A MODERN CRUSADE.

Campaign of American Theosophists in Ireland.

"BROTHERHOOD" IN THE SLUMS.

Distinguished Adherents of the Sect Fain—Same to Be "Starred."

LONDON, Aug. 14. [Copyright by the Associated Press.]—Parliament closes up today in a more lively and spirited manner than has been the case with any session for years.

In the words of the Parliament the man who has most bettered himself is "Tim" Healy. He began the session in one of John Dillon's seventy-one followers, and he ends it as the leader of his own party with about twenty-five followers.

It is said that the Irish convention which meets in Dublin on September 9 is destined to be a farce. Neither the Parnellites nor the Healyites will attend, so the whole object of the convention is thwarted and Mr. Dillon expects if the Parnellites and other nationists do not attend that the latter will be put in an awkward moral position on the ground that when a union of the different factions of the Irish party was attempted, they stood out.

In the meantime Ireland is perfectly tranquil and continues steadily improving. For several years there have been good harvests in Ireland and the peasantry are generally satisfied.

CRUSADERS FOR THEOSOPHY.

The little band of American crusaders for theosophy is receiving considerable attention in the columns of the English newspapers, and has given the Irish press an entirely new theme for discussion, for shortly after landing the Americans showed a prophecy that Dublin was soon to become the leader of Europe and that the ancient glories of that mystic land would be restored. Also that the Theosophists proposed to establish a branch of their American college of occultism there. The Irish newspapers are very pleased with the idea and some of the principal papers of Dublin and elsewhere have thrown open their columns for its discussion.

The crusaders have certainly proven a surprise. When it was first announced that eight Americans were going to institute a crusade which would not stop until the globe had been girdled, I was not received seriously. But what the party lacks in numbers it makes up in theosophical strength.

Arriving at London, the little party engaged the Queen's hall and held a meeting there. The women sat on the stage in flowing white robes and the men in evening dress.

This meeting was followed by an invention called a "centuried supper" held in the slums, Bermondsey, anarchists, dock laborers, outcasts and the poor generally were served with a hearty meal—the first meal many of them had partaken of for days—and then were afterward given a talk on "Brotherhood."

The same thing was done in the slums of Liverpool. The Rev. W. Williams, a chaplain to the British army, joined the crusade.

In Dublin a convention of the whole theosophical society in Europe was called. The society in Europe it appears boasts of some distinguished adherents, among them being Professor Brooks, the English chemist who invented the Crookes ray tubes, Camille Flammarion, the French astronomer, and it is said Mrs. Besant, wife of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who with her two sons, if I mistake, joined the Theosophists recently.

In a few days the party will have visited for Amsterdam, Berlin and Paris. The intention is to visit every European capital and Rome itself is in the "itinerary."

Leaving Europe the crusaders will go to Malta and Egypt. Then will follow Australia, New Zealand and Asia. The return is to be by way of San Francisco in about March.

DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS.

The Question to Be Settled Before the Close of the Week.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—There was a host of visitors at the Democratic headquarters today, including Gen. A. J. Warner of Ohio, chairman of the Bimetallic League, who arrived today; Representative Pickler of Illinois, Newlands and Jones of Virginia, and Mr. Pugh, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth North Carolina district.

Chairman Faulkner said the question of locating national headquarters would be settled before the week is over. Gen. Warner, who had just come on from New York, said the feeling was that as the contest was to be waged in the states surrounding Chicago, it would be natural to make Chicago the center.

The president of the executive committee stated he about to be earned in situating much attention. Gen. Warner said that while he had no direct information, he believed Chairman Jones would locate headquarters in Chicago. Representatives Pickler, Kerr of Pennsylvania, George Fred Williams of Massachusetts and Mr. Troup of Connecticut are in the committee.

Mr. Pugh of North Carolina says that the reports of today are to the Populistic convention in that state, indicate that there will be a three-cornered fight, in which event he says Democratic success will be made in the east. He says the Populists of North Carolina will vote for Mr. Bryan.

Secretary Gardner of the Democratic congressional committee is back from the New York meeting. Mr. Gardner's mail indicates that silver clubs are being formed independently of the national organization of Democratic clubs, and that steps will be taken to effect a national organization of these silver clubs.

At the Republican headquarters there was the usual air of systematic business. Chairman Babcock says there were no developments beyond the street demonstration brought by the mail from every section of the country.

Chicago Failures.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Failures are reported as follows:

George O. Bertle, dealer in hides and leather, assigned to William D. Gray. The assets are $200,000; liabilities, $123,000.

