OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - FEB. 28, 1896.

Junction City Items.

The many friends of Mr. A. C. Bene of Ogden will learn with regret of the death of his daughter Annie C. Bene, which was quite unexpected, the young lady only having been sick for a week and not anything serious being anticipated. The funeral will take place on Sunday.

At the meeting of the board of education last night the committee of the whole asked more time to consider the case of the school teacher against whom charges of a serious character have been made.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. Samuel Dusey at the residence of Hon. David Eccles last night. A large number of his pupils and friends were present.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - FEB. 28, 1896.

Against a Pardon.

Miss Sarah Hutchings, of Salt Lake City, was in Provo yesterday for the purpose of learning the names and residences of the jurors who convicted Tom Williams in September, 1893. Williams was tried in the First district court on a charge of murdering Joseph E. Hutchings at Mammoth, Juab county, in February, 1893, and was found guilty of murder in the first degree, with recommendation of imprisonment for life, and is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary.

Williams was shift boss in the Mammoth mine and Hutchings was one of the miners working under him. The two men met on a trail from the mine to the town of Eureka, and Williams pulled his pistol and shot Hutchings, giving as a reason that Hutchings had threatened his life. Williams claimed as a defense that threats of Hutchings had been communicated to him and that he believed his life was in danger. A story was given some prominence during the trial to the effect that Hutchings was, or was believed to be, put to work in the mine to watch Williams and others, who were suspected of stealing ore and that this was the cause of his being shot. Several efforts have been made to have Williams pardoned, but they have been thwarted by the efforts of Mrs. Hutchings. Williams's friends are again undertaking to secure his release and have presented petitions to the Governor for clemency, bearing the names of some of the jurors who convicted him. Mrs. Hutchings claims that some of the jurors whose names appear on the petition have told her that they had not placed their names there nor authorized them to be appended to that instrument, and she will now see all of the jurors who are alive and learn if others have had their names placed on the petition without authority, and if possible get them to sign a counter petition, as she is determined her husband's slayer shall suffer the penalty of his crime.

Williams has been a model prisoner and is the penitentiary barber. His eyesight is failing and he is aging rapidly under his enforced confinement. He was 28 years of age at the time of the murder and his victim was 32.

Looking After the Boys.

Joseph Harris, George Harris, Horace Colmer, Lester West and John Swenson, all Pleasant Grove boys under 20 years of age, had a trial before Justice DeMoisy's court yesterday, on a charge of disturbing the peace of Clara J. Cobley, also of Pleasant Grove, on the evening of the 8th inst. Miss Cobley and her escort, Ben Warburn, were going home from a party and the defendants threw snowballs at them and otherwise acted "fresh," according to the testimony of the prosecuting witness, although this was denied by the defendants.

Justice DeMoisy acquitted Joseph Harris, the youngest of the culprits, and fined John Swenson and Lester West $10 each and costs, and George Harris and Horace Colmer $5 each and costs. The justice stated that he did not think the boys had intended to do anything very wrong, but that such exhibitions of hoodlumism, which were altogether too frequent in the settlements, must be stopped. The defendants gave notice of appeal.

Some of the boys in this city have a mania for throwing rocks at windows of uninhabited houses. One of them was taken before Justice Maxey yesterday charged with throwing rocks at the Catholic church. He felt his position keenly, and admitted throwing rocks, but promised to do so no more, and after a severely lecture from the justice on good boys and bad boys he was permitted to go under a suspended sentence.

Notes.

The Welsh people of this county will hold an Eisteddfod in Spanish Fork next Monday in honor of St. David's day, David's day being Sunday. A meeting will be held in the opera house at 2 o'clock and the musical and literary exercises will be given in the evening. Prominent Welshmen from Salt Lake City and other parts of the State will be in attendance.

From a letter received by C. H. Nelson, of the Second ward, yesterday, it is learned that his son Joseph, who was injured in the trolley car wreck in Butte on the 19th and whose right leg was amputated, is progressing favorably.

J. C. Bassett, C. H. Bassett and Fred Bassett, of Blackfoot, Idaho, were visiting relatives here yesterday. Mr. J. C. Bassett will send one of his sons to the Brigham Young Academy.

Jesse J. Earnest, aged 24, and Matilda Hamilton, aged 17, both of Spanish Fork, have received a marriage license.

PAYSON.

PAYSON, UTAH CO., - FEB. 28, 1896.

Alas, Poor Yorick!

Considerable excitement was created in our city when the news was passed around on Tuesday last that a "skeleton" had been found in the southern part of town. Solomon Hancock was cutting down an embankment for the purpose of making a garden plot when some bones were encountered under about fourteen inches of soil. A careful investigation disclosed the fact that the frame-work of what had at one time been a good sized human being had been unearthed. The bones were collected and taken in charge by J. L. Townshend, the druggist, who arranged them together and now has them on exhibition at his store. In the pit were also found two plain white buttons, two beads and a leather whistlet. That the skeleton is that of an Indian can not be doubted. The skull shows a very low, receding forehead and other characteristics of the savage race.

Notes.

A live, home-spun weekly newspaper will soon be published in our city, the promoters being Fred A. Huish, who lately returned from a mission to Palestine, and T. E. Hinshaw, the photographer. An unsuccessful effort was made to purchase the Utah plant now located here, and Mr. Huish left this morning for Salt Lake City to examine a plant for sale there. If not satisfactory an entire new outfit of presses, type, etc., will be immediately shipped from the East. A canvass made among the merchants has proven that the active business fraternity will support those in the enterprise.

The Salem Dramatic company, under the management of Annie Greshams, appeared at the Payson opera house on Tuesday evening in the society drama, Chums. The audience was not large but the rendition of the play was very creditable. The Salem brass band discoursed music during the day, and between the acts of the drama Miss Engberg performed at the piano, and attested the fact that our neighboring town contains good musical talent as well as dramatic ability. The company will present Chums at Springville on Saturday night.

Rose Jenkins Hansen has filed a complaint in a divorce suit against John R. Hansen in the Fifth judicial district. She charges cruelty and failure to provide, and asks for alimony and the custody of one minor child. The parties intermarried in Provo two years ago.

P. J. Mitchell, who has been in charge of City Marshal Ballard for a few days, has been released. He is troubled with periodical attacks of mental disorder and at times becomes quite a terror, especially to the business portion of the city. At other times he is quite sane.

Garry Stevens will soon commence the erection of a fine large dancing hall on his property adjoining Quigley's drug store corner. Garry is a progressive young man and his venture will no doubt be a remunerative one.

Mr. Justin A. Loveless, harness dealer and member of the Payson city council, has been called to labor in the California missionary field. He expects to arrange business matters so as to be able to start for his field of labor in May.

On and after March 9th Payson will have a double mail service, as the Rio Grande Western railway will commence to carry mail to and from Silver City and Salt Lake. The change will be greatly appreciated by our business men.

A large number of people from this city expect to attend Ensign's band concert at Provo next Saturday, and some are also talking of attending the Paderewski recital at the Salt Lake Tabernacle on March 5th.

A fairly well attended dance was given in the Douglas hall last evening.

The Payson opera house has been leased by a Salt Lake syndicate who have established a sort of circuit in this and adjoining counties.

Considerable sickness of the "la grippe" order is prevalent, a score or more of cases having been reported the last few days.

A light snow fell last night and this morning but the bright sunshine has driven all traces of it away.
