ALICE MITCHELL.

Not Yet Probably and Fit for Public Gaze.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 5.—The proceedings in the criminal court looks to be a great possibilities of a plea of "insanity" in the case of Alice Mitchell, the slayer of Freda Ward. The defense will probably not be transferred for some days. Dr. Sim—the well known alienist—is now in Memphis. While it is stated that no surety want to physicians for a sight directly, it is probable that he will be asked to examine her in her mental condition. The lunacy law will be considered in open court, for if all legists are to be taken of the subject to be produced have any condition to feel, the newspapers will surely publish it in full.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt spoke today at Stockport. In the course of his address he left occasion to decision in relation to some what he characterized as "Lord Salisbury's Stillfest Statesman Cabinet Trick" in his speech at Leeds on Thursday. He pronounced the Stillfest Statesman an "exhumed and exculated" of a whole, drunken congressman, adding that "such an appeal to the whole passion of nation is such as was only exhumed, but exculated, on the part of a statesman in Lord Salisbury's position."

Sir William Harcourt said that the Premier apologized in such remarks with regard to Canada or Australia, but "Government of the Knights Queen not exists twenty-four hours in allegiance to the Queen, unless British colonies were supported by union and support."

Sunday Remained and School Closed.

PARIS, Feb. 5.—Owing to the serious illness of a prominent upon the authorities not ordering the students of the Central School of Arts and Manufactures to attend the funeral of the principal French educational establishments, to all the annual procession, the head master of the school, with the approval of Minister of Commerce Hotel, has dismissed the students and closed the school.
