared to be: To mutually aid and assist each other to enforce the penal laws of the State; to arrest and bring to justice and trial criminals and fugitives from justice; to suppress lawlessness and crime, using all lawful means within our reach to accomplish that end by prompt and energetic action.

The object is to do our duty wholly, efficiently and accomplish good for the government and the people who honor us with their trust, confidence and suffrage.

Therefore be it resolved, That this organization shall be known as and called "The Sheriffs' Association of Utah."

Among the sheriffs who have become members are:

Fred Turner, sheriff of Cache county, Logan, Utah.

Harvey Hardy, sheriff of Salt Lake county, Utah; Salt Lake City, Utah.

Heber Wright, sheriff of Weber county, Ogden, Utah.

John A. Brown, sheriff of Utah county, Provo City, Utah.

R. L. Davis, sheriff of Box Elder county, Brigham City, Utah.

J. M. McKellar, sheriff of Tooele county, Tooele city, Utah.

J. M. Harrington, sheriff of Summit county, Coalville, Utah.

D. A. Sanders, sheriff of Davis county, Farmington, Utah.

John Carter, sheriff of Sanpete county, Manti, Utah.

John Pope, sheriff of Uintah county, Vernal, Utah.

Thomas Lloyd, sheriff, Carbon county, Utah.

The deputies who have allied themselves with the organization are John Montgomery, Salt Lake, Utah; George W. Gibbs, Salt Lake; J. H. Miller, Salt Lake.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Attractions at the Theater, Grand Opera House and Lyceum.

The Theater was well filled last night, particularly in the higher regions, and The Fast Mail elicited storms of applause rivaling in noisiness the melodrama itself with its shootings and explosions and steam whistles and various other specialities. The piece being professedly a melodrama, its scenery is one of the chief considerations, and in this respect, The Fast Mail is decidedly interesting. The opening view of the Mississippi river and the closing view of the Niagara are really beautiful, while some of the intervening scenes sufficiently testify to the perfection of stage mechanism at the present time. The passing of railroad trains and the wreck of a steamer through explosion are pictures presented with surprisingly realistic effects.

Of the play itself but little mention can be made. There is enough plot in it barely to lead from one scene to another, but that plot all through is of a most villainous character. It is strange that any creator of a dramatic composition could conceive the idea of using some of nature's grandest scenery as a framework for a picture of the lowest brutality of fallen humanity, and for but little else, but that is what the author of the Fast Mail has done. The production looks too much like poison sugared over so as to be taken with relish by the unsuspecting and unwary.

Tonight the DeWolf Hopper opera company appear at the Theater in Wang. The program for the week has been changed, so that this piece will run tomorrow night and Saturday matinee, leaving Saturday evening only for Dr. Syntax.

Dramatic critics agree that Wang and Dr. Syntax are among the best comic operas of the last years. The scenic environment, the costumes and the general stage effects are enough to satisfy the most ardent admirer of gorgeous comic opera spectacles, while the witty lines and laughter-producing incidents are new and delightful.

Pauline Hall will appear at the Theater on Tuesday, Nov. 12, for one night only.

The Ladies' minstrels under the auspices of the Woman's Exchange will hold the stage for two evenings and a matinee, commencing on Friday, Nov. 15.

THE GRAND.

The audience at the Grand last night was very fair numerically, and the play was followed with much interest. Ingersoll continues to sustain his reputation as an exceptionally good actor, and Miss McIntyre is also doing some very fine work. Miss Warren is also generally spoken of as one of the best members of the company. School is the bill tonight and the remainder of the week.

THE LYCEUM.

The Lyceum had a large audience last night, and the performances were full of good features. The minstrels hold the Lyceum for the remaining evenings of the week and a matinee on Saturday.

Bad Effects of the Election.

Judge Powers shows the effect of the late election strain. While the case of Coalter vs Snelgrove was being heard in the Third district court today before Judge Merritt, Attorney Critchlow incidentally asked, "You have sworn to these papers already, Judge?" "Yes," came the prompt reply, supplemented by the further declaration, "I have sworn considerably since yesterday." This little sally on the part of the Democratic chairman provoked considerable merriment among the members of the bar.

STAKE CONFERENCES.

Members of the First Presidency and Council of the Apostles are expected to be in attendance at the next ensuing Stake Quarterly Conferences, as follows:

Bear Lake, Saturday and Sunday, November 9th and 10th—Presidents George Q. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith.

Emery, Sunday and Monday, November 10th and 11th—Elder Brigham Young.

Summit, Saturday and Sunday, November 9th and 10th—Elder Abraham H. Cannon.

Inquest Over J. H. Hubble.

