

JURY COMPLETE.

Twelve Good Men and True to Try Ab Majors for Murder.

[Special to the "News"]

Logan, Utah, Sept. 21.—The twelfth and last juror was attained in the Majors case this morning, namely Thomas A. Kerr, of Wellsville. The jury stands as follows: John F. Wright, W. A. Williams, H. C. Kent, Joseph Waite, James Allen, John Biggs, George R. O'Ray, H. T. Benson, Wm. Thornley, Joseph Benson, Jeremiah Baker and T. A. Kerr.

At 11 o'clock Attorney Allison began the opening statement for the prosecution. He graphically detailed the various incidents connected with the famous case. He stated that it was expected to prove that Abram Majors, the defendant, and his brother, Archibald, held up and robbed Fred Hanson, near Brigham City on the night of April 29, 1899, that they gagged and bound him and threatened to kill him and stole his shoes, watch and other articles; that the officers followed them and they acted defiantly; that in the melee which followed Archibald was killed and that almost at the same instant the defendant shot and killed Officer William Brown of Ogden, and was shortly afterwards captured. The statement was closed at 12:30 p. m., when the court adjourned until Monday at 11 a. m.

GEORGE WHITE DEAD.

An Old Resident of Utah Goes to the Great Beyond.

Another old resident of Utah has paid nature's last debt. This time it is George White of the Twentieth ward, who has been a resident of Utah for thirty-three years. Death came at the family residence, 525 Second street, at 2:30 p. m., Sept. 20. Mr. White was born at Walsall, Staffordshire, England, March 26, 1821, and emigrated to Utah in 1848, arriving in Salt Lake on September 2 of that year. Of the family a son, four daughters, sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren remain. Funeral services will be in the ward meeting house on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Addresses were delivered by Superintendent Christensen, Professor Eaton and B. S. Young of the Board of Education.

BLAZE RENEWED.

On account of the high wind that has prevailed during the day some embers in the debris of the Oregon Short Line building's ruins were fanned into flame this morning. A detail from the fire department threw a stream on the fire for a short time and put it out. There was danger that the carnival enclosure from sparks emitted by the burning rubbish.

FIRE IN PARLEY'S.

Sparks From Engines Start a Blaze in the Brush.

Sparks from engines on the Rio Grande Western's Park City branch this morning are said to have set fire to the underbrush in Parley's canyon. The fire was burning this afternoon and seemed to be of considerable extent, although at last accounts the damage had not extended to private property, however, the burning of underbrush is a loss to the vicinity's value as a watershed, inasmuch as the vegetation is known to hold the snow for a longer period in spring time than does ground that is nude of this covering.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of David Spears was held this afternoon from 136 west South Temple street.

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Stephenson was held this afternoon from Evans's funeral parlors.

LOOKING FOR HIS WIFE.

Murray Man Will Give $10 Reward For News of Her.

There is a man down at Murray whose spouse has mysteriously disappeared, and with another man. The husband does not like the idea of being left to care for four little children, and he called at the police station and offered a reward of $10 for information which will lead to the discovery of his missing wife. He gave his name as J. H. Holliman, and claimed that two or three nights ago he went home when not expected and found his wife in company with another man. Their actions did not lead him to believe that all was as it should be, and before he could lay hands upon the man he made his escape. He could not learn the fellow's name, but there was a stormy scene at home that evening. Yesterday Mrs. Holliman left her husband's house, taking $50 of his money with her. The last seen of her was on a car bound for Salt Lake. The husband made an investigation and learned that she had gone with the mysterious stranger. Then he came to town and offered a reward of $10 for the discovery of Mrs. Holliman.

SPRINKLING NEEDED.

Dust Filled the Streets and Begrimed the People.

Probably at no time in the past fifteen years did the dust fill the streets and begrime things so generally as today. At times conditions were so bad as to be well nigh intolerable. No one seemed to know just who was responsible, but everybody agreed on one thing, and that was that the prevailing dust was a shame to Salt Lake City, and that it should be abated as a public nuisance.

Several doctors were seen and declared that unless sprinkling was promptly resumed there would be a very marked increase in sickness within the next few weeks.

GIBSON ASSAULTED.

Lawrence Beck Hit the Theater Doorkeeper Between the Eyes.

Lawrence Beck, the bicycle rider, made an assault upon Doorkeeper Gibson of the Salt Lake Theater last night, and the probabilities are that he will be arrested and prosecuted for the offense. Mr. Gibson declares that Beck was recently discharged from the theater, where he had been working as an usher, and that last night he snaked into the place. When Gibson tried to eject him Beck struck him a vicious blow between the eyes. Officer Eddington was called in but he was unable to locate the young man. Gibson said he would swear out a warrant against Beck, charging him with assault and battery.

GLENDENNING TRIAL.

Attorney Sam King Made Opening Statement for Defense Today.

(Special to the "News.")

Parowan, Utah, Sept. 21.—At the Glendinning trial this morning Attorney Sam King made the opening statement for the defense. He reviewed Glendinning's life, showing from his childhood he had been respected. He came to Utah in 1895, has held offices of responsibility, at Mercer, on the police force and fire department, of which he was secretary and treasurer. He was sent for at St. Pauline as a skilled machinist, went to saloon, met Hedges, who proposed shooting at cans.

Mr. Flinspach, butcher of St. Pauline, testified to lending Hedges ten dollars, who said he could get back easier than any money he ever earned, by shooting. Also heard him say, "I will fight. I will fight for my money, after which he returned to the saloon, calling Glendinning to come out and fight."

LATE LOCALS.

The Beardsley's Tavern company has issued a neat little folder entitled "The Place Finder," devoted to showing off the points of interest in Salt Lake generally, and Beardsley's Tavern in particular.

At the conclusion of this evening's organ recital, the Tabernacle, Professor McClellan will give a special recital in honor of the members of the Florodora company. The affair was arranged by Stage Manager George E. Lusk. Mr. Goddard will sing a song, and it is probable that one of the members of the Florodora company will also render a number.

Some evenings ago the "News" made mention of the fact that there had been several attempts made to pass off bad $2 gold pieces on the merchants of this city. In examining their cash last evening and today a number of merchants have discovered they had one dollar and had fifty cent coins of very clever workmanship. It is supposed that some fakirs are here with a lot of bad money which they expect to work off during the carnival. Merchants and others should be on the lookout for spurious coins of all denominations.