Chicago Boat and Boat Co. with works at Harvey, Ill., assigned to the Chicago Title and Trust company. The assets are $300,000; liabilities are not given.

Harry M. Hamlin, wool merchant, assigned to Wm. H. Gilbert; the assets are $200,000; liabilities, $125,000.

Chicago and Western Soap works, assigned to Fred H. Graham; assets, $50,000; liabilities, $50,000.

Louis Rubens & Son, wholesale liquor dealers, assigned to Frank C. Ambrose; assets, $50,000; liabilities, $25,000.

Two Steamers Collide.

DETROIT, Aug. 15.—Late last night the steamer Dynamic of the Lehigh Valley Transportation company collided with the propeller William Chisholm off the New channel lake, St. Clair, fifth mark. The Dynamic was inbound with coal from Buffalo to Chicago. The Chisholm was loaded with iron ore, bound from Marquette to Ohio ports. The crews took to the rigging and were rescued. The Dynamic was valued at $50,000, the Chisholm at $100,000. The bow of the Dynamic lies in water. It is thought the accident was caused by confusion of the signals or lights.

German Minister Believed.

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—It is officially announced that minister of war, General Bronsart von Schellendorf, has been relieved from office. He will be succeeded by General Von Gemer.

L. A. W. Events Today.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 15.—Two national championships given the early in the morning day of the L. A. W. national meet—the half mile and five mile events. Although Cooper's run of successive victories was broken yesterday when Tommie Butler made his second in the five mile championship, the Detroit boy is expected to distinguish himself again today. Eddie Bald has not yet crossed the tape a winner. Gardner is considered dangerous since his record-breaking performance in the mile open yesterday. SENATOR JONES IN WASHINGTON.

No Decision Yet as to National Headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, arrived in Washington today. He was not ready to announce the executive committee or state what decision was reached regarding national headquarters. It is known, however, that the determination has been reached to locate headquarters in Chicago and materials in Washington. Senator Jones said in connection with the congressional campaign committee, which will attend to sending out all necessary literature and work in connection with other campaign committees interested in the success of Bryan.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN.

An Enthusiastic Meeting in Column bus, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 15.—The Republican state campaign opened here today at 12 o'clock. In the big tent there were present, it is estimated, 10,000. All manufacturing establishments were closed to allow the employes to attend the meeting. On account of the warm weather the proposed parade in the evening was abandoned, but notwithstanding some scores of other meetings, it was a great success. At 1:30 p. m., after the usual cheering or well known men, Governor Bushnell, chairman, formally opened the exercises with a short speech. He introduced Senator Foraker who was received with great applause. Senator-elect Foraker followed Bushnell.

A TRAIN WRECKED.

Several Cars Derailed but Only One Person Injured.

THE RAILS TAMPERED WITH.

Head End Collision Causing the Death of an Engineer and Fireman.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15.—The Chesapeake and Ohio express bound from Washington to Cincinnati was thrown from a side track at Ravensworth, Va., eighteen miles below Washington at 12:10 o'clock this morning by train wreckers. The engine, mail car, express car and one truck, the combined baggage and smoker were derailed. The only person injured was Baggage Master E. S. Collins whose back was hurt by being thrown against a chair. The rails had been tampered with just beyond the curve, which prevented the wreckers' work from being seen until the train was close on the spot of the trouble. Engineer Fowler applied the air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train only after the engine had traveled on the ties almost one hundred feet. The switch lamp had been removed, the switch lock broke and the switch thrown for the side track. The wreckers waited near the track and as the flagman went back to protect the train a bullet sped by his head but missed the mark.

HEAD END COLLISION.

Engineer and Fireman Instantly Killed, Others Injured.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 15.—A Head end collision took place about 3:30 this morning near Tarvin, O., on the B. & O. road week-bound passenger train and eastbound freight came together in a rear. Engineer Fred Bang and Fireman Hoffman were instantly killed. Also Engineer William Johnston, Fireman Tuckerson and Brakeman Overly were badly scalded. Postal Clerk Ogden was slightly injured. Engineer Johnston of the freight had orders to take the siding at Tarvin Hill, it is impossible to indicate why he did not do so. No passengers were injured.

Express Employes on a Strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Six hundred employes of the Adams Express company in this city and Jersey City struck today. They allege that since President Wells took charge of the company's affairs wages have been reduced about one-third and many efficient men had been discharged for trivial reasons. At the office of the company it was reported that there will be little difficulty in filling the places of the strikers.

