TROLLY SMASH-UP.

Collision of Cars While Going at a High Rate of Speed.

A DOZEN PERSONS INJURED.

Charles Murphy, the Famous Bicycle Rider, Said to be Crippled for Life.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—There was a lively smashup last evening in Brooklyn and nearly a dozen people were more or less seriously injured. It occurred in Fulton street and Franklin avenue, where the trolley cars cross each other at right angles. Car 159, of the Fulton Street line, going west and approached the crossing at a high rate of speed. At the same instant car 18, of the Franklin Avenue line, with a trailer attached, came in view going toward the park. Its speed was even greater than that of the Fulton street car and Motorman Ed. Purcell, of the latter, quickly made up his mind that he could not cross in time to avoid a collision. He used every possible effort, he says, to stop the car. The motorman of the Franklin avenue car, also apprehensive of a collision, turned his lever as rapidly as he could, but both cars were carried along by their momentum and came together on the crossing with a loud crash which came near hurling them off the tracks. The passengers were thrown down in a manner which they will not soon forget. This is the list of victims so far as could be learned:

Franklin Alexander, aged 30, face arm fractured and severe contusion on the body.

Charles Murphy, 23, severe contusions and internal injuries.

Wm. Pattisle, contusions and injured hip.

Edward Purcell, severe cuts and bruises on head and body.

John Sailer, no actor, severe bruises on face and body.

Mr. Elizabeth Saunders, of Jersey City, severe contusions.

Miss Saunders, 15, daughter of Mrs. Bliss with Saunders, cuts on forehead and arm bruised.

Charles Murphy, one of the victims, is the famous bicycle rider. He is claimed to be the winner of the King county wheel race. He was on his way to his home in Flatbush, in the Franklin avenue trailer, when the accident occurred, having been spending the afternoon in the cab house in Bedford avenue. It was said there last night that Mr. Murphy's injuries were very serious and that he might be crippled for life.

Trouble in Revolution.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 2.—Senator J. N. Dolph has arrived from Washington to remain until after the election of a United States senator by the legislature which meets January 14. Senator Dolph is confident of re-election.

Water for Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 2.— Water from the Bull Run river has been turned into the mains of this city. The water is brought a distance of nearly forty miles from the Bull Run river, a mountain stream rising in the Cascade mountains near Mount Hood. The pipe line and reservoir have cost the city over $1,000,000.

TO CREATES SURPRISE.

Riverside Water Company Placed in the Hands of a Receiver.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Jan. 2.—There was greatly surprise and some indignation in Riverside when it became known that the Riverside Water company, a corporation with whose interests the welfare of a very large portion of this valley is closely identified, had been tonight placed in the hands of a receiver. The order was made by the superior judge at his residence, at the request of the attorneys for the creditors and for a small amount, the president of the company, and his attorney being willing parties to the proceeding.

It has been known for some time past that the company was pushed for ready money to meet its obligations, but as several of the principal stockholders are men reputed to possess very large fortunes, it was not believed that a receiver would be had in a receivership.

The company's liabilities aggregate nearly $600,000, most of which is represented by issues of three years. The largest claim outside the bonds is $75,000 in the company's paper. This matures April 1st and is held by J. H. Reynolds of New York. The company's assets consist of $45,000 in the Riverside Banking company and not fully due for three years; water mortgages worth $150,000; the company's domestic water system, $300,000; water rights, $200,000; real estate, offices, etc., $50,000; and water rights, $300,000; total, $1,345,000.

In an interview President Frost stated that no man's water rights would be injured by the present troubles. The company, he added, was amply able, with its present resources, to pay all running expenses and he believed that as soon as the new issue of bonds could be placed, the receiver would be discharged.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Shaves Fall Through the Ice, but Are Rescued.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 2.—For a few minutes last night it seemed as if three night watchmen of big properties on the river front. A party of about a crowd of citizens when two of them went through the ice.

