SEARCH ABANDONED.

The Sheriff Says Taylor is Alive and Well.—Has He Been Playing a Game?

The men who have been in the mountains for several days past searching for Jas. Henry Taylor have returned but have found no trace of the missing man. The search has been abandoned. Sheriff Belknap said today that he had positive proof that Taylor is alive and well. Taylor's father is also of the same belief. It is supposed, though the sheriff would not say so, that Taylor is in Montana. Letters have been received and parties are willing to swear that they were written in Taylor's own handwriting. A reward of $200 was offered yesterday by G. T. Dobson for the body of Taylor, dead or alive. Family troubles are said to be the cause of Taylor's departure.

Supposed Drowning.

An eight-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. James Reeder, of Twenty-first street, left home on Saturday morning and has not been heard of since. A diligent search was made Saturday and yesterday, but no tidings of the little fellow were learned. The supposition is that the boy went fishing and was drowned. He wore a checked waist, striped pants and a dark brown hat. The parents are nearly distracted with grief.

Street to be Paved.

A little over three weeks ago about 70 men were at work tearing up the south part of lower Twenty-fifth street, preparatory to paving it. A week later work was suddenly suspended, the cause being the non-arrival of the steam roller. Meantime the property owners in that portion of town have been hard in their complaints at the condition of the street, as it has been impossible for sprinkling carts to do service. Superintendent Wilkinson said the roller would arrive on Tuesday. Work was resumed today.

Death of Judge Hunsaker.

Judge O. S. Hunsaker, a member of the bar of the Fourth district court, and a resident of Brigham City, died rather suddenly at his home on Thursday last. Deceased was well-known in this city and his untimely death was a great surprise to his many friends. The funeral took place on Saturday from the family residence. The members of the bar residing at Brigham City met on Saturday night and passed suitable resolutions.

Notes and Personals.

George Sutherland, of Provo, is visiting friends in the Junction city.

W. S. Cook, clerk of the Second district court at Beaver, spent yesterday in Ogden.

Cashier Nichols of the Southern Pacific returned on Saturday from the World's Fair.

County Clerk Tyler left for his home in the east on Saturday, expecting to be gone about three weeks.

The district court will hereafter be held at its old quarters in the Utah Loan and Trust company's building.

The United States Fish Commission car, in charge of Col. Lambson, arrived yesterday on its way to the coast.

The shooting match between the Salt Lake and Ogden shotgun clubs will take place in this city on Wednesday next.

Peter Knowles of the Logan fire department was seen on the streets Saturday, in company with Sheriff Kirk of Cache county.

Prof. T. B. Lewis has been appointed by the board of education, county superintendent of county schools.

Judge Miner endeavored to try a few cases on Saturday, but the noise of the workmen and the unfinished condition of things precluded the possibility of his doing so. The judge will try it again.

Quite a number of Salt Lakers passed through Ogden this morning on their way to the World's Fair and other points east. Among the familiar faces were seen W. H. Rowe, wife and daughter, A. W. Carlson, Robert Patrick and Assel Woodruff.

Myrtle Cook, the son of Frank Cook, tramped his way to Chicago and back, doing most of the journey on foot. He is nearly fifteen years old and was absent from home about six weeks. The boy has quite a fund of information of the Fair and his novel experience on the road.

Franklin school—W. W. Billings, principal; Ida Allsman and Emma Tinsbeer.

Webster school—George Robinson, principal, and Mary Amberson.

Page school—M. I. Bushman, principal, and May Nuttall.

Mountain school—Frank Evans. Special music instructors, Professor H. E. Giles. There remains yet an additional number of teachers to be secured. The salaries range from $35 to $50 per month.

Notes and Personals.

The grand jury has completed all business on hand and has adjourned until June 26th.

Bert Brown is a knight of the grip once more. He travels for Swedland Brothers, a Kansas City dry goods firm.

These are licensed to wed: Clarence B. Matson of Springville and Rachel Warner of Spanish Fork; Jens P. M. Pilegaard and Ane C. Andersen of Pleasant Grove.

Mr. Anton Sorensen of Salt Lake county and Miss Ray Kirkwood of this city will be made one at the Salt Lake Temple on Wednesday. A reception will be given at the residence of the bride's parents on Thursday evening.

The bicycle boys have raked the county road clear of rocks preparatory for the one hundred mile relay race today.

A. A. Noon, recently returned from Pueblo, claims that the iron mines near Goshen contain a greater quantity of ore by far and of a much higher grade than the iron mines of Colorado. Capital to develop is all that is wanted.

Henry Wells, a small boy, sustained a broken elbow on Saturday from a fall while at play. Dr. Brickford reduced the fracture.
