SECOND EDITION.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Day by Mail—Postmasters who are empowered to act as agents will receive subscriptions at the rate of $4.00 per year for the Second Edition.

Rates of Advertising furnished upon application.

Subscriptions for advertisements must be in advance.

Wednesday, January 18, 1893.

FRAGMENTS.

SEE the U. P. time table in this issue of the NEWS for recent changes in time of passenger trains.

THE Tenth quorum of Seventies will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Ninth ward meeting house tomorrow night, at 7:30 o'clock.

MOVING IN CONGRESS, Lieutenant-Colonel Cornelius Gardener has asked to be retired from the Ordnance Department, and Colonel Stephen Vincent Benet has been appointed to succeed him.

THE Supreme Court will hold its session in the Union Pacific railroad decision this week and next. It has a very excellent opinion, and of modern usage.

JOHN BOLTON and Joseph Porter were the men who made use of the office of the Justice of the Peace. Their office was Brooklyn, Utah. They paid the penalty in the usual way.

THERE will shortly be issued from the printing office a new and improved time table to takeffect in the Utah Central. It will contain the usual amount of information, and will be issued by the Union Pacific.

In the Territorial Supreme Court yesterday, a motion was made for the admission of Angus M. Cannon, Esq., and Alfred Allen, Esq., to practice in the Territorial courts. The motion was granted, and the gentlemen named were admitted to the bar.

THE Tabernacle choir will sing at the Tent Barrel Coffee Company's establishment, Salt Lake City, on the first and second evenings of next week. The choir will also sing at the Tabernacle on Monday next. The young men who will sing are those who sang in the choir when it was in Salt Lake City, and who have been in the military band for years.

YESTERDAY afternoon, sitting as a court of the Third District Court, Judge Jameson, in the first and second of the Mormon cases, ordered the prisoners to be discharged, without prejudice, on the ground that the indictments were defective, and that the court was without jurisdiction. The decision was rendered without any difficulty, which shows that it was a foregone conclusion. The prisoners were discharged.

AN INQUEST was held by Coroner Davis on Monday over the remains of James Mallory, commonly called "Whitey," the young man who was shot by Officer Ryan on the night of the 7th inst. The inquest was held in the morning. The young man Smith, who was present with some of the officers, was examined from an hour by the jury.

At the annual meeting of the Salt Lake Improvement and Salvage Company yesterday a new board was elected, consisting of Messrs. Samuel N. Thurman, A. Hamilton, G. G. Wood, W. H. Dyer, R. Evans, William Fox, and William Parr. At a meeting of the directors held after the regular meeting N. Thurman was re-elected president, G. G. Wood, vice president and treasurer, and Theodore Brough, secretary.

ATTORNEY WILLIAM NEWMAN, of this city, received word, by mail, last evening, of the sad and sudden death of his father, Hiram Newman, at Pullman, Washington, on the 7th instant, of pneumonia, after a brief illness. The deceased was 78 years of age. He was called to the keeper of the well known firm of McCornell, Chambers & Company, Idaho, and he said to have been held in high esteem by his employers. He was also an earnest low churchman.

Held for Burglary.

H. C. Phelps was taken into custody on a charge of doing a second-hand business without a license, but after hearing the evidence in the case it was dismissed by order of the court.

Charles H. Hanner was held to the sum of $1000 to await the action of the grand jury for burglary.

Dominick Rose, the Indian who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of committing an assault with a deadly weapon on the person of a man named Dixon, was discharged from custody by order of Justice Gee, on the payment of the costs of prosecution.

Amusement Notes.

"A Texas Steer" was again presented to a large house last night, and the talented players were repeatedly enthusiastically applauded. Among the numbers of the company mentioned in our review of the play, yesterday, as especially attracting attention, it is only fair to include Miss Dorothy Sherrod, who in her role of Mrs. Major Campbell gave good satisfaction. Miss Sherrod is generally in the every movement on the stage.

"HOYT'S ALLISTER"

Tomorrow night and Saturday at the Theatre, with Bobby Gaylor at the head. Among the specialties of the company are Georgie Parker, Charles W. Young, J. F. Carroll, Hugh Mack, Peter Bassett, M. J. Sullivan, Clarence West, Harry McHugh, Minnie Jennie St. Claire, May Taylor, Rosie Gilbert and Josie Hernandez.

FOREPAUGH'S

A new week of amusements commences in the land of wonders tomorrow. Mr. Forepaugh has a new comical pantomime, which will hereafter be appended to the annual one Friday of the new popular Black company. New wonders will be exhibited in the menagerie tent. Today is the last day in the "Lightning-rod Agent" in the theatrical.

EDWARD S. WILLARD.

The announcement that the celebrated English actor, Edward S. Willard, Palmer's special company is to appear at the Salt Lake Theatre will be received with delight by the lovers of character art in this city. In the play "Judah" which will be presented here Jan. 21st and 22nd, a young clergyman is made to deliberately utter a falsehood in order to save from disgrace a woman whom he loves, and his whole subsequent conduct is influenced by the eternal fidelity to truth, when the play was given at the Madisonville theatre, about two years ago, Mr. Willard invited the audience to attend a performance. Some hundred of these gentlemen responded to the invitation and each was the impression produced that the audience, not on the benevolence in Chase. At the close of the unique entertainment the clerical audience contended a speech by the actor, which he responded, referring to the relation between the pulpit and the stage. The incident was telegraphed at the time by the Associated Press throughout the United States, and called forth comments in numerous newspapers.

COMPENSATION FIXED.

Receiver Lawsons to be Allowed the Sum of $250 Per Month.

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS

For Assets Will be Paid to John S. Marshall as Counsel in the Lawsons.

Following is the report of Receiver Richa as filed in the Supreme court:

The receiver is now prepared to make a report of his doings in Mr. Rich, and it is ready to be filed.

The receipts by Henry G. Lawsons, receiver, from the date of his appointment, were $1,800, in the same time he paid out $1,800 for expenses of the receivership, and $1,800 for attorney's fees, leaving the balance in his hands, $1,800. The receiver's fees have not been fixed by the court, but he has performed the duties of receiver for the past year, and he asks that the court allow him $250 per month for his services, which he considers a reasonable compensation for the services he has rendered. The receiver has