DIPS AND SPURS.

The Kentuck assessment becomes due on Monday.

Fred Wilson left for British Columbia yesterday.

The Eric of Bingham has sent in a [illegible] lot of fine ore.

The Mercur Mining company has mailed its checks in payment of the August dividend.

Manager Bert Holden of the Old Jordan and Galena at Bingham, is making another clean-up at the new cyanide plant.

Samples of very high grade copper ore from the [illegible] group, at Alta, are exhibited in the city by A. D. [illegible].

C. D. Hathway of Del Norte, Colorado, arrived in the city yesterday, and left last night for Butte Mountain, Nev., where he will examine some mines.

Oscar J. Lloyd leaves tomorrow for the La Sal mountains. It is his intention to put two men to work and continue their employment throughout the season.

It is quite probable that the rumor to the effect that a local smelter will handle the ores of the Bullion-Beck is true. Tintic will feel the good effects of a move of this kind.

M. W. Lederer will leave for Butte this afternoon. Mr. Lederer recently sold an interest in ground now included in the property of the Boston Consolidated Mining company.

E. Muller of the Muller mine at Rochester, Mont., came in yesterday with another shipment of [illegible] from his gold mine. The cyanide plant on the Muller is the first set up in the state of Montana.

A certificate for [illegible] shares of stock in the Omaha Mining company to Bob Wilson Jr. has been turned over. Mr. Walker consequently holds control, but the matter of whether or not active operations will begin is still a question.

SALT LAKE TEMPLE.

A HAILSTORM OF STEEL

Trees Were Full of Spanish Sharp Shooters and Men Fell All Around.

ACROSS THE FORD IN A DEADLY FIRE

A Thrilling Story of the Santiago Battle as Told by Sergeant Starr of the Twenty-fourth.

The heroes of Santiago are coming home one by one. Each and every one of them bear upon their persons the marks of hardship and disease, of the scars of battle. [illegible]

Thursday evening Sergeant Starr of Company D, Twenty-fourth infantry, came home on a thirty days' leave of absence. He was through the thickest of the battle of San Juan, and though not wounded, was stricken with fever, and was sent back before the surrender. [illegible]

[illegible]

"The trip from Tampa to Santiago," said the sergeant, "was as pleasant as could be expected, and the weather was excellent, but we were glad when the mountains of eastern Cuba came in sight. [illegible]

[illegible]

"At the ford was the most trying part of the battle. [illegible]

[illegible]

"This movement brought me on a high bank, and I sprang over into the water up to my neck. A sharp-shooter from a tree took a shot at me, and I felt the heat of the ball as it grazed my neck. [illegible]

[illegible]

"The hill at San Juan is about 250 feet high and very steep. [illegible] who joined us at Tampa never faltered and were as cool as veterans. When I reached the top of the hill the block house was captured, and the Spaniards retreating toward Santiago. [illegible]

Sergeant Starr does not speak as flatteringly of the Cubans as some others, [illegible] He expects to return to Cuba on the expiration of his furlough. He is expecting to be mustered out of service in a short time.

Eighth Ward Voting Contest.

The people of the Eighth ward are much interested in a spirited contest that is being carried on to determine who is the most popular lady of that ward. The Wiser Way.

"How fresh and rosy you look, Nora," exclaimed Isabel, who had just returned from the beach, and was greeting her friend.

"Yes, dear," replied Nora, "I am feeling splendidly, and mamma says I have an alarming appetite."

"Where in the world have you been since I saw you?"

"I have remained at home," replied Nora, "and have worked hard every day. But I have been taking that wonderful medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it has done me, oh, so much good. You see I always like to feel well when I go away, and I leave for the mountains next week."

Trains every hour to Lagoon Sunday, commencing at 1 p. m. Good attractions.
