Death of Mrs. Mary E. Stephens Reunion of Old Timers.

Special Correspondence, Pocatello, Idaho, April 28.-Mrs. Mary E. Stephens, wife of Police Judge Wm. N. Stephens of this city, died at Bolse City Thursday morning, of complicated heart and liver diseases. She has been an invalid for the past two years and was sent to Boise only last week in the hope that a lower altitude would prove beneficial to her sinking health. She was a native of Pennsylvania. She leaves three children, the youngest being twelve years of age, She will be buried in Pocatello Satur-day under the auspices of the Palm Leaf Circle, W. W. Isle, which he has not seen for twenty-five years. Mr. Relily is a frugal and careful man and has property interest here. On his return the rest of the family will also make the trip and Mike will mind the house. His many friends wish him a successful journey across the pond. TWO JAPS CRIPPLED.

Pocatello, Ida., April 28.-At Amer-ican Falls, Ida., yesterday, while a freight train was standing on a siding taking water, a Jap attempted to cross the train by climbing between the cars. Before he had secured a hold, how ever, the train suddenly started up, the Jap let go his hold and fell between the cars. One pair of trucks passed over his leg, severing the member just above the ankie. He was brought to the Jap hospital at Pocatello, where he was taken care of by the Short Line doctor. A similar accident hap-pened to another Jap at Spencer, Ida. yesterday. The man was beating his way south and fell under the wheels of a box car and had his arm cut off.