Mike Mate Farrington, ten years old, daughter of Patrick Farrington, and Charles Cronson, nineteen years old, were skating arm in arm, when they fell into an air hole. Both went beneath the surface, but came up within the space their broken stroke in the ice where they went down. Cronson was quickly pulled out but Miss Farrington could not be reached and James Payton threw off his overcoat and without waiting to remove his clothes, plunged into the hole after her as she went down. He caught hold and brought her up. Then Richard Harkinbaug Jr., another skater, dragged her from the water, also with helping Payton out.

The river was crowded at the time, and when the cry was set up that a person was drowning, the majority made a rush for the bank. It was thought that the ice was cracking in all directions and the stampede threatened to produce what the river board was happening. The force of the crowd was alleged and skating was resumed. Neither Miss Farrington nor Cronson nor Payton appear to have been seriously affected by their cold bath.

RESOLUTION PREPARED.

A. P. A. Secretary Wants an Expression of Power Removed.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 2.—Prof. T. Taylor, member of the legislature and state secretary of the A. P. A., has prepared the following resolution which he will introduce at the coming session. He says he believes it will be passed and that other legislatures will adopt similar resolutions:

"Whereas, there being a great agitation throughout the United States on account of the establishing of an alleged gate or delegate of an ecclesiastical power within the boundaries of the United States of America, and,

"Whereas, it is reported that Mgr. Satolli, the said alleged or delegate of the pope of Rome is in manner in our deliberations therefore be it Resolved, by the Washington legislature that the senator be instructed, and the representatives in Congress be requested to have said representative of said ecclesiastical power removed beyond the shores of this the United States of America."

ATTACKED IN PRISON.

Convicts Make Desperate Attempt to Escape.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Jan. 2.—Within twenty hours two desperate attempts have been made in this county by parties in jail to take advantage of their situation. The prisoners were thrown down in a manner which they will not soon forget. This is the list of victims so far as could be learned:

Franklin Alexander, aged 30, face arm fractured and severe contusion on the body.

Charles Murphy, 23, severe contusions and internal injuries.

Wm. Pattisle, contusions and injured hip.

AMERICAN CATTLE.

The Belgian Government Prohibits Their Importation.

ARE SAID TO BE DISEASED.

Merely Taking Retaliatory Measures for the Abolition of the Reciprocity Treaty.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Nelson Morris has received a cablegram from the agent at Antwerp that the Belgian government has prohibited the importation of live cattle from the United States, on the ground that pleuro pneumonia is prevalent in this country. This closes all the ports of continental Europe against American cattle and beef products and leaves the exporters only the British market, which in the present condition is not a profitable one. According to Mr. Morris, Belgium is merely following in the lead of Austria, Germany, France and other European nations in taking retaliatory measures against the United States for the abolition of the reciprocity treaty under which the sugar industry prospered.

Amendments Rejected.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 2.—It is reported that the government, through Sir Philip Currie, has commenced military operations in Nassau district, where so many outrages have been reported, has been ascertained by an Armenian, who advised a concerted attack.

Latest letters from Bitlis show that the Armenians in that district were exasperated at the conduct of authorities and ready for any violence.

In regard to the disturbances at Erzerum, in the district of Erzerinjan, it is stated the governor recently summoned the Armenian notables and informed them that the Kurds were planning an attack and advised the Armenians to take measures for their defense as he did not have means to protect them. The Armenians consequently filled the city with a supply of arms which was difficult, owing to the condition of the country. No letters from Erzerum, where these disturbances have broken out, will reach Constantinople for a fortnight as the mail is being continually confiscated by the government and dispatches have to be sent in a roundabout way to insure delivery.

Will Defend Their Country.

ASTRAKHAN, Inland Mediterranean, Dec. 1.—On November 22 the Russian first annual festival at Pandrinsk, and premier and Prince Cimeret Rachinovski made a speech in which [illegible] would be offered by the Russians in defense of their queen and country. Trade at Madagascar is almost suspended. Carriers refuse to go to the coast on account of the war of the French.

