OCCURRENCES AT PROVO.

The Co-operative Stock of Merchandise Sold Under Foreclosure.

Bondage Still Has a Season the Union Pacific—Farmers' Discussion—Other News.

PROVO, Utah, March 29.—The merchandise, notes, accounts, and other personal property of the Provo Co-operative Mercantile Institution was sold under mortgage of a similar mortgage to Mr. H. S. M. Lee, by Z. D. Walker, sheriff. The purchase will be confirmed by Mr. Wilson, Mr. Knightly will be in charge for the creditors.

The suit of the jury in the case of W. R. Bradshaw against the Union Pacific Railway Co. (the Utah Central road) was taken up for the third and last time yesterday afternoon. It took the jury 10 minutes and 11 days to decide a verdict for plaintiff against the company for the amount of $1,750.

Judge Hagan of the Engineer force, and Mr. Gregory, have left for Provo to take up the Deseret Gold mining property, which, Mr. Gregory, said last night, contemplate purchasing.

A farmers' meeting held last evening, under the auspices of the Alpine, to consider the question of the best and most profitable variety of potatoes to grow was discussed, and a number of speakers were heard on the question. The opinion of the meeting was finally given in favor of the Early Rose and Burbank varieties. Other questions of interest to farmers were considered, and an informative meeting was held.

On the 20th inst. the Utah County Field Division Institute will hold a meeting in the Second Ward assembly room. It is the first place in Utah County to Joseph Smith, the Opera House is the choice of the institutionalists for the occasion.

Condemnation Proceedings.

The Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway Co. filed somewhat sought out in the Third District Court against Benjamin Barker and others, Jarles to condemn a certain piece of land in Salt Lake County, for railroad purposes. Mr. Barker asks for the nominal value of the same to be fixed, which can be done without residence and is not in the defendants.

The line of railroad in question is now operated from Salt Lake to Fairbright, Davis County.

Messrs. A. Gillespie are the plaintiff's attorneys.

The Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway company has filed mortgage notes in the Third district court for various abstracts, copying for the consideration of certain strips of land in Davis County, for use as a right of way. The first amount to be sued on is Lorenzo Farmington and Centerville, and is owned by John Fox et al., Mary Hooper, William Hodge and John A. Wells, respectively, and, in the amount, to be paid, respectively, Davis county, except one note in Weber's, same range.

Grand Kirmess.

A grand kirmess is to be given in the Salt University building on Friday evening next under the auspices of the Literary Athletic association. The affair promises to be very unique, interesting and successful.

Lecture on India.

Time honored in Indian customs, sacred and religious will have an opportunity of listening to a lecture on the same to be given by Dr. Linda Sen in the Tabernacle next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, March 31, at 7:30 p.m. The money will be taken in, but those attending are expected to provide for little Sam on Uncle, so our old entertainer is sure to be at hand.

Gone to Riverton.

Sheriff Hardy and Assistant County Attorney Harrington went to Riverton on Monday to take part in the hearing of the case to oust the justice of the peace of that precinct, in which Bales, Hodgson and two other young men are charged with forcible entry. A number of petty thefts have been committed in Salt Creek Riverton, and it is believed the same are responsible for being brought to them.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Bonny Bonny, a very light show, visited Lehi a week ago and left behind a very favorable impression.

Blue Grass Grove, one of the longest lived of the road, was visited on a very attractive and enjoyable night, and the night there been more fashionably attended with pleasant weather. As it had not been advertised widely, however, only a light audience was in attendance. Nearly every leading home company of the day appeared at Lehi during the season, and the Grove, taken altogether, the result proves to be a success both financially and performers.

Lehi—The production of the lately revived comedy, Engaged, at the Grand Opera House on the night of March 25 was found great favor with our theatre goers. The delicacy of Mr. Gilbert's wit, the beauty of the situations and the humorous the presentation of both made the evening's entertainment a success. Miss Interest, Leigh, Hughes and Cook, and Messrs. Cole, Kirk, Wonder, Kilgrove and Sim are all worthy of high praise for their characterizations. Miss Hughes's new dress are the most superb that we have seen in this city. The evening will be mostly spent and one of the largest and most fashionable audiences ever gathered in this popular house was in attendance. Monsieur Beaucaire's Tours Mr. Wilbinger will be present next week.

Early Experiences in Utah.

Dr. H. J. Faust will deliver a lecture in the church this evening in the Twenty-first Ward meeting house on Early Experiences in Utah. An invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

Charged With Fighting.

The trial of Carl Roswell, a Swede, and Miss, Pat and Ralph Marion, on the charge of fighting, is in progress before Police Judge Smith this afternoon.

(Continued from Page One.)

AFTER THE SQUALL.

[illegible]

Adjournment Sine Die.

The proposition to adjourn sine die was lost by a decisive vote of [illegible].

Carey would accept adjournment sine die [illegible] to return at [illegible].

Lady Shelley to Senator Hoar—Will [illegible] adjourn sine die.—[illegible]

Senator Hoar—[illegible] the Convention and [illegible]. What time will you expect [illegible]?

Chairman Dyer, of the committee [illegible] will not hamper the Convention with any [illegible] resolutions and [illegible].

Fifteen legislative committees have been made in an effort to appropriate the public money of the [illegible] [illegible] to make it so [illegible] and [illegible] of all party organizations are agreed.

Gray's "political economy" remarks and Lynch's sharp rejoinder [illegible] a veritable party earthquake [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]