MORE FAITHFUL OFFICERS.

Representatives of Another Branch of the City Government Heard From.

Colonel Ed. Kelly is authority for the statement that Firemen Vale, Meyerson and Welch entered his State street saloon at four o'clock this morning while drunk and that they created a disturbance and threatened to smash everything in the place. The police were called and a fight followed, in which the firemen came out second best. It is due to say, however, no arrests were made; that is there is no record to that effect, and Colonel Kelly wants to know why this is. The public would also like some light on this matter.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Meeting of the Territorial Convention.—Text Books for the District Schools.

Yesterday afternoon the Territorial convention to adopt school books to be used in the district schools during the ensuing five years met at the University building.

The convention was called to order by J. R. Bateman, commissioner of district schools, who stated the object of the meeting and said: "You are here, gentlemen, to adopt what are, in your judgment, the best books for the schools of Utah. I hope you will do your work well."

D. C. Hubbard named John R. Park as chairman, which was carried unanimously.

Mr. Joshua Greenwood of Milford offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this convention consists on text books, subject by subject, in the order named in the commissioner's call.

2. That the representatives of book shipping houses be allowed such time to present his books on the subject under consideration and explain the terms offered for the adoption of the subject, provided no member of the convention may question any statement made by any book man.

3. That the convention decide upon the adoption of the books on one subject before another be considered unless otherwise ordered at the time of the question.

W. J. Robinson moved that the chair appoint a committee of three to open bids, which was carried, Mr. Allen, Mr. Clayton and Mr. Wilson being named.

Bids were received from A. Lovell & Co., New York; D. K. Angstong, Salt Lake City, offered a series of drawing books; Ginnes & Cannon & Sons company offered Talmage's Domestic Science; Leach, Thewell & Sanborn, St. Louis Book company; Porter & Coates; George Sherwood & Co.; Educational Publishing company, Chicago; A. H. Butler & Co., Philadelphia; John B. Potter & Co., Silver, Burdett & Co.; D. C. Heath & Co.; Ginn & Co.; F. B. Mc. and A. Co.; Sheldon & Co.; Colonial Book company, St. Louis; Bancroft & Co.; American Book company, by O. G. Burton, agent; all offered long bids.

Coulter & Snelgrove offered a music series.

The reading of the bids occupied nearly three hours and was a tedious proceeding.

The secretary was authorized to employ an assistant.

Adjourned till today.

This morning the convention opened at 10 o'clock, when bids were offered for Readers. Each publishing agent was allowed five minutes' speech, and eight sets were presented. The matter was then taken under advisement. If any change is made it will be because the present books are too expensive and not well enough graded. The "New Franklin" (published by Sheldon & Co.) appears to be the favorite. The convention does not want to make any change unless the same is found to be necessary, and it may doubt exists the people will have the benefit of it.

The convention will this afternoon decide on Readers and Spellers.

AN EARLY MORNING FIRE.

A Carpenter Shop Goes Up in Smoke in Ogden.

At 2:30 this morning W. H. Flewelling's carpenter shop located at the corner of Grant avenue and Twenty-seventh street, Ogden, was discovered on fire. Nearly a block of hose was strung and a heavy stream of water was soon playing upon the flames, which soon enveloped the building. The shop burned like tinder, being filled with inflammable material. The department prevented the spread of the fire to the adjoining dwelling houses, but nothing could save the shop and contents, which were totally destroyed, nothing but a few blackened timbers remaining where once stood a handsome new building.

The loss, as nearly as could be estimated, will reach $1200, partially covered by insurance.

Mr. Flewelling attributes the fire to incendiarism, as no stove or matches were left around the shop at night. On several occasions he has discovered places in the shop where tramps have laid their lively forms, and thinks one man have been careless with his cigarette lighters this morning.

"Didn't Know It."

Ex-City Detective Hugh L. Glenn stated this afternoon that he wanted it distinctly understood that he was not aware of his commission as deputy United States marshal having been revoked a week or ten days ago as stated by Clerk Swann, in the St. Omer case this morning. No such notification of that kind had ever reached him. In fact, he had not yet been notified.

PROHIBITIONISTS

Work of the National Convention Now in Session.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 28.—The work of the National Convention of the Prohibition party was practically opened today with the meeting of the National Committee, Chairman S. T. Dickie, Ann Arbor, Mich., presiding. The primary object of the meeting was the selection of temporary officers for the convention, but the committee did not confine itself to this, and the meeting was largely in the nature of a caucus to shape, as far as possible, in advance the proceedings of the convention. Attention was drawn to the coincidence of this latest and most prominent gathering of the party held in Ohio State, in which the first Presidential candidate of the Prohibitionists was named. All sorts of pleasant allusions were drawn from the fact that the leaders express confidence that this will be the largest convention ever held, and are making preparations to give the movement boom.

The Music Hall in which the convention will be held is the place in which Hanson was nominated for President, and has a seating capacity of nearly five thousand.

The buildings are decorated with bunting, flags, coats of arms of various States, inscriptions suitable to a Prohibition convention, and a few not complimentary to the leading political parties. A hundred and fifty delegates are in town, and several special trains on the way. Fourteen car loads are expected from the Pacific coast and the far West. Southern delegates are gathering. Some of the far South-ern States will not be well represented. All sorts of ideas are bandied about among the delegates present, for presentation to the convention. The Presidential nomination at present seems to be between Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Demorest. The former is the choice of the leaders who are putting him forward to oppose Democrat. The principal planks in the platform, the platter seems to be that he will subscribe liberally to the campaign, that the leaders want a man who will take stand in opposition and they say if Demorest is nominated it will be necessary to send him away until the campaign is over, as he cannot make speeches or be interviewed.