NEW YORK SENATE.

Bills Introduced by Senator Saxton Giving the Mayor the Power of Sectional.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 2.—In the senate today Saxton introduced a bill giving the power of removal to the mayor of New York, and a bill to allow the mayor to give notice of hearings on all legislative bills relating to the city.

Governor Morton nominated Alva H. Doty, of New York, for health officer to fill the vacancy in the board of health. The nominations contained many important recommendations regarding reforms in the state and municipal governments. He recommends that the power of removal be at once given the mayor of New York and a commission appointed to prepare a charter for greater New York.

JUSTICES' COURTS.

Three in Chicago Charged with Using Corrupt.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The Evening Post today, in exposé of the Chicago justice courts methods, publishes figures showing that out of $20,000 imposed in fines in October and November only $5,000 were collected, the other $12,000 having been suspended through various influences. The Post publishes affidavits that many of the "bail sharks" offer to pay the prisoners' fines and offer taking mortgages on personal property and charging heavy rates of interest and commissions, have fines stayed, thus receiving large sums of money without the outlay of a single dollar. It is intimated that many prominent city officials will be implicated if an investigation follows.

Fully Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Additional advices have been received by the treasury department regarding decree signed yesterday at Madrid by queen regent of Spain appointing a commission to revise Cuban and Porto Rican tariffs. The information fully confirms all that was said in announcements exclusively made by the Associated press that Spain intended to grant to Cuba certain autonomous powers, especially as regards customs relations with the United States, in hope of averting a tariff war.

The Senate in a Deadlock.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 2.—The tenth general assembly convened in the new Capitol at noon today. The house promptly organized with A. A. Hampton, Republican, as speaker. There was a crisis in the organization of the senate as Lesley and Adams, Democrats, would not affiliate with either Republicans or Populists unless given only the offices, and they hold a balance of power. The Senate adjourned until tomorrow in a deadlock.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

A Question Whether Spain's Duty Is Levied on All American Goods.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2.—Officials of the state department have about concluded to make investigation into the discriminating duties recently imposed by Spain upon American goods and it is not improbable the President will soon will issue a proclamation imposing discriminating duties upon Spanish goods imported to Spanish bottoms. The question has arisen, however, whether duty levied by Spain included all American goods or only such as imported in American ships. It is presumed the new duty embraces all American goods but if it be found this is not the case, the president of our officials may take a different course.

ANOTHER CHICAGO FIRE.

Panic Among Girl Employes in a Bobbing Factory.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—A fire in the Princess knitting works at Harrison and State. Part of the afternoon a panic among 100 girl employes. The fire ran up two stories, their only quickly surrounded upper floor of the building. Escape by way of the stairs was cut off and the frightened employes burst open windows and clung to the ledges, frantically screaming for help. Many jumped from the second floor and slightly in safety, and the firemen arrived promptly rescued nineteen girls who were up by means of ladders and body lassoed by jumping. The fire was extinguished with a loss not exceeding $10,000.

A BOGUS GUARD.

The President Requested to Ask Carlisle to Resign.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—A special to the Daily News from Washington says: Leading New York bankers have sent a formal request on the President that he be removed of Secretary Carlisle. The request was made by J. Pierpont Morgan. Who came on from New York for that purpose. Morgan was chief factor in the late syndicate which took the last issue of bonds. There have been many informal requests for the secretary Carlisle's retirement coming from Wall street in the last year, but this is the first time the movement has taken an organized form. New York financiers charge that the secretary broke faith with them in the recent bond deal by springing his preliminary plan just after he disposed of the bonds and depressing the price on the market, resulting in the dissolution of the syndicate. The President informed Morgan's delegate today that the first time of Morgan's modest request and indicated that he did not intention of asking Secretary Carlisle to quit.

