THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret News.

EVENING — TRUTH AND LIBERTY

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXXI.

NO. 234

GEORGE HUDSON MEMBER OF UTAH BATTERY SHOT AT CAVITE

CORPORAL WILLIAM ANDERSON AND OTHERS WOUNDED.

New York, Aug. 26.—A reporter [illegible] from Manila to the New York [illegible] says: There has been a very [illegible] time at Cavite between the [illegible] and the insurgents, the latter [illegible] the [illegible] resulting in the killing [illegible] of the latter and the wounding [illegible] of quite a number of our men.

[illegible] Hudson, a member of the Utah battery, got into a dispute with a native shopkeeper. Floating troops [illegible] he fired his revolver in the air to attract the attention of some of his fellow soldiers. A great crowd of natives ran to the scene of the disturbance and at once began firing their revolvers, killing Hudson and seriously wounding Corporal Wm. Anderson, of the same battery, who had hurried to the assistance of Hudson. A detachment of the Fourth cavalry was called out and dispersed the Filipinos, who continued to fire their revolvers as they retreated, but without doing any more damage. On the same night some of the soldiers doing guard duty, met a large party of native natives, in charge of a gunlock which was from a wreck of a gunboat which was lying in Cavite Bay. A boat with an armed force was put off from the shore. The soldiers killed the captain who refused to answer. Then the natives fired a volley, killing one and wounding another. Gen. Aguinaldo accepted the blame and promised satisfaction for the [illegible] of these soldiers, and the guard. A United States gun boat fired a few shots to the center Sunday, the Olympia [illegible] which is out of order, will probably be repaired in the arsenal here where [illegible] Francis Scott Key [illegible] who were brought here from the Philippines at Chinkiang [illegible] are [illegible] and are looking [illegible] the machinery of the Cavite [illegible] The boats Bennett, Hudson, Francis and Scammon are in the harbor and in good condition, but the [illegible] Monadnock, Iowa, Maria de Molina and Barbaro are in Cavite and are under [illegible].

Another Cyclonic Death.

New York, Aug. 26.—Alex Black, [illegible] died at the Newport hospital this morning of injuries received in the cyclonic [illegible] brought here from the Philippines at Chinkiang [illegible] Black was a member of the Twenty-first Infantry, stationed at Brooklyn, [illegible].

Aguinaldo Ready to Disband.

New York, Aug. 26.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: Gen. Aguinaldo informed an Associated Press representative that he was willing to disband his army and return to the province. He complained of lack of money and military talent in the rebel leaders and said he had not an army, only an armed rabble. The general seemed disturbed. He says that he trusts the United States will form a free and liberal government and save the Americans from our mistake. He complained of the rebellion is spreading in the south. Insurgent bands have taken the heads of the priests, Rev. Bustamante being killed in the amount of the place.

DIDN'T DO IT

Clerk Says Cervera Should Have "Hung On."

HAD A GOOD FIGHTING CHANCE

Could Have Defied the American Army for a Long Time at Least.

CERVERA MADE A MAGNIFICENT RUN

Was Driven out of the Harbor—Not to Lose by Doing That Such a Move Was Said to be Made.

New York, Aug. 26.—"Cervera should [illegible] Santiago Harbor forever [illegible] on the way to Spain." [illegible] in some remarks of Captain Philip H. Cook, judge, of the Inter-[illegible]. "Do not say a traitor. With his [illegible] he could have driven the United [illegible] away from shore with such [illegible] I and many others thought [illegible] he stay. He was master of the [illegible] and should have hung on as long [illegible] and sunk of his crew [illegible] surrender. They would to have been [illegible] a hero—an eternal hero in the [illegible] of the chance in his favor [illegible] he might have come out and demanded the American ships. A gale [illegible] the American ships. A gale [illegible] would have scattered our [illegible] Cervera could have sailed away [illegible] and returned to his [illegible] and [illegible]."

[illegible] Clerk is at the Metropolitan [illegible] he prepared to fight for [illegible] Spaniards. He is merely and [illegible] now a temporary officer [illegible] of the law river and [illegible] and fort.

[illegible] the bearer of the Santiago [illegible] he was asked.

"A dispatch paper, sewed in [illegible] Washington. The Spaniards [illegible] bring."

[illegible] Spanish ships after their [illegible] to work, and in violation of [illegible] good faith on the [illegible] "The boys who did those [illegible] ought to be protected [illegible] to have some shot [illegible] building a navy after [illegible] Cuba. We are honest that all [illegible] Cuba. We are a gentleman. [illegible] Cervera, I am [illegible] the Spanish [illegible] Cervera made a magnificent run [illegible] Cervera should have [illegible] Santiago Harbor forever [illegible] on the way to Spain." [illegible] Cuba, judge, of the Inter-[illegible]. "Do not say a traitor. With his [illegible] he could have driven the United [illegible] away from shore with such [illegible] I and many others thought [illegible] he stay. He was master of the [illegible] and should have hung on as long [illegible] and sunk of his crew [illegible] surrender. They would to have been [illegible] a hero—an eternal hero in the [illegible] of the chance in his favor [illegible] he might have come out and demanded the American ships. A gale [illegible] the American ships. A gale [illegible] would have scattered our [illegible] Cervera could have sailed away [illegible] and returned to his [illegible] and [illegible]."

[illegible] Cuba. [illegible] Cuba." [illegible] Cervera [illegible] Cervera [illegible] Cervera