A sensation was created in the beer and mineral halls over Rhine last night by visits from ex-Governor St. John of Kansas, his wife, Rev. M. C. Leinwood, Mrs. Helen Gougar, and other prominent prohibitionists. They were there for the purpose of these places, but made no attempt at missionary work among them.

THE CHOLERA.

Inhabitants of Russian Towns Fleeing in Panic.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 28.—The cholera is spreading rapidly in some parts of the empire. At Baku 53 new cases were reported yesterday. The inhabitants are fleeing in panic. A military physician at Davlaz telegraphs that the disease is beyond control and asks for assistance.

THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT.

Queen Victoria's Speech Prorogues the Legislature.

LONDON, June 28.—The Queen is holding council at Windsor Castle. Present are the Lord Chancellor, Lord President of the Ex-Council Gladstone, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Earl of Lathom, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, Hon. Mary Lyttelton and dames directing the Parliament.

Writs for elections of new members of the House of Commons will be distributed tonight. The Queen's speech proroguing the Parliament says: "The time has arrived when it is expedient that the industrial body of the empire be consulted by the assemblage of a new Parliament. I have therefore summoned you for prorogation at an earlier period than usual.

"I am glad to record that my friendly relations with the foreign powers remain unclouded. Treaties have been duly ratified, referring the differences with the United States with respect to the Bering Sea arbitration."

Referring to bills passed at the session just ended the speech says the arrangements that the parliament has made enabling the workingmen to purchase their dwellings and allotments will increase the class of cultivating owners, which is of great importance to the state.

The attention to Ireland of the educational measures recently adopted in Great Britain will center a great benefit upon the people of that country.

The speech concludes: "In closing this parliament which has been unusually laborious and which has been fruitful in beneficent legislation, I thank you for the assiduous performance of your momentous duties during the long session and heartily join in commend you to the favor of Almighty God."

Only twenty members of the House and thirty-five lords were present when the speech from the throne was delivered.

To Re-apportion Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., June 28.—The legislature convened in special session this morning to re-apportion the State into legislative districts, the supreme court having declared the apportionment of 1891 illegal. After selecting officers there was appointed of a joint committee on apportionment it adjourned till tomorrow.

Bankruptcy Bills.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The judiciary committee of the House reported a substitute bill consisting of seventy-one sections of the Torrey bill, with a few amendments, for the three bankruptcy bills pending before the committee.

The amendments provide that a referee shall be appointed by the district instead of the circuit court; that the percentage which was to be paid to the government to reimburse it for the payment of the salaries of referees shall be paid direct to the referees to lieu of the salaries; that as many of these officers may be appointed as may be necessary to transact bankruptcy business and that a corporation shall not enter into voluntary bankruptcy, but under proceedings by the creditors.

Section F, of the Torrey bill omitted from the substitute, related to the loaning of money on bankrupt estates.

To Direct the Democratic Campaign.

NEW YORK, June 28.—A morning paper says that reports received from high authority that Cleveland will select the following chief officers to direct his campaign: Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, W. C. Whitney; chairman of the executive committee, Wm. F. Harity, Pennsylvania, and Secretary Gen. F. Parker, N. Y.

A Legal Battle.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The legal battle which the Republicans of the State propose to wage against the Republican Ballot Bill passed by the Democratic legislature began to take a definite form or action yesterday. A committee from the Republican club called upon Senator Hancock, and he and the committee went over the whole legal aspect of the case. Hancock's injunction will be brought inside of three weeks.

Successful Launching of the "Texas."

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 28.—The Navy Department received a cablegram from Admiral Jouett, commanding the great battle ship "Texas," today.

The news in spite of the rain which fell the entire forenoon, was most animated. Fifteen thousand spectators were in the yard and as many more on neighboring hills, yachts and the opposite shore of the river. A at quarter after 11 Miss Maude Houston Williams of Texas, at the signal "ready," cried out the words "I christen thee Texas," broke a bottle of wine on the bow of the noble vessel, and she started. It just lost forty-six seconds from the time the bottle was broken that "Texas" was standing in the stream as firm as a land battery. Five minutes later she was moored to the wharf.

New York Republican State Committee.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Republican state committee reelected Wm. Brookfield chairman, and Charles W. Hackett, Utica, chairman of the executive committee in place of General James W. Husted.

The Trial for Treason in Honolulu.

HONOLULU, June 28.—The preliminary examination of the parties arrested for treason on the 10th resulted in the release of V. V. Ashford, Jas. Markham, G. Maxwell, J. W. Douglas, Manoel Dias and Manoel Mendonca. The judge based his ruling in the fact that according to his memory the parties were not present at the meeting which gave rise to the charge of plotting. The judge held Robert Wilcox and five others for trial. They are now in jail. Ashford immediately left Honolulu for San Francisco. It is doubtful if Wilcox and his associates will be brought to trial.

Annual Convention of Republican Leagues.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 28.—The annual convention of the Republican State League opens this morning with a large attendance. Speeches of welcome by the mayor and response were made.

A letter from President Harrison was read regretting his inability to attend and urging the league to renewed exertions. President McAlpine delivered the annual address, predicting the brightest prospect of Republican success. Recess.
