DESERET EVENING NEWS.
Thursday, ... April 1, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Last night a poor house witnessed the very fine performance of Miss Western in Leah the Forsaken. In the last act of the piece this lady seemed to surpass her previous efforts, or the efforts of all who have hitherto essayed this role on the boards of the Salt Lake Theatre. Mr. Herne, Miss