STILL ANOTHER CAMP IN NEVADA

Cedar Basin, Southeast of Moapa, Now Attracting Considerable Attention.

LOCAL RAILROADERS LUCKY.

Shaft in Crown Group Dropping Into Sulphides at Eighteen Feet—Free Gold Found.

W. A. Crawford and others interested in the Cedar Basin Nevada Gold Mining company believe this corporation has a bonanza in its Crown group of five claims in the Cedar Basin district, Nevada. The property is about 40 miles southeast of Moapa, lying between the Virgin and Muddy rivers. A shaft, now down 18 feet is penetrating the sulphides and strong copper indications are being uncovered. Work was started on a 36-inch ledge easily traced through the claims for a distance of 7,500 feet. At a depth of eight feet the miners were taking out free milling gold rock which went $22 to the ton. An average sample from the bottom of the shaft at 18 feet went $50 to the ton in free gold.

JUST OPENING.

The Cedar Basin district is just being opened and considerable attention is being paid it. Prospectors are hurrying in from the Goldfield, Searchlight and other older districts and all attractive appearing ground is being taken up rapidly. In close proximity is the Gold Butte district, one of the best of Nevada's young territories. Copper City is also nearly. A year ago one could walk through the whole region without seeing a sign of life but today camps are dotting it. The Finance and other equally well known mines and the activity of railroads in southern Nevada have brought about this result. The Crown group is being opened under the direction of C. M. Temple, formerly of the Salt Lake Route offices in this city. The company is composed of officials and members in the Salt Lake Route family. The stock is held by them and it is their money which is being spent for development. J. H. Burtner, district freight and passenger agent of the Clark road in this city, is president of the Cedar Basin company.

WEEK WAS LIVELY.

Fair Run Closes With Stocks Firm, Promising Good Trading Ahead.

The week ended fairly strong this morning in the local mining stock exchange, and brokers are feeling satisfied with the results of the past week. Tintics have been in the lead during the past six days, and ended the run well up in front. Favorite stocks closed strong this morning, indicating that next week will open with a good run ahead. This morning's trading was satisfactory. The sales, totals and closing quotations follow:

W. H. CLARK HERE.

W. H. Clark of the Nevada Hills at Fairview is in the city. He is busy telling W. V. Rice, James Farrell, J. T. Hodson and other stockholders in this city what a big proposition the property is proving itself. At a vertical depth of 230 feet the wonderful gold and silver ore is richer than ever. Mr. Clark says the vein on the strike has been lined up for a distance of 1,400 feet and this vein, alone, will keep the Nevada Hills' owners provided with plenty all their lives. Then there will be enough left for their children.

BELIEVES IN BEAVER.

Frank Harris is home from Frisco after visiting the Beaver Carbonate, which is just resuming work under James Dugan. The mine will be unwatered and its machinery overhauled before real mining is commenced, but when it is, Mr. Harris asserts that a big mine will result sooner or later. It is his opinion that the big ore bodies in the Cactus or Newhouse are not freakish occurrences, but a part of an immense mineral belt running through the San Francisco range in Beaver county. Mr. Harris in support of this contention explains that 20 properties are loading ore for shipment.

OIL EXCURSION.

A large number of Salt Lake's representative business men will spent tomorrow inspecting the wells and refinery of the Pittsburg-Salt Lake Oil company in Spring valley, Wyo. Special Pullmans will be attached to the Short Line train, leaving this city at 7:10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and will be brought in on the train arriving here early Monday morning. The executive committee of the oil committee expects tho open the eyes of the travelers and show them an industry entirely new to this territory.

CONCENTRATES.

O. Jeldness has resigned the position of manager of the Ely Consolidated and Grant Snyder has been elected to succeed him.

George N. and W. J. Lawrence have closed up payments on the Rosebud Nevada and White Alps properties six months before the last payment was due.

David Keith, president, and Thomas Kearns, manager, of the Silver King, reached this city after a visit in the east. While there they attended to numerous matters pertaining to the perfection of details on which the Silver King Amalgamated deal hinges. They have nothing to offer regarding Heinze's rumored part in the merger, asserting they know nothing of it.

The Concord Gold Mining company filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk. It is capitalized for $600,000, divided into shares at 25 cents each. The company owns claims in Iron county. H. A. Kearns is president and treasurer; J. S. McMullen, vice president, and G. B. Kearns, secretary.

DONEY STRIKES IT RICH AT FREIBURG

With Briscoe, His Partner, He is Hauling up $3,000 a Day With a Windlass.

ENDLESS QUANTITIES OF ORE.

Story Reads Like Tale of the Argonauts—Prospected Many Years Before Making Big Strike.

