DEATH TO TYRANTS AND LIBERTY

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

NO. 183 TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1898, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXXI.

BATTLE TOMORROW

Fleet and Army Expected to Attack Santiago.

EVERYONE IS PREPARING.

Surgeon Orders No Firing East of Mars, as Americans are There.

CASTLE LIKELY TO BE ATTACKED FIRST

Lieut. Blue Makes Another Tour and Locates All the Spanish Warships in the Harbor.

OF Santiago de Cuba, Monday, June 27th, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 28, 9 a. m.—Governor-Lieut. Victor Blue of the cruiser gunboat Suwanee returned to the fleet today from another investigating trip ashore. He reported that Admiral Cervera's ships are all in the harbor. With the exception of one torpedo boat destroyer, they are at anchor and show no signs of activity.

Lieut. Blue went ashore on Saturday to the west of Morro Castle, accompanied by some Cuban guides. He advanced until about two miles north of Cobanas, and almost up to the enemy's lookouts. He traveled slowly miles and returned the Suwanee this morning. At no time the Suwanee was at a Cuban seaport, moved only by 400 yards from a Spanish outpost.

"They talked away at each other all the time," said Lieut. Blue, "but I do not think the Cubans hurt the Spaniards very much, and I know the Spaniards did not hurt the Cubans."

Lieut. Blue was able to accurately locate the position of each of Admiral Cervera's ships.

Rear Admiral Sampson warned his fleet this morning to exercise great care in shooting at the hills east of Morro Castle, pointing out that the American army had advanced and that our own troops might be deployed on the hillside.

It is hardly likely that a serious attack will be taken by the navy until Wednesday. By that time the army is expected to be ready for another forward movement.

The dynamite gunboat Vesuvius fired three shots last night. They fell in the vicinity of Morro castle and the cruiser Indiana.

During the night a loud explosion occurred in their rear Aguadores. It is believed to have been caused by the Spaniards blowing up the bridge on the road leading near that place. It is now certain that Juragua may be selected as the permanent coaling harbor for the fleet.

Henry Wellock, an ordinary seaman, belonging to the Bagehip New York, was drowned yesterday. The New York was coaling in front of Morro Castle, from the collier Alexander, when Wellock jumped from the collier to go ashore. He was seen to swim in an attempt to get from the collier to each ship. He fell between the Gamble and the collier and sank at once. The body was not recovered.

The Dolphin has gone to the Siboney anchorage, and the Resolute and the Yankton have gone to the southern anchorage.

A battle is looked to the fleet to Rear Admiral Sampson yesterday said:

"From a report made by one of the wounded, seaman Bourgeois, of the Bagehip of New York, a considerable part of the damage to our troops on Friday last was done by seven shots from our own guns, which fell short. It is thus there would seem to be some probability in the report of the sailor officer of the crews of Admiral Cervera's squadron."

SHAFTER IS AT THE FRONT.

American Commander Goes on to Confer with General Wheeler and Division Commanders.

Juragua, Province of Santiago de Cuba, June 27 (Monday), per the Associated Press Dispatch boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, Tuesday, June 28, 8 a.m.—Major General Shafter is in command of the United Bay of Guantanamo and Guantanamo Bay. He and the transport from Baiquiri, with Col. John Jacob Astor, Captain Stewart and Lieut. Mitchell, aboard, with his staff, at about 7 o'clock this afternoon.

He was met by Gen. Bates who was superintending the landing of supplies and troops at their pressure.

Gen. Shafter in full uniform and wearing a straw helmet, was soon mounted on a large handsome horse and rode through the town, surveying the scene of the landing operations and the camps of the troops. He looked for a moment before the cottage which served as the headquarters of the Cuban insurgents, where Gens. Garcia and Castillo paid their respects to the American commander. About an hour later Gen. Shafter struck on the road to the front, to consult with Gen. Wheeler and the divisional commanders who are all over the field of operations before Santiago de Cuba. The general said he would probably return to the Juragua headquarters tonight.

Colonel Roosevelt and his regiment are to be provided at Juragua at noon.

The Harana Blockade.

On Board the Associated Press Dispatch boat Cynthia II., off Havana, June 27, 4 p.m., via Key West, June 28, 8 a.m.—For the first time in weeks a consular dispatch boat entered the blockading fleet off Havana yesterday. The conditions were found to be as follows: In the waters of the Gulf Stream, as the coasts of Havana, it was impossible to land a consular dispatch boat. The Spanish gunboats patrolled the Mariguarity the other day, detachments of which were landed at the Cuba, but they have not attempted to break the monotony of the peaceful life.

Hardly has Cuba's capital been and night fall, when the Spanish gunboats, when the lights of the Spanish fleet, the lights of the Spanish fleet, the lights of the Spanish fleet,
