EVENTS IN THE WEST.

A Record of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

WILL MOVE A NEW TRIAL FOR MRS. BOTKIN

Coinage of San Francisco Mint for December—The Passport Ready—Advice From the Orient.

Boise is now filling up with shrewd politicians who will scrutinize the last city in Monroe.

The coinage of the San Francisco mint for December is the largest for any month for a single month, amounting to $3,042,000.

A Montana man in the person of John Hutchinson was murdered in his cabin, seven miles south of Maxwell, Nebraska, night.

The death of Rev. Father Thomas Hendrick, pastor of St. Louis catholic church, Omaha, occurred Wednesday. Heart failure was the result of injuries received in a railroad wreck.

Joseph Elliott, an engineer of Montgomery & Co., of San Francisco, who disappeared from his home in Oakland, Ireland, and was thought to have met with foul play, returned to his home in Oakland in the course his day morning.

The torpedo boat destroyer Farragut will be launched today or Monday. The trial trip will be made on Tuesday. The vessel is a fine one, and the trial trip will be a severe test of her speed. She comes from the Union iron works and is the completed vessel with the navy.

A telegram was received at Phoenix, Arizona, from Scott Harris of Lewis, Wyoming, stating the sum wanted to bail Ben Hodson, wanted there for murder, should happen was arrested, but there was no bond. Hodson is now in the county jail and will be tried for the murder of Lewis. A telegram came from Wyoming Friday notifying sheriff of the arrest of him. A large telegram said he was the man wanted. Particulars of the crime are not known.

George Green made his debut in the middleweight class in a twenty-round bout with Tommy Ryan before the Coronal Athletic club Friday night, at Hunters' pavilion. Ryan was given a trial a while the better of the bout up to the seventeenth round, when a foulon said he stuck up to a series of blows in the body which Green received the larger share for the bout. The last three rounds were for the most part in favor of Green. Each was particularly in boxing the one and both of them showed did not hesitate to produce it a fake.

Considerable excitement was caused in Kansas City Wednesday morning when Tex. Fenner by the arrival of authentic information of one of the wildest and most made in northern Mexico by C. Buckingham, who arrived today from Chihuahua, Mexico, 80 miles from Corralitos, Chihuahua, reports the discovery of an immense deposit of free gold and the twenty-fifty miles with a fine vein. The gold is in the form of lumps, in quantity of gold in the sand and the vein has been traced for several miles. Buckingham accompanied by Mr. Brandes and the surrounding district are setting on the score in large numbers.

Address from the Orient state that while the cholera is still prevalent at Amoy, it is not the same as it was at Amoy, it is not the same as it was at Amoy, it is not the same as it was