Special to the News:

OGDEN, Nov. 7.—Joseph Hall, the coroner, held an inquest this morning over the body of J. H. Hubble. The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by being run over by freight cars, but how the body got upon the track they know not.

The railroad company is exonerated from all blame. His body was cut completely in two just below the heart. He leaves a wife and one child. Mr. Hubble came to Ogden about five years ago from New York.

POLICE COURT.

A. C. Reid Being Tried for the Larceny of a Buggy.

In the police court this afternoon the case of petit larceny against A. C. Reid, occupied a good portion of the time. Reid is the man arrested by Officers Shannon and Pratt charged with stealing a buggy, the property of Sullivan and McDonald, contractors, about one year ago. The testimony showed that Reid was in possession of the buggy in question about that time but that he turned it over to a Mr. Hartman, who was at that time in partnership with Reid, as part payment of a debt he owed to Hartman. Mr. Hartman, who is a blacksmith, fixed the buggy up and later sold it to Mr. Poulton, a butcher, for $25. While Mr. Poulton was using said buggy Mr. McDonald came across it and claimed it as his own and after proving the property Mr. Poulton allowed him to have it. Reid had told a good many different stories about how he came into possession of the buggy which made the case look rather suspicious to say the least.

When the prosecution had offered its testimony Attorney Corey for the defense moved for a dismissal on account of an insufficiency of evidence, but the court overruled the motion and the testimony of the defense was going on at press time.

Scott Bruce, who was arrested last Tuesday for illegal voting appeared for trial this afternoon when Daniel Harrington moved for a dismissal of the case as the judges of election did not care to swear to a complaint against him. The court therefore discharged the defendant.

James Raymond who was dismissed yesterday on a charge of vagrancy, was again brought in on the same charge and ordered jailed for thirty days.

James Wilson pleaded guilty to drunkenness, and was fined $7 or its equivalent in days.

Complaints were today filed against Peter W. Jackson and L. S. Steele, the two colored gentlemen who engaged in a shooting scrape last night. Mr. Jackson appeared in court this afternoon, but as Steele's injuries will lay him up for some time, it is somewhat indefinite as to when the hearing will be had.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

The Coalter-Snelgrove case occupied the remainder of today's session of court, Attorney Lipman examining the witness on behalf the plaintiff Mr. Coalter being on the stand at the close of our report.

CLERK BACHE'S SUCCESSOR.

After the News report closed yesterday afternoon of proceedings in the supreme court, the resignation of clerk J. P. Bache, whose exact whereabouts at present is unknown, was accepted, and Ledyard M. Bailey was appointed to fill the vacancy. The latter gentleman has for several years been private secretary to Marshal Brigham. Three other gentlemen aspired to the position, which is a very comfortable one, drawing about $150 per month. The permanency of the position is uncertain as a new clerk may be appointed when the new court elected on Tuesday qualifies.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS.

After the closing argument in the Kelsey case yesterday afternoon the supreme court adjourned until December 9, 1895.

THREE SUITS.

Three suits were filed yesterday afternoon in the Third district court as follows:

Mrs. Alice M. Holt seeks a divorce from her husband, Wm. Holt, on the ground of desertion. They were married at Virginia City, Mont., in 1879 and have had three children, only one of whom, a girl 10 years old, is still living.

W. H. Cromer, Elmer B. Jones and A. T. Schroeder vs John R. Howard. This suit is to record a judgment of $2,155 and $37.20 costs, awarded to Abraham Jeffs and Elmer E. Merritt by the Third district court on November 14, 1890, and assigned to the plaintiffs.

The State Bank of Utah vs the Mountain Summer Resort. This resort is owned by R. W. Young, Joseph S. Richards, G. W. Felt and C. H. Felt. The suit is brought to recover a balance of $1,193.29, due on a promissory note.

George M. Gaisford Dead.

Another old time resident of the Tenth ward died last night at 8 o'clock at his residence on the corner of Fourth South and Seventh East streets, where he resided for more than twenty-five years. He came to Utah in 1861, and has resided here continuously ever since, making for himself during that time a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Gaisford was born in Trowbridge, Wiltshire, England, sixty-one years ago, and his health has been failing for some time past. He leaves a wife and many children and grandchildren to mourn his departure. The funeral will be held next Sunday morning from the Tenth ward meeting house, to which the friends of the family are invited.

Legal Business.

An open venire has been issued from the First district court for ten jurors to be in attendance on the 11th of this month when court will resume session.

The following cases have been filed: Leonard Dodge has brought suit against Thomas T. Topham and John Topham to collect $411 alleged to be due for work performed by the defendants as a farm hand between the 15th day of April, 1893, and the 14th day of April, 1895.
