BULLER'S INTIMATE.

Two Hundred and Thirty-Two Votes Reasonably Safe for Bryan.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—General Buller, chairman of the Populist committee, has made an estimate in which he claims as reasonably safe for Bryan, the states of Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Minnesota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, North and South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, Kentucky, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, North Carolina, Oregon California, Maryland and West Virginia, giving 232 votes, while, he says, Bryan's chances are at least even in Illinois, Delaware, Michigan and Iowa. Ohio, he says, is trembling in the balance.

CAUGHT A MILLIONAIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Such a sensation as Millionaire James Considine has not created against Oliver Wilstrop comes now from Cheshire Montgomery, proprietor of the Riverside hotel, who is a man of means, position and high reputation—just such a story, save that the stranger, to call him so, is declared to have plucked quite a merry time Wilstrop, exercised more celebrity, respect & substantiality for his daring crime and place and time. For some time a year Mr. Montgomery has had his purse and kept his pledge of secrecy and on the last he was wise and has never had cause to think he was the victim of an associating piece of villainy and that he paid a large sum of money—said to be $10,000—a so cagier as the price of his liberty and personal security.

The Chronicle this morning publishes a sensational story to the effect that a year ago last July Mr. Montgomery had been lured or enticed into a vacant house in the most populous part of the city, and been held a prisoner and been threatened with torture and death and had finally agreed to pay his jailer the sum he demanded within a specified time of his release, and swore not to betray the robber and had paid the money as he had promised. In an interview upon the subject Montgomery said that his reason for not having given publicity to the story at an earlier date was that the stranger had threatened to kill him if it ever became public and both he and his wife believed that he would keep his word.

Apparently Dead Now Restored.

New York, Oct. 10.—A special to the World from Union, Columbia, says:

Thousands who had gathered to attend the funeral of John Mather, the son of a Panama merchant, were startled to see the supposed dead man come to life. It appears that he had taken anti-pyrine to promote misbehavior and the effect was that he was pronounced dead.

The appearance of the skin indicated poison and the authorities jumped to the conclusion that it was a case of suicide. When a government $5 coat spoons the office he found Stella alive.

Cuban Women Still Sportsmen.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A special to the Tribune from Key West says:

Advices from Remedios tell of the death of a band of Amazons headed by Rosalia Pérez. They are wounded and have been in the vicinity of Vueltas for some time. Last Saturday, a troop of Rosalia Pérez at the head of her band ambushed a Spanish force. A party of twenty Spanish soldiers at the sole were put to the sword. The amazons then rode through the street, cutting down other Spanish soldiers who were lounging in front of a cafe.

ONE MORE VISIT NEEDED.

Germany's Emperor Should Go to France to Insure Peace.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Paris correspondent of the Times reports that the czar and czarina have promised to accept the Duc D'Aumale's invitation to visit the castle of Chantilly when they reside Paris in the spring. Now that the visit is secured the Times correspondent says there is a feeling in some quarters that it only needs a similar visit from the emperor of Germany to remove the Damocles sword.

Another Robber Surrounded.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 10.—A Shakopee, Minn., special to the Pioneer Press says: A report has been received here that a large posse of armed men have partly surrounded the other robber near Pine City, N. D. It is said that he fought desperately and several shots were exchanged between the bandit and his pursuers, but he finally signed his wounds on the city.

The posse continued the pursuit with good prospects of success. Brush and where he is liable to turn is guarded and escape is almost impossible.

"JAMESTOWN, Dak., Oct. 8.

"Hon. E. W. Wakling, Chairman Union Silver State Central Committee, Grand Rapids:

"Dear Sir—I am absolutely opposed to allowing England, or any European power, to be consulted or to claim in any way our Monroe policy. I am in favor of capital but I am opposed to having capital and foreign money to a national bank and of loaning it to government bonds.

"I want capital put where it will do work. I was proud to be a Republican when Republicans (that) the Wm. Windom by Alexander Ramsey, President Grant, John A. Logan and James A. 20 Drops of SCOTT'S Emulsion in the baby's bottle every time it is fed will be most surprising in its effect. You have no idea what it will do for them. It seems to be just the element that is lacking in their food, and they thrive on it the same as delicate children of a larger growth do. Although it is not properly a baby's food, YET IT IS A FOOD VERY BENEFICIAL TO BABIES AND CHILDREN.
