ARBITRATION PLAN.

Attorney General Olney's Remedy for Labor Troubles.

HOW TO SETTLE WAGE DISPUTES.

To Discriminate Against Men Belonging to Unions Made a Misdemeanor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—A labor arbitration plan has been devised by Attorney General Olney, and was introduced today by Chairman McGann of the House committee on labor. It is intended as a substitute for the one named by Labor Commissioner Wright, as a result of the labor of the Chicago strike commission.

In several points the bill is more far-reaching in its propositions than any that has been brought forward. The terms "railroad" and "employes" are defined in the bill and the same class included as in the Wheeler law, over operated by the carrier under a lease, making the carrier responsible for its acts as though they were employed directly by him.

The wages paid to employes, it is stipulated, shall be reasonable and just. In case of wage controversies the chairman of the interstate commerce commission and the commissioner of labor shall communicate with the parties endeavoring to effect an amicable settlement, and if this mediation fails the controversy may be submitted to a board of arbitration, of which the chairman of the interstate commerce commission shall be chairman and which shall consist also of one commissioner chosen by the employer, and one by the labor organization to which the employes directly interested belong, or if they belong to more than one, by that one which specially represents employes of the same grade and class and engaged in service of the same nature as the employes in the controversy.

Where two or more classes of employes are interested, their organizations shall agree upon their representatives. Other details are:

That the award shall be final unless set aside for error of law apparent on the record.

Employes identified with the award shall not quit work without three months' notice in writing.

The award shall be continued in force for two years and during that period no new arbitration between the same parties on the same subject shall be had.

Membership in incorporated labor organizations, it is provided, shall not be terminated by discharge in new business, violence, destruction of property, intimidation, or threats by members acting earlier, but they are not to be held individually liable for debts of the organization.

Employes who make it a condition of employment that men shall not be members of any labor organization, or discharge or threaten to discharge men for such membership or abet mistakes against them because of it, or enter into contracts compelling the men to contribute to any fund for charitable, social or beneficial objects, or after discharging men conspire to prevent them from obtaining employment, shall be guilty of misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $100 to $1,000.

Train Buried in Snow.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 17.—Reports from the mountains tell of heavy snows in the southern and western parts of the state. At Creede it is the deepest fall of the year, being fourteen inches on the level and still falling. A large snowslide narrowly missed killing seven men and has stopped all ore hauling for several days. At Riverton the Denver & Rio Grande railroad is blocked. A snowslide buried an entire train of pack mules and their drivers, but all got out safe. There is no prospect of the snow letting up. Near Buena Vista three feet of snow is reported in the mountains.

Speaker Crisp Ill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Speaker Crisp, by order of his physician, will be compelled to leave Washington within a day or two about two weeks, for a stay at Asheville, N. C. He is suffering from some trouble of the mucous in the vicinity of the nasal, and the doctors have urged him to absent himself for the remainder of the session. This he will not do, unless the trouble becomes more, though his friends are urging him to do so, since there is little of importance likely to be done in the session. The Speaker was well enough today to preside over the House and attend a time committee meeting.

Another Hikona Recall.

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 17.—The Hikona was opened today by King Oscar in person. In the speech from the throne, referring to Sweden and Norway, he said:

"The constitutional union made in 1814 has been under the auspices of God, powerfully promoted to a long duration of a happy state of affairs. I hope that the two people will always justly appreciate the happiness and advantages attributable through the union, for they will then exert all their strength to preserve and consolidate it."

The America's Cup.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Commodore Rowe says out his challenge statement the New York Yacht club tonight. "A cup defender will be built by the following members of the New York Yacht club: W. K. Vanderbilt, Cornelius K. G. Billings and Mr. Iselin. Mr. Iselin will have complete charge. Not Herreshoff has been commissioned in this the point."

To Foreclose a $. F. Mortgage.

OMAHA, Jan. 17.—A petition will be filed in St. Louis, Saturday before Judge Sanborn looking to the foreclosure of the first mortgage for one hundred of the Union Pacific railroad. The mortgage is for $32,000,000. The petition is supposed to have been prepared at the instance of the trustees of the first mortgage bonds in the Chicago, St. Louis & New York. Senator-elect John M. Thurston, attorney for the Union Pacific railroad, will go to St. Louis tomorrow. He will represent the government. The present receivers are expected to be retained by the trustees until the business is concluded.

Punishment for a Crime.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 17.—Among the bills introduced in the legislature today was one by Mr. Bailey of Montgomery county to provide that when any person is convicted of rape or attempted rape, whether he be sentenced to death or not, he shall be completely castrated by a competent surgeon within twenty days from the date of sentence.

Gen. Miles Dead.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—General Israel N. Miles died tonight of paralysis. He was colonel of the Sixty-third Indiana regiment during the Rebellion and made a brilliant war record, being commissioned Brigadier General. For some years General Miles had been totally blind.

FRANCE'S NEW PRESIDENT

Received With Great Enthusiasm in Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—M. Faure arrived at the St. Lazare station at 9 o'clock. A majority of the senators and deputies had preceded him. When the presidential train entered the station, bugles sounded, drums beat and the troops presented arms. M. Faure emerged and entered a superb carriage which was escorted by cuirassiers. As soon as the president was seen the immense crowd shouted, "Vive la Republique!" "Vive Felix Faure!" Hats were waved and the greatest of enthusiasm was displayed. Dupuy sat beside the president.

