NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Union Pacific Agent Suicides at Sacramento.

MORMONS AND THE FAIR AT DIAZ

Jealous shot by a Boy—Runaway Marriage—Sold in a Grave—Arizona and Canalera.

Pocatello, Idaho, Inclosure: Sheriff Hess has received a telegram Monday morning from Chas. Woodall, asking information about Harry Bennett and Minnie Weston, who had driven off from the Woodall, who had driven off from the ranch in the direction of Oakley valley. The telegram further stated that they would probably take the train about 10:30 at Oakley. Miss Minnie was under age. The world made elegant search, but failed. But the runaway couple, who left here when the young people left here, stopped on their tracks, foiled the old folks and went to Paris and got married.

Sheriff Scott and Dr. Craig have returned from their visit to the grave of the old miner, Stanford, near Nevada City, who was supposed to have been murdered, says the Mt. Julian Antonio, Arizona. In their examination of the body they failed to find any signature that would indicate he had been murdered. But in digging the body they were surprised to find the stocking of metal, and upon turning the body to the surface the bottom of the grave was covered with $20 gold pieces, in all $200 which had evidently been sewed in his clothing, and at the time of his treatment by the citizens supposed, had been overlooked. In both when the body was first found, it was in such a state of decomposition that close scrutiny was impossible.

Arizona Journal-Miner: A wealthy syndicate was formed recently in the East for the purpose of engaging in the culture of canalera in the Salt River valley. Representatives of the company visited Phoenix a few days since and it is understood closed a deal on Wednesday for the purchase of 5,000 acres of land near Phoenix. They have entered into a contract for the planting of one car load per month and the first shipment will be made about August 1. The company owns 1,000 acres of land near Merced, California, and a similar tract near Hanford. The enterprise promises to prove quite a valuable acquisition to the industries of the territory. The first shipments will be made from the native canalera growing wild, but later the company will engage extensively in its cultivation.

The Deming, New Mexico, Headlight, says the Mormons of Chihuahua, Mexico, propose to hold their second annual fair on the 11th, 12th and 13th of September, at Colonia Diaz. The Juarez brass band will be in attendance, and the Diaz and Juarez boys will play a match game of baseball on the second day. Other features of the program, which are being worked up by the executive committee, comprise a speech making, a literary contest, horse and foot races, a baby show, theater by the home company and a concert. Arrangements are being made for the entertainment of all visitors after the Mormon style of doing things, and it is hoped that it can be demonstrated that a general good time can be had without the evils that usually attend such affairs. On account of their belief in the advisability of suppressing such things, it has been decided by the board of directors that no gambling or selling of spirituous liquors be allowed on the fair grounds.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Monday morning Lawrence Melenzahl, a lad of eighteen years, was awakened by someone entering the house by a window at Centralia, Oregon. He quietly slipped into his mother's room and awakened her. Then he loaded his gun with No. 4 shot. In the meantime the burglar had struck several articles, and finally entered the room occupied by the young man's sister. Melenzahl told his mother that he would get outside and that she should make a noise, which she did. The burglar ran out, and as he did so Melenzahl fired, and the man fell dead. An investigation showed him to be a negro known as James Van Zant. The shot had taken effect in the left lower right breast. Van Zant has borne a rather bad reputation for some time, and on more than one occasion had been serenading to several young girls in the neighborhood in which he lived. On his person was found a razor and a huge bunch of keys.

John N. Judd, will be the freight agent of the Union Pacific railway in Sacramento, committed suicide Sunday morning by hanging himself to the lattice in his room by means of a shawl strap. The body was found about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and when cut down it was evident that life had been extinct for at least three hours. Mr. Judd was well known among the social set in Sacramento and was highly thought of. Every summer for several years he has been out west during the time when fruit shipments were being made. Mr. Judd is said to have been in ill health, and two children in Denver, Col., where plans he called his home. Those who claim to know Mrs. Judd's condition say that the news of her husband's death will probably kill her. The only cause assigned for the act is that Mr. Judd had been complaining of ill health for some time, and that he had remarked several times that he would never get well. It was this that probably led him to take his own life.