Battle With Train Robbers.

MACON, Miss., Jan. 2.—Two men suspected of being the robbers who held up a passenger train at York, Ala., two years ago, boarded Mobile & Ohio train No. 5, north bound, at Scobe, Miss., this morning. The operator telegraphed to Slaton for officers to meet the train. An attempt was made to arrest the men who resisted and a desperate battle follows, the robbers retiring under a strong fire from the guns of the officers. Only escaped, but a posse is after them. The [illegible] Rifleb. The battle occurred at 7 a.m.

Officers Killed.

GUTHRIE, O.T.—A dispatch to U. S. Marshal Nix states that Deputy Marshal Williams and posse shelled with outlaws in Washita county, and killed Bob Moore and George Hart, old offenders.

A FATAL FALL.

Sad, Sudden and Unexpected Death of Albert Tuttle, of Manti.

The tidings have reached this city that Albert Tuttle, a well known and highly respected Manti citizen, met with a sudden, violent and unexpected death at that place yesterday, January 1, caused by a severe fall.

It seems that he was walking away from the Manti Savings bank, of which he was the cashier, during the afternoon when his foot slipped and he fell heavily to the ground, producing a fracture of the bone at the base of the brain. Physicians were immediately called, but their efforts at resuscitation were ineffectual, as he died almost instantly. He was the son of Hon. Luther Tuttle, ex-member of the Utah Legislature, and a family reunion was being held at the latter's home when the fatality occurred.

Dinner For Nearly a Hundred.

The New Year's dinner given the news boys by Macauley & Co., San Francisco M. M. Tea Co., was one of the pleasant events of the day. The boys dined to 67 strong and were seated at the tables. Mr. Lister, of the Pacific Mission, and Rev. S. O. Adams, of East Side, Baptist church, assisted Mr. A. T. Moore. The long meter doxology was heartily sung and Rev. Adams asked the blessing. Then followed a lively scene. Apples and bananas first disappeared into hungry mouths, sleeves, pockets and other openings. Soup, potatoes, roast beef, bread and butter, celery, one hundred pounds of plum pudding, tea with plenty of milk and sugar in turn went down.

A Veteran Woman.

The many friends of Mrs. Lucy Ferguson, wife of the late Gen. James Ferguson, will regret to hear that she is lying very ill at the residence of her son, Barlow Ferguson, Esq., this city. The venerable lady is 93 years old, and she is one of the noble few surviving the terrible calamity of the party who went around Cape Horn to California in the early fifties.

PROSPEROUS NEPHI.

School Building Expenditure Last Year. —The Salt Works and the Plaster of Paris Mill.

L. A. Bailey, Esq., a leading citizen of Nephi, and News correspondent of that place, is in Salt Lake consulting an eye specialist on a trouble which has been affecting him for about six weeks past. Mr. Bailey says that Nephi is enjoying a genuine revival of prosperity, and there is every promise of a bright future. Last year the city expended $16,000 on school buildings, this being an excellent showing. The salt works in the canyon have been see running at full blast, turning out an article that is unexcelled by other producers. The plaster of Paris works, located a mile from town, at the mouth of the canyon, is also making a good run. The product of this mill took the first prize at the Mid-winter Fair. Altogether, business at Nephi is picking up in quite style.

WENT BACK ON THEIR RECORD.

Councilmen Accept Pay for Work They Promised to Do for Nothing.

"They did it because it was law." That is the excuse made for the action of certain Salt Lake Councilmen when reference to accepting pay for work they unanimously voted to do for nothing.

In October last the members of the City Council held a special meeting to consider the gravity sewer question. It was in response to a resolution offered by Councilman Clawson who proposed that the meeting be held at an expense to the taxpayers, or in other words that the members should not accept pay for their services as such on the meeting. The resolution was accepted without a dissenting vote.

