Beaver Pioneer: At their county convention, held in this city last Saturday, the Democrats did not combine with a majority of representatives to take a stand for free coinage in the Democratic platform, but some life showing of the supporters of silver. We understand that they have the power, if they have the nerve, to make it interesting for the party in power. It has been the lack of that party in the past that has caused the loss of the silver office.

A letter from Dr. Simmons of A. V. Grover, Texas, to Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., says: "I have used your remedies with great success in my practice. I am greatly pleased with your medicines." Very respectfully, etc. Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

Beaver. He died and to this day the body has held nothing of her breath. Instances are numerous of intense sadness and wrapped love. He is attending the office some dollars on advertising and other work—one for Bishop Wright in Tooele, Lincoln county, Nevada, and it is reported that he was there mixed up with the burglaries of the co-op store at Panaca. At and the sheriff of Lincoln county, Nevada, came to Beaver in search of Griffin. There, with Sandy, other rumors and stories have come to us. Letters inquiring of the wholesale, and trying Griffin had also added with some valuable office, have been received at this office in no small quantity. We have concluded to attaching something of the kind, but we have deemed we might have added more to it, answering the leading taken and branding John. In this we have met with a considerable character. Often below a number of affairs in this prominent citizens relating instances of criminal conduct on the part of Griffin.) Now the object in publishing these facts is that Griffin is now living in England as an agent of Mormonism. He is establishing a seat on his head as the result of his endeavor to get away from the church, where the fact is that one is the tool of a drunken man, who, when he has a fine away, and smashed up a buggy, was thrown out on his head. This occurred in Beaver. Instances of rascality and depravity are for authorities to notice. As already stated Griffin's family have lost the best stay of a reputation and are honored and respected, and his course and the necessity of this exposure, is breaking his aged mother's heart and causing his sisters much anxiety. He is utterly reproved or these things, would weigh upon his conscience, if he has one, so heavily, that he would desert from his intemperate course and seek to do better.
