NEWS OF THE WEST.

Boy and Woman Crushed Under Railway Wheels.

WITNESSED A WEDDING AND DIED.

A Log Hauler Killed—Other Railway—No Woman Suffrage in Oregon—Roadrace to Sheep.

Martin Rodney's mother of Ogden, was killed Monday at Los Angeles, Cal., by being hurled into the creek. His son was in jail.

The recent storm near Salt Lake did considerable damage to the sugar beet crop, and consequently many farmers are hoeing their beets now.

James M. Young, the silver-tongued orator of Indian Agent J. E. Young, was run over and killed by a train at Tempe, Arizona, Monday.

Gill Allmers, the man who murdered his wife on the streets of Marysville, Oregon, on February 18, was sentenced Saturday by Judge Pennoyer to be executed on June 26 at Eugene City.

The Union Pacific officials are now making their last run over the Oregon Short Line to managers of that road, since it is to be superseded and under new management on the 1st of June, with W. H. Hancock in charge.

Dr. A. B. Gregory, one of the oldest residents of San Luis Obispo, Cal., was asphyxiated and burned to death near the house of a friend last evening. Gregory dropped out of the house, and was twenty-five rods from the door when struck.

Joe Pasqual, well known in all parts of southern California, who kept a restaurant in an old house known as Dalton's lagoon, Los Angeles, was drowned Monday. He tried to cross the lagoon, and was either taken with cramps or caught by the current.

A runaway team with a heavy wagon crashed through a plate glass window, stole the folding beds from the hinges, and piled up in the parlor of Rice at Pleasanter Heights in the Fresno, Cal., post-office, crushing the beds. He had just engaged two beds for Memorial day. Had he been at his desk he would probably have been killed.

Deputy Constable Collins killed William Burke Monday evening while attempting to arrest him on Bear creek, but a mile south of Merced, Cal. Burke escaped from the Fresno jail last Monday near Livingston while in charge of a deputy officer, who wanted him to refuse to answer a charge of burglary. He attempted to shoot Collins, who managed to fire first.

The San Simon express crossed the curve at Grand and Seventh streets, West Oakland, Cal., at 2:40 o'clock Monday, just as Mrs. Rose Lomes, who resides below the intersection of the Southern Pacific tracks, started to cross the rails. The woman did not observe the approach of the train until too late and was struck by the cowcatcher, which flung her some distance from the track. When picked up Mrs. Lomes was dead.

Fay Clark, a log hauler employed by the Clark & Adams Lumber company of Wilmore, Arizona, while coming down the mountain Monday nothing with a load of logs was caught and run over by the heavy wagon with its load. He was crushed to death. The logs in some manner slipped, knocking down the wheelman which Clark was riding, and it is supposed Clark became entangled in the harness.

Andrew Little, a fine-looking old man, whose gray hair indicated that he had passed the early fifty mark, was found dead Monday evening in a cheap room at 783 Minion street, San Francisco, where he had been living in dire poverty, but after his demise it was found that he had been a comparatively wealthy miser. In several trunks, which were found in a case containing bank books that showed deposits of $10,000 in various savings institutions.

The projectors of the cycle railway along the coast from San Francisco to Santa Cruz, Cal., intend to begin work during the summer. It is said that the delay has been caused by waiting to see the result of certain electrical inventions. The promoters say the road will be constructed and equipped for $10,000 a mile. The company will build and equip twenty miles and contract the balance along the line to do the balance. The length of the road will be eighty miles.

A runaway accident which terminated fatally occurred Monday near Santa Rosa, Cal. It appears that J. H. Brain, a prominent resident of Petaluma, drove into Santa Rosa in a wagon drawn by two spirited horses. On the homeward journey the wagon was overturned and Mr. Brain and a Chinaman who was riding with him were thrown heavily to the ground. The Chinaman died from his injuries before a doctor could be summoned, and Brain's leg was broken and he was severely bruised.

Edward W. Gaty of the Arlington hotel, Santa Barbara, Cal., died Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of some duration. Just before his death, which has been long expected, at his own request his only daughter, Ada W. Gaty, was quietly married in his bedside to N. Thornton Powell, a son of Dr. Fielding T. Powell of Atlanta, Ga., the Rev. William H. Ramsey of Trinity church performing the ceremony. The marriage occurred at 4 o'clock and half an hour later the man became unconscious and remained in until death occurred.

The supreme court at Pendleton, Oregon, decided Monday that a woman cannot hold the office of school superintendent in the state of Oregon. The case before the court was that of Carter against Mrs. Nellie M. Stevens, involving the eligibility of Mrs. Stevens to hold the office of county superintendent of schools of Union county. The opinion says: "It follows that whatever views we may entertain as to the propriety of the constitutional provision prohibiting women holding county offices, we have no alternative but to decide that under the provisions of that instrument as it now exists they are ineligible to the office in question, and that the act in 1893, so far as it conflicts with the constitution, is void. There are sixteen women candidates for school superintendents at the election in June.

GOOD FOR THE CHILDREN.

Graefenberg Children's Panacea,

BEST WORM MEDICINE.
Excellent tonic for weak and ailing children
Gives strength and vigor.
Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless.
Cures all complaints to which children are subject
Makes weak children strong, sick children well.

Sold by all Druggists and Country Stores.

Say, Here is A Pointer!

Money is the root of all evil. But a chance to save a few cents is the root of all clothing evils. We buy our clothing from manufacturers who have a reputation for making honest goods. We buy good goods just as close as we know how—for cash—and then put a close cash price upon them. There is no saving of a few cents here and there in order to make the goods squeeze into the price. The goods are made right first and the price made right afterward.

No Squeeze in the Tailoring.
No Squeeze in the Trimmings.
The only Squeeze is on the Price.
One Price to all—that the Lowest—consistent with Honest Quality.

This policy is pursued in not only the clothing department, but in every department in our Gents' Furnishings, Boys' Department, Shoe Department, Hats, Caps, etc.

Promises may get Customers
But Performances Keep Them.

We protect our customers and shatter all positive competition—keep the newest and noblest in all departments.
