The steamer Discoverer arrived at Seattle Monday from Alaska with sixty-five miners and about half a million in bullion and dust. The heaviest gold shipment was consigned to Portland for E. C. Ward, who is reported to have been interested in Klondike and C. Jensen, who is credited with $60,000.

San Francisco has a distinguished visitor, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hills, one of the greatest favorites before the footlights in Copenhagen. She has been for some years the reigning favorite of the Royal theater of Denmark, and is now one of the principal comedy at the Casino, the largest theater in Copenhagen.

The remains of the First Colorado, Rough Riders and Pine Nebraska, brother of Brigadier General King, have been shipped to the former state for burial, making, with the remains of the Tenth Pennsylvania, a total of 1,000 since. This action was taken in order to embalm the scattered dead North Sunday.

The schooner the H. W. Bartlett on the Coast, have arrived at Port Townsend, Wash., from St. Michaels, bringing neither gold nor fur seals, but very much better news to the people. The vessel was boarded in Behring sea for a border of days. July 26th a sailor named Jacob Jorgensen fell from sheet in the schooner Bartlett and was lost.

Henry Joseph Daniel of the Utah mining bar, now at San Francisco, who committed the serious offense of shipping an giant, is to be given an hearing Saturday. The court martial before which he appeared was suffering from and wanting the result of working in a Club mine, and recommended an honorable discharge on the ground of mental debility.

Lieut. Marshall, at Port Townsend, Wash., says that many prospectors across Upper river and Cook's Inlet, Alaska, have abandoned their search for gold and are heading out claims. The country is said to be one mass of coal, which is claimed to be almost the best quality of lignite. Near Oreskovo bay W. A. Moore found a deserted coal mine with sufficiency that had evidently been worked by Russians before Alaska was ceded to the United States.

President Kearney of the California Raisin Growers' association announces the success of the organization. Raisins are the product of the state. He stated that 15 per cent of the crop of Fresno, Tulare, Madera and Kings counties have been signed, and that over 40 per cent of the crop of Kern county has been placed under the pool. Arrangements are now at work in southern and northern California and with the raisin tracts that across the mountains will control 90 per cent of the raisin output.

The steamer Humboldt has arrived at San Francisco from St. Michaels, via Seattle, bringing down some fifty people from the Klondike. The owner says that about 1,000 people from good ground, and he estimates that nearly as much more was in the possession of the passengers who came through by San Francisco. Arthur Dunn, who is his wife, formerly Vivie Harmond, a variety actress, are reported to be among the fortunate ones. It is not yet possible to obtain accurate estimates as to the amount of gold brought down.

A special to the San Francisco Examiner from Dawson of July 19th says: Within the last twelve months the Canadian government has taken from the Yukon miners more than $1,000,000. The cost of maintaining the mounted police in Dawson and the salaries of the district officers have been reported to the Canadian parliament to be in the neighborhood of $400,000, leaving a net annual gain to the government of over $600,000. The largest individual amount that goes to make up this total is the royalty, which has been conservatively estimated to be $600,000.

Delirious from the effects possibly of an overland trip from California, Henry Johnson, 42 years old, ate in a restaurant in the Chicago police station together with the dish washing and breakfasting he is driving a mule team over the plains. His sister, Mrs. Arthur Eaton, lives in that city. Early in January he wrote to her from Santa Barbara, Cal., saying he intended to make a trip to Chicago in a wagon. He started January 20th. Every week he wrote a letter to his sister. Two weeks ago she received the last one which he wrote about eighty miles out of Chicago. He was sent to an asylum of himself in his mule team.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbia, S. C., writes: "I was cured with Rheumatism which contained him in my foot to only one walking that painful disease. Recently I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism. For two years I could not be permanently relief from any medicine until I tried S. S. S. Two bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me. I am now free from Rheumatism and I feel no anything from my blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only permanent, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravate the disease.

S.S.S. For The Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very centre of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.

The Voice in Rome.

With the modern road-bicycle goes there's little doubt to be made to make certain where the expression "voice" is used as attack. This a cable or some cable is formed around the drivers and the bullets are sent in every direction as fast as they can feed them. In the "standard voice" on the machine, for it is possible for a man to turn himself black, but with a few circulating rods over to the right and left, and with a second wire coming up and backing the machine, the drivers can cause to equal to the circumference, so he can turn in circles—and, with his second wire, he can stop the machine and [illegible] with all, otherwise with the bullets, or with a heavy whistle in the hole of his head, he can stop the machine and [illegible] the bullets.