Intensity Is Alive.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The heavy show at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, made the track a little heavy for today's great race for the Futurity stakes. Workmen were on early with a harrow pulling over the earth to be ready as well as possible before the contest for $50,000, the richest stakes in the world for two year olds. The list of entries is as follows:

Horses.	Weight.	Owners.
Imperator	122	Lorillard
Dobbins	122	Thoroughbred
Hamburg	122	Belmont
Bermuda	122	Dwyer
Kingston	122	Hogan
Sir Dixon	122	Dwyer
Sunol Challenger	122	Tichenor
Sandow	122	Yerkes
Ben Brush	122	Dwyer
Ben	122	Morris
Sensation	122	Ballard

The last trials of the candidates were held on Thursday. After her victory at Brighton beach on Tuesday last, when Diadesta defeated Dryel's Cleopha in a canter in last time, she became the strong choice among betting men. Thursday she got an easy gallop covering the furlongs in a little better than 1:17. The actual favorite is the Western Ormonde, the winner of both halves of the double event, and second to Winged Foot in the great trial stakes. With disease in the saddle he will not feel the weight of Garrison's urging and as he is very sluggish may show the best form. He will be at a disadvantage owing to the new rule forbidding assistant starters to hold the horses for a good start. Blackwell's stables Challenger is likely to be the third favorite at betting men. Scottish Chieftain is the chief one of Marcus Daly's string, although Ogden will be sent to the post. The former has not done well of late while the latter is comparatively unknown.

Ogden won the futurity by a length; Ormond is second by a length; Bolero third; time 1:10.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Oil Tankers Fire—Heavy Loss to the Company.

LIMA, Ohio, Aug. 15.—At 10 o'clock this morning lightning struck a 2,000 barrel oil tank in Kemper farm, three miles south of here, owned by the Standard Oil Company. The fire communicated to three other tanks. The Standard people lifted 500 men to throw up embankments and are shooting the tanks to let the oil out. The crude from the burning oil makes it as dark as an eclipse. The loss will reach $75,000.

President Campiera Dead.

LIMA, Peru, via Galveston, Aug. 15.—Advices received here today from Bolivia announce that President Campiera died Aug. 13.

STATE NEWS.

This year Hon. John R. Barnes of Kaysville raised 539 bushels of barley on eight acres, or over 32 bushels per acre.

Tooele transcript: Vera, the three-year-old daughter of C. E. McBride, met with a serious and what might have been a fatal accident last Sunday afternoon. The child in some way fell out of a second story window to the hard ground below, striking on her forehead. Dr. Davis was called and did what he could for the child, and at last reports she is getting along nicely.

Manti Messenger: Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Cutlem of Mayfield, aged 10 years, fell down her cellar to her sudden but tolerably speedy death about nine o'clock, sustaining severe injuries. Her aged husband carried her from the cellar when it was found her left leg was broken in two places above the ankle. Dr. Kenner was immediately called and the fractured limb, and the writing the patient is reported as getting along nicely.

A new home industry establishment has been started in Manti by our worthy townsman, Joseph Ballard, where the little girls can be supplied with every article necessary to rig out their dolls in becoming style. The establishment is provided over by several juvenile salesladies and is supplying a healthy demand for hats, bonnets, gowns, etc., for the dolls are an exhibition in endless variety, the prices of the various articles ranging from two to ten cents each.

A very painful accident befell J. W. Fielding, the well known drug store salesman of E. C. M. S., while making his customary trip south. The heavy ratio of late have made some of the roads almost impassable. Between Redmond and Salina the track became fractious in endeavoring to cross some planks which had been placed across a washout on the road and Fielding was thrown out of the wagon, the wheels passing over the lower part of his body and the left leg above the ankle. His injuries will confine him to his home for a few weeks.

Beautiful Clippert Stephen H. Ellis met with a rather peculiar accident on Friday which came within one of costing him one of his eyes. He was leading a pig into the wagon when the animal kicked him on his left eye, giving a ugly flesh wound near one of his eyes. However, it is not serious.... Grant, the seven or eight-year-old son of Moses Hudrick, came very nearly meeting his death on Wednesday by falling from a window. He was over the top of the stack bending his father a wire to tie the wagon to by on the stack when he fell. He fell about fourteen feet striking on his head badly bruising his right arm. He was laid down for an hour or so but he became unconscious and remained so about four hours. At last accounts he was doing well.... The 500 U. P. passenger train from the north on Wednesday evening ran into Cache Valley at Cove & Tom's crossing instantly killing three, fatally wounding one and badly injuring another. Some of the cows were thrown about sixty or seventy feet over a high telegraph pole. A young man who was somewhere on the front of the engine near the cow catcher says that the air brake was not applied until the locomotive was within thirty feet of the cattle. Intact Call witnessed the whole affair from his log wagon as he was driving home from the field. He says that four or five boys worked like beavers to head off the cattle but were unable to do so to part of the herd had got over the track and the balance was obliged to follow.

