Men Meet Throughout Summer.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., March 9.—The Cache stake Mutual conference was held in the tabernacle yesterday, with a good attendance during all the ses-ions but at the avening session a good attendance during all the ses-sions, but at the evening session, many were compelled to stand throughout the meeting. In the fore-noon, both the young men and young ladies met in the general assembly room for the opening exercises, then the young men adjourned to the base-ment where they discussed the advis-ability of continuing the meetings throughout the summer, and when a vote was taken the move carried. It was also decided to have the stake associations form an athletic associ-ation and take up different athletic sports.

sports. The young women remained in the large room of the tabernacle and listened to the reports of the several wards, which showed a general in-crease in attendance and betterment all along the line. Mrs. Rose W. Hennett of the general board of Salt Lake, and Prest. Isaac Smith, both spoke in this session. In the afternoon session Walter Evans was released as assistant stake clerk and C. V. Hansen as a member of the stake board was also released. A male quartet from Hyde park sang

DEATH OF HONORED PIONEER. Ricy Davis Jones Closes Long and Busy Career at 80.

Special Correspondence.

Special Correspondence. Wellsville, Cache Co., March 6.—On the 15th of February Ricy Davis Jones died at his home in Mount Steriling in his 80th year. The funeral services were held on the 19th here at Wells-ville where he was laid to rest. The deceased was born at Abergor-lech, Carmanthershire, South Wales, October 13, 1828. His parents were John and Hettie Jones. He was the young-est of eight children and the only one of the family to embrace the gospel.

Two of Provo's well known young men got on the roof of the Provo Commercial bank building, loaded with hens' fruit, with which to pelt pedes-trians. The city marshal and two policemen were the first to receive at-tention. It being after dusk the young men failed to recognize them. The officers stormed the building and caught the young men and took them caught the young men, and took them to the city jail, where they deposited with the marshal $5 for their appear-ance, which was forfelted, as they