But it appears that the councilmen did not mean what they agreed to by a long ways as it now transpires that with one single exception they have gone to the treasurer's office and accepted the $5 allowance for attendance of that meeting. It is explained, however, that they did it because it was "law" and that the work could not have been "legally done" for nothing.

CAPTURED THE CAMP.

A Quintette of Toughs Create Terror in the Drum Rising District.

Mr. E. A. Pulford, who came home from Deseret last night, told a story to a News man today which shows that the days of adventure and terror in western mining camps are not yet altogether a thing of the past.

He says that last night he saw the sheriff of Juab county and his deputies coming in from the Drum mining camp. They had in custody five as hard looking men as he ever saw and they bore external evidence of terrible punishment. The fact was a desperate battle had been fought and they had come out second best. It appears that they went to the camp to question a couple of weeklings. They were armed with Winchester rifles and revolvers and at once proceeded to create terror by their bearing which was of the outlaw character, in a [illegible] would be lodging hard for peace or make his will and prepare to be the subject of a coroner's inquest.

The gang took possession of the only saloon in the camp and turned the proprietor into the street. The next step was to firmly entrench themselves in the saloon which they held for five days. Finally they became so hilarious that they set fire to the whisky and burned the place down. In the meantime a courier had been dispatched to Nephi and the sheriff called upon to dislodge the outlaws. The official responded with a posse of men and he brought the gang back after a desperate encounter, damage to say no one was killed. The desperadoes were headed by a man who calls himself Lone Madison. They are now in jail and as a consequence the citizens of the Drum Mining camp are feeling greatly relieved at their absence.

Rich Discovery Near Kanosh.

Special to the News.

KANOSH, Millard county, Dec. 31, 1894.—Gold and copper discovery, pay are from the grass roots; the ledge is four feet in width and well defined, work will commence [illegible] of about January 1st. It was discovered about December 1, 1894, by Jas. A. George. It is fine quartz rock, in granite and lime formation, located about nine miles southwest of Kanosh. It assays in gold $48, silver 32 ounces, copper 12½ per cent. It is owned by Wm. George & Sons.

In From Grantsville.

Ex-Probate Judge Hyslop of Grantsville, Tooele county, was in the city today. He states that matters are very quiet in that section just now. Stock are wintering very well in the country part of the county and there is just about enough snow on the ground to keep sleigh bells jingling. Judge Hyslop went up to Kaysville this afternoon to visit his son and friend J. S. Snell.

The Utah Commission.

Today, January 2, was the date in which the Utah Commission adjourned to resume the business of registration for delegates to the Constitutional Convention. As the courts had postponed hearing the mandamus case till tomorrow, the Commission engaged in the proceedings today, but will await developments in the legal quarrel.

The New Guard.

U. S. Marshal Bilgham has appointed John T. Fox to the position of a guard at the penitentiary, a vacancy having been occasioned by the resignation of E. M. Janney. Mr. Fox is an old police officer, having served under ex-Chief Paul, and has been some doing special duty on the force.

Today's Probate Court.

In the Probate court today Judge Blair made the following orders:

Estate of Martin Nelson, deceased: Theophilus M. Davis appointed administrator on filing a bond of $600.

Estate of Charles Brown, deceased: Thomas Carter appointed administrator on filing a bond of $3,000.

AROUND THE COURTS.

Judges Merritt and Bartch Engaged With Civil Business.

NON-SUIT, IN THE ALDER CASE.

Meeting of the New County Selectmen Again Today—Reports of Outgoing Officers, Etc.

This has been a sleepy day in the Third district court. Judge Bartch disposed of the share of the work in one time half an hour, and then adjourned to chambers, where he finds enough more than enough to take up all his spare time between now and the meeting of the Territorial supreme court in the preparation of opinions. Chief Justice Merritt resumed operations on the Alder matter, the hearing of which began on Monday, and spent another day upon it.