A Small Bee Robbed.

Yesterday a little boy from the Twentieth ward was sent to the Tribune office to make some purchases. He carried a pailful about seven inches long, which projected a short distance from his left pocket. Just after entering the yard on South Temple street, he was accosted by a man who asked the boy his name. On being informed, the man further inquired if he was a father, evidently not wishing to rob a poor orphan. On being informed that he had, the man quickly grabbed the projecting purse and made off. The boy was so bewildered that it did not occur to him to call for help, but strangely he made for home and told his mother. Luckily the purse contained only a small amount in orders.

THE GREEN BAG.

Articles of incorporation of the Manzanita Mining & Milling company were filed with the county clerk today. The incorporators are J. H. Stanton, L. A. Copeland, W. E. Ferrero and C. S. Atterbury of Murray and W. S. Copeland of Aspen, Colorado. The capital stock is placed at $100,000 and the life of the company is limited to fifty years, the principal office to be located at Murray.

In the geographicals of the locators of the State land board records of mineral deposits all over the State will be made and kept, together with results of assays, etc. It is also the intention to keep a cabinet collection of mineral specimens, which will be a special feature. The records and cabinet ought to prove very valuable acquisitions to the board's bureau of information.

SPEECH OF AN INDIAN

Made in Behalf of Blackhawk Before the State Board of Pardons.

WAS NOT AFTER HIS MILEAGE.

Did Not Relish the Word Attorney on the Card Meetings and Wanted Immediate Action Taken.

The board of pardons met this morning to consider petitions for amnesty in cases of persons incarcerated in the State prison. No action was taken in any of the cases, all of them going over till the next meeting. Applications for pardon were up for consideration as follows:

George W. Nilson, assault with intent to commit rape; William P. Lund, burglary; James A. Reed, assault with intent to commit murder; Edward Dailey, housebreaking; Elizabeth Metz, for being a prostitute; Albert Kern, robbery; Thomas Stillingham, grand larceny; Maurice A. Forest, burglary; Gelone Brown, burglary.

AN INDIAN ATTORNEY.

A second application for pardon in behalf of Blackhawk, who in 1894 killed his grandmother on the Uintah reservation while he was under the influence of liquor, was received and filed for re-advertising and to come up for consideration at the next meeting.

Andrew Hickey, an Indian who is able to talk fair English, Blackhawk's mother and his two nephews, were present at the meeting of the board and were interrogated by the action of the meeting, and Hickey was told to come again in five weeks.

Chief Justice Zane was delegated to inform Hickey, who pleaded Blackhawk's case, that he was to return to the specified time and to come alone and "leave letting" as the governor put it, "the white man talk long." Judge Zane performed his task wonderfully well for the Indian "attorney" was not satisfied. Beginning to show the age of 3, the minor Hickey exhibited an eagerness to appear for the imprisoned Blackhawk. His speech did not vary a statement of a tour, to far as interpreting was concerned, and pantomime was out of the question. Said Andrew Hickey when informed of the court's action:

"Understand now what's the matter? Come here every month every week to this Salt Lake City and I nothing get I want to take my brother Blackhawk away with me and I must come again I spend seventy-five dollars of George Washington money and make petition to West governor and I get nothing and pretty soon a new governor come a young boy and he will give me my brother Blackhawk to take away I want it now to take him home I live a long way from here two hundred miles ten cents a mile and I come again and you tell me to come again and I get nothing from this Salt Lake City I want to take him home now the man didn't go to whiskey kill the squaw not the man."

Hickey's intrusion to "ten cents a mile" provoked a smile and indicated that the Indian's political education has been under the tutorship of the modern office holder. It was not until efforts had been further explained and Governor Wells promised to consider the matter at the next meeting that Hickey was satisfied, but he left promising to come again and about after counting on his fingers and asking his excellency for $12 with which to pay railroad fare and for the return of that $75 "George Washington money." The governor told him to seek the change where he had left it, and the red man departed.

The next meeting of the board will be held on the third Saturday in September. There were present today Governor Wells, Chief Justice Zane, Attorney General Bishop and the clerk, C. S. Hills. Judge Miner was absent, having gone to California.

Dunbar with his Highland bagpipe will give some of his favorite selections and there will be a male quartette and fancy dancing by little girls. Mrs. Elizabeth D. McFarlane will give an appropriate reading and there will be other musical attractions.

There will be an expression of sentiment from the women voters, read by someone who has a good voice.

Romney Reunion.