N. A. Doney of Freiburg, Lincoln county, Nev., is in the city, registered at the Wilson hotel. If Mr. Doney were not present in his more than six feet of rugged manhood speaking with his own lips, with ore and coin and men to back him, his story would seem more like a fairy tale or a story of ancient argonauts than a modern day reality; and yet it is the latter, and being so, is of intense interest. Mr. Doney is now more than 60 years of age, but strong and vigorous in body and mind. His experience has been something very much out of the ordinary, but real, as the sequel will show. In 1854 Mr. Doney crossed the plains from Mineral Point, Iowa county, Wis., of which place his father had been a pioneer. He went into California, where he spent several years, and from thence went to the famous Alder Gulch country, Montana, in 1864, where he passed through the stirring times of the early days when vigilantes preserved order in the camps of the north. He was there in the days when such men as King, Murray, Col. Sanders and others were among the fortune seekers of the country, and he was one of the pioneers of Pioneer City, Montana, in 1871, where Senator W. A. Clark made his first big raise. Mr. Doney has followed mining all his life, devoting his time to the study of the science of mineralogy, and he is now a mining expert and an acknowledged authority on the subject. "I had every variety of luck," said Mr. Doney, today, "up and down like every other prospector. I remember coming through Utah in the days of Brigham Young, and I want to say right here," he continued, emphatically, "that Brigham Young was a square man. He did me a favor when I needed it, and I shall never forget him for it. Well, I knocked around with varying success until 1905, when, in company with my partner, C. Briscoe, I went to Freiburg, Nev. Freiburg is situated in Lincoln county, 15 miles distant southerly from Sharp, in Nye county, and about 10 miles directly west of Pioche. We entered the old diggings and found traces of gold, silver, copper and lead. We also found that in the early days C. C. Goodwin, of your city, and George Ernest had been at that very place and had spent a great deal of money in attempting to develop the properties. The mineral was there, but transportation was difficult and everything was against them, and they gave it up. But now," continued Mr. Doney, "we have at Freiburg a solid mineralized district six miles long by three miles wide, of which some of the ores contain 70 per cent lead, and from 70 to 80 ounces of silver; another formation contains 22 per cent copper, 80 ounces of silver and 30 per cent lead. The formation of the country is silicious, lime, porphyry, horne blende and feldspar granite, and the croppings are true iron gosen croppings, and all minerals occur in the zone between porphyry and silicious limestone, associated with calcite in leads.

"Briscoe and I have streuk good property. We have organized the Tri-Metallic Mining and Development company, and are developing the district as rapidly as possible. The company owns 35 claims. Our titles are clear. We have machinery on the ground and enough ordered to be delivered June 1 to keep the camp running in full blast. The Calumet and Hecla people of Michigan are negotiating for 24 of our claims, but even then we will have seven more groups of from 10 to 20 claims each left. The Tri-Metallic is now hoisting $3,000 a day with a windlass. The claims develop wonderfully, there is plenty of wood and water handy, and the climate is the finest in the land. Beef may be had at 7 cents per pound, vegetables from 2 to 3 cents per pound and all kinds of fruit are raised in the country. People are rushing in, and staking out claims, and in six months we will have tonnage sufficient to justify building a railroad in to Freiburg."

Doney's bank account is said to reach into the hundreds of thousands already, and he perhaps cannot estimate the value of his holdings; but with his joint possessions in the Freiburg district with Briscoe, there is little doubt but his wealth may soon be counted by millions.

MARKET TOOK BACKWARD TURN

Bulge in Wheat Caused Stocks to Decline and Could Not Be Rallied.

UNION PACIFIC QUITE ACTIVE.

Purchases of it Gave Impetus to Slight Rally—While the Close Was Dull Yet It Was Firm.

New York, May 11.—Opening prices of stocks showed very little change from last night except Union Pacific and Great Northern preferred, which advanced a point. Many of the active speculative favorites sold at last night's prices. Transactions were small.

An attack on Smelting and Reading undermined the market and the weakness was not overcome until the leaders had fallen materially and the general list fell below yesterday's close. Purchases of Union Pacific gave an impetus to the rally, that stock rising to 1¾ above last night. The recovery in other stocks was not important outside of a rally of a point in Reading. At the lowest Smelting was off 2¼, Reading 1⅜ and Rock Island preferred and Colorado Fuel 1. Gains of 2¾ in Northwestern and 1½ in Great Northern preferred were established.

The market closed dull and firm. Reading was rallied to above last night and Union Pacific rose ⅛. Northern Pacific gained 1. The upward flight in the price of wheat forced stocks backwards. The publication of the bank statement prompted some resistance to the decline.

PRODUCE.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 11.—Great excitement prevailed on the board of trade at today's opening. Inside of 15 minutes all of the options had advanced approximately 2 cents. The continuation of cold weather in the northwest, a very strong market at Liverpool and the Michigan state crop report, which gave the condition of winter wheat in that state as 74 against 83 on April 1 formed the strengthening features. The influence of the government crop report issued yesterday was also a factor. July wheat opened a shade to ⅝@½ higher at 88⅝ to 89 and advanced rapidly to 90½. The market eased off in a short time to 90 on realizing sales.

The corn market opened strong and fairly active. The bullish influences were smal local receipts and the strength of wheat. July corn opened ⅛ to ½ higher at 50⅝ to 50¾ and sold up to 51.

Oats were strong and prices within a short time after the opening advanced 1 cent above the close of yesterday. There was an excellent demand based upon the cold weather in the northwest. July opened ⅛@¼ to ⅜@½ higher at 43⅝ to 44 and sold at 44½.

The strength of the grain market and the higher prices for live hogs made a strong market for provisions. Trading was active. July pork opened 10 cents higher at 16.80, and advanced to 16.90; lard opened 2½@5 to 5@7½ higher at 9.27½ to 9.30, and sold at 9.40, and ribs opened 5 cents higher at 9.15 and sold at 9.25.

Wheat—The close for wheat was strong with July up 3⅛@3¼ at 91⅝@91¾.

Corn—The close was strong with July up 1⅛ at 51⅝.