M. Felix Faure was born in Paris on January 30, 1841. He was formerly a ship owner of Havre, and was president of the chamber of commerce of that town. During the Franco-Prussian war he was a chief of batallion of the Garde Mobile and led from Havre to Paris the volunteers who assisted in putting down the commune. He was first elected to the Chamber of Deputies as a republican in 1881, and at the time of the formation of the Gambetta cabinet on November 14, 1881, he became under-secretary of state in the ministry of commerce and colonies.

He relinquished office with the other members of the cabinet on January 1, 1882, but he was called to fill the same office on September 24, 1883, in the last cabinet presided over by M. Jules Ferry, and resigned with the rest of the ministry on March 31, 1885. M. Faure was elected to represent the Seine Inferieure in the elections of October, 1886, and for the third time became undersecretary of state, this time in the Tirard cabinet. In the elections of December 22, 1889, he was elected to represent the second district of Havre, and in the Dupuy cabinet, which resigned just previous to the restoration of M. Carnot-Peret, he was minister of marine. M. Faure was slated for the presidency of the Chamber of Deputies in the event of the defeat of either M. Brisson or M. Waldeck-Rousseau.

SOCIALIST MANIFESTO.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—The memoirs of the retiring president, Carnot, have resigned office in the hands of President Faure, but will continue temporarily the direction of affairs.

The socialist deputies met this evening and issued a manifesto characterizing Faure as the candidate of reaction and monopoly parties, alleged precedent against the candidate of all the opportunists."

The manifesto says:

"The republican failure in their country have hoped that Faure would be presented by the country even against the anger of the democracy."

SEN. CULLOM RENOMINATED.

He Makes a Characteristic Speech Refusing to Correct Questions.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 17.—The Republican joint caucus at which a senatorial candidate was voted tonight. The nomination of Shelby M. Cullom for second time to the United States senate for the next six years had all but been a foregone conclusion for twenty-four hours or more, and there remained but to ratify the apparently well established sentiment of the members by a formal roll call. Senator Berry of Hancock placed the name of Senator Cullom in nomination in a brief eulogistic speech. Hon. George R. Wilkin of Chicago was then nominated by Senator Anthony. A formal vote was then taken, resulting in Senator Cullom's nomination on the second ballot, Cullom, 102; Wilkin, 37.

The choice was made unanimous and a score of well established, Senator Cullom was escorted to the platform and after reaffirming the good obligation and gratitude to the people of Illinois for having a third time selected him to represent them in the United States Senate, spoke in terms of unusual vehemence for the first speech of Democratic origin left to Congress."

The senator's only direct reference to the current political questions of the day was embodied in the following paragraph:

"The disheartened democracy of the Fifty-third Congress is striving to build a new current law and, just as they are passing into oblivion, they seek to substitute a boasting financial policy upon the country. We won't have it. The people, the Republican party, will initiate and control the policy of this country. We will again insure our citizens belief in the Monroe doctrine and again obtain that America is for the American people. We will give a new impulse to American commerce. We will open a new Pacific market for the products of the Mississippi valley on way of the Nicaragua canal and add millions to the value of our agricultural products."

Sought to the Attempt.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Edward Dufour, who was sought by bookkeeper J. G. Hall, while attempting to burglarize the safe of the Crescent mills, has acknowledged his identity as "Kid" Griffiths. He waived examination and was held to await the action of the grand jury.

Insurance Companies Alarmed.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 18.—The eastern fire insurance companies are apparently becoming alarmed over the threatened legislation at the present session of the legislature, and have notified their agents in the state to do all they can to defeat the passage of the bill introduced by Representative Cubbinson of this city.

Land Opened for Settlement.

HURON, S. D., Jan. 18.—The secretary of the Huron land office has received plats of 100,000 acres of land in the northeast portion of the Crow Creek Indian reservation, opens that portion of land, much sought after years ago, for settlement under the homestead law.

Scandals and Other Matters.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Major General Ruger has gone to the Indian Territory to inspect the forts and to inquire into the condition of the Cherokees and the prospects of war outbreak at Fort Sill. Word at Washington at the beginning of the year General Ruger had a conference with the department concerning the premises and it is probable that a recommendation of release will follow the report of the general.

Police Officers Suspended.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 18.—Major Hill last night suspended the chief of police, two sergeants and an officer for being implicated in the protection of gamblers. The matter is the outcome of an investigation being conducted by the grand jury into gambling which has been openly carried on for some time.

A Congressman Sued.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 18.—Theodore Hagner, of this city, president of the Higbee Investment company, has brought suit against Jos. R. H. Lorenzo for $20,000 damages for defamation of character. Mr. Lorenzo is pastor of the Lutheran church of Boonville. Hagner charges that the complaint was made by a letter written by Rev. Mr. Mildenberg, of New York, in which Lorenzo stated that Hagner's business relations were based on false pretences and that misrepresentations had been practiced by him.

For the Protection of a Bridge.

ATCHISON, Kan., Jan. 18.—The work of repairing the damaged bridge at this town, through which it is proposed to turn the Missouri river, is now entirely in progress. It will be over a mile in length and of an average width of seventy feet. A total of 107,000 pounds of iron will be utilized. This is considered the only project sure to be passed for the protection of the Atchison bridge upon which the river is gradually making encroachments.

O'DONNELL'S BILL

For the Protection of Members of Lodge and Benevolent Associations.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 18.—Delegate O'Donnell, of Bloomington, has introduced in the house a bill to protect members of lodge and benevolent associations. It provides that any officer or agent of such association who shall directly or indirectly receive any payment on stock when at the time of receiving such payment he knows the association to be insolvent or should have known it by using reasonable diligence and whereby payment on stock shall be lost to the stockholder or his office or agent receiving such payment be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined a sum double the amount embezzled, and in addition may be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one year, nor more than three.