The sixty-fifth birthday of Bishop George Romney of the Twentieth ward was fittingly celebrated last evening, August 14th, at the residence of his son Miles A. Bishop Romney's children presented him with an elegant family Bible containing the genealogy of his family. A large number of his children were present to participate in the festivities of the evening and join in wishing their father ten lays of many years to come. Re-timents complimentary to Bishop Romney were expressed by R. C. Lund of St. George, N. Y. Stoddard, H. J. Romney, Miss Ruth Romney, George Romney, Jas. Ernest Romney, Orson Romney, Geo. J. Ross and C. R. Stewart. Excellent vocal and instrumental music was furnished by Mary and Kate Romney. Bishop Romney is one of the pioneer residents of this city, and one of the best known and highly esteemed citizens.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

State Democratic Committee Meeting This Afternoon.

THEY WILL ISSUE AN ADDRESS.

Power Will, It Appears, Be Placed Almost Unanimously—Where Will the Convention Be?

The Democratic State committee will meet at the Knutsford at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of electing a chairman to succeed Judge Powers, of issuing an address and deciding upon the time and place of holding the State convention and transacting such other business as may come up. In the first place it appears that Judge Powers will be chosen to succeed himself by an almost unanimous vote though it is an open secret, that H. J. Dunnigy, D. J. Daly, Gerald P. Jackson, J. W. Hamm and a number of others will open war on him and for a time the resolution may be somewhat tropical. In the second place the address will cover the political situation, past, present and future and declare that silver is the paramount issue of the day and that the Chicago platform is the one upon which the people of Utah should stand. Thirdly, the time and place of holding the State convention will be discussed. There was a strong feeling today among the members who were come to hold the convention either at Nephi or Manti so as to convince the people of the State that there are other places of importance within its boundaries besides Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo. In addition to that it is thought it is "good politics."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Not Certain that It Will Not Be Held in a Central Position Now Is.

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting of the Republican State committee on the 28th inst. It is generally conceded that the action at that time will go very far toward outlining and controlling the policy of the State convention to be held at a later date. The purpose of the committee meeting is to set a time for holding the convention, to apportion the number of delegates among the various counties and transact such other general business as may be deemed advisable. The apportionment of delegates will in all probability be based on the vote for State treasurer last year instead of that for Governor as it is believed that will be more nearly equitable than the latter. The convention will also consider the matter of sending Bryan electors and arrange for making suggestions with reference thereto to the convention.

The place for holding the convention is another important matter to be decided upon. The talk of some weeks ago about holding it at Manti or some other supposedly strong protection town in the south is now regarded as having been premature and the idea impracticable. It is almost a certainty that the convention will be conferred upon Salt Lake, Ogden or Provo with the chances in the other behind. The principal argument against the towns of other sections is that they are too remotely located and that the time and expense of attending would be too great for the delegates to bear.

Political Pointers.

Mrs. Dr. E. R. Ferguson is reported as being a candidate for county clerk on the Democratic ticket.

Colonel Gash of Provo came up this morning to attend the Democratic State committee meeting.

Attorney O. W. Moyle, who has been attempting to induce Uncle Sam to run to life at his bait for the past two or three weeks, came down to vote at the Democratic State committee meeting today.

Judge C. W. Bennett's name is now being used in connection with a Congressional nomination by the Republicans, notwithstanding the gentleman's preference lies in the direction of a secretaryship.

The Third Precinct Free Silver quartette are busily engaged in practicing campaign songs. The quartette is composed of James Allsworth and Ernest Langton, first and second tenors, George L. Williams and Ben. H. Liddell, first and second bass respectively.

President Newell of the City Council said today it was the gravest kind of a mistake to think that he was opposed to Councilman Lloyd receiving the same recognition on the ticket as Councilman Lee was accorded Mr. Elliott. He said there had been an endeavor to "talk Lloyd out of that idea" in order to make a readjustment. But he was willing as the president of the Council to see to it that Lloyd was properly recognized at the next meeting.

A more than ordinarily observant gentleman, who is a pronounced non-believer in the political equality of the sexes, takes objection to the statement of a member of prominence as published in last evening's News, wherein they took the position that the fairer sex must be looked after in the nominations this fall. Mr. Man says: "The ladies are being very well cared for as it stands, so much so in some of our offices that men are almost excluded. Take a stroll through the departments of the joint building and you will find that the clerical assistants nearly all come from the fair sex. No matter what kind of a jamboree you want you have to get it from a female deputy. A male deputy in the joint building is a curiosity as rare as white elephants. Unnecessarily few men of families are employed there. Now I am not a woman hater but I don't want to see this official equality business overdone."
