JUDGE ZANE's charge to the grand jury is given with interest.

The United States Commissioners have had no cases before them today.

MR. W. H. EGBERT, superintendent of the Brooklyn division of the Union Pacific, is in the city from Ogden.

CITY mails will come fast and furious upon the lodge in the evening form of the Third District Court.

IT is decidable that all the Third District court dockets should be cleared in one week's other like week.

JUDGE HIGBEE and Blackburn have arrived in the city, ready to take their part in the business of the Supreme court tomorrow.

THERE are measures of the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Union Pacific, Mutual Gas Company and Price Burgess.

WE sincerely confide with our friends Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of the Seventh ward, in their bereavement this morning. Pneumonia will be found in another column.

YESTERDAY afternoon one of the Rapid Transit company's cars was twice removed from its place near the theatre, jumped the track after going a block or so, and was torn down one of the poles.

THE Territorial Supreme court will move at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and after the usual formal business has been gone through, the judges will announce their decisions upon cases argued during the last session.

THE criminal calendar of the Third District court up to the present time contains one fewer than ever cases will be found on one of a similar nature, involving two or three counties of Arizona. It is one of the honors and blessings that time has not had to claim for a long time past.

THE dispute arising over the gambling check, in which Dick Jennings and Dr. Lorry Harris are involved, was decided and decided respectively, in Commissioner Rossiter's court a few days since, in favor of the latter. Jennings's attorneys have filed papers on an appeal from the commissioner's decision.

THE Fortes Brothers were over demurring to a suit for hearing in the United States and lifted on the 19th of the present month, but a letter has been received from the commissioner general of the land office at Washington directing that the matter stand over pending the continuance from the secretary of the interior.

A SMOKING stove exploded in the Colorado restaurant, on Commercial street, last night, and but for Joseph Smith there would soon have been a big blaze. Two of the waiters had the hand hose turned when in the act of throwing into the stove a box which had caught fire. As steam was seen in the fire department, but hydrometer their services were not needed.

IF any poor officials were ever deserving of sympathy in a time of extreme distress, Chief McMillan and his deputy, Mr. Lewis, of the Third District court, should come in for a liberal share. Their labors during the last week or two, in preparing for the court's September session have been of the most serious character. Jurymen, witnesses and others who have cases on hand are to the office all day long, full of questions and their cases to legion.

Please Attend.

The Primary conference will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. in the Assembly Hall. All interested are invited to be present.

LEONARD HARDY'S ANSWER

To the Complaint in Regard to the County Collectorship Matter.

The following answer was filed in the Third District court this morning in the case of the People of the Territory of Utah ex rel. Walter Murphy, county attorney, plaintiff, vs. Leonard G. Hardy, defendant:

Now comes the defendant and answers the complaint, his further answer the demurrer and to substitution herein, and:

Denies that at said date, to wit, on the 1st day of August, 1891, or at any other time, the said A. L. Williams was duly or otherwise qualified to take the office of county collector in and for the said county of Salt Lake.

Declares that at said date, or at any other time, he was already duly or otherwise, to the office of county collector for said county in the complaint mentioned, and assuming June, 1891, and ending June, 1893. Denies that there was any vacancy in said office at said date, or at any other time, to be filled by appointment,