In response to this case (reported in Monday's News) suit is brought to set aside as immaterial a profession of [illegible] in the name of Mrs. Lydia D. Alder amounting to $4,000, made in the assignment of George A. Alder, October 19, 1892. The W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., of Boston, is the plaintiff in the suit, and other creditors are intervening like to attaching the patrimony. The case adjourn appeared today as at the former hearing.

When the plaintiff's side had closed, about 1:30 this morning, a motion was made by the defendant attorneys to non-suit. The motion for the plaintiff rested until 3:30, when the court allowed the motion, and granted the other side a stay of thirty days.

Before Judge Bartch.

Bells F. Gray vs C. E. Wantland et al. Defendants judgment.

H. D. Winters vs W. E. Vigilini et al. The plaintiff entered demurrer and has leave to file an amended complaint, making H. Bancroft a party defendant.

Howard Osborn vs Cora Osborn. This was a suit for divorce on the ground of desertion, the petitioner being represented by Judge Bowman. The defendant did not appear, neither was he represented. The parties intermarried at Argyle, Colorado, on November 23, 1887, and early in the following month of December he left her without assigning any cause, and has refused to return to her. Judge Bartch after hearing the testimony granted the decree.

Isabella H. Stevens vs W. H. Lott et al. Default and decree as foreclosure.

Richard Mayfer vs H. Yeates et al. [illegible] Judge Bartch [illegible] Yeates, by his guardian, Elias Bedkavert, party defendant by interlocution.

THREE MANDAMUS SUITS.

According to arrangement, the mandamus suits land against the members of the Utah Commission arising out of the late election will come up for hearing before Judge Bartch tomorrow morning.

The New County Court.

The first session of the "new" county court was held yesterday, beginning at 11 a.m. When at the request of Probate Judge Blair, who presided, County Clerk C. E. Allison called the roll, Selectmen Christopherson, Gedikes and Roberts answered to their names.

The business began with an announcement of the following committees:

Standing Committee on Paupers—A. S. Gedikes.

Jail and Infirmary—Roberts and Christopherson.

Joint City and County Building—Christopherson, Gedikes and Roberts.

The matter of the appointment of deputy statisticians, (previously undertaken by the old court) was brought up, and County Attorney Williamson was asked to define the court's rights.

In this he replied with the following opinion:

To the Honorable the County Court of Salt Lake County: Gentlemen—In response to your inquiry as to the validity of the action of this court in appointing deputy statisticians on the 14th instant, I am of the opinion that such action was within the authority of the court at that time, under the provisions of chapter 65, Laws of Utah, 1892. As to the further question in regard to the authority of the court to rescind or modify such action, I am of the opinion that, inasmuch as the time has not elapsed in which such appointments are to be made, that the court has not lost jurisdiction of the subject, and, therefore, that it may vacate or modify its action in regard to the number of deputies appointed, by removal of any or all of them, or it may increase the number of deputies appointed by making additional appointments. These deputy statisticians are not officers of the county, no bond or oath of office being required of them and no definite term being provided, and a per diem compensation being allowed to them for actual services. As the courts had postponed hearing the mandamus case till tomorrow, the Commission engaged in the proceedings today, but will await developments in the legal quarrel.

Respectfully submitted,

C. S. WILLIAMSON,
County Attorney.

Selectman Gedikes thereupon introduced a resolution that the action of the court of December 14, 1894, in the matter of the appointment of deputy statisticians, be and the same is hereby rescinded, and that the appointees in question on that day be and they are hereby discharged, and that the clerk be directed to notify the said deputy statisticians of the same.

The resolution carried, Judge Blair voting in the negative.

Upon the motion of Selectman Gedikes the following deputy statisticians were appointed: George B. Squires, Samuel W. O. Carter, L. F. Palmer, Charles A. Short, H. H. Parsons, John S. Hyde, M. J. Thomas, J. C. Hamilton, L. E. Rumberger, A. L. Williams and M. C. Alexander. The force had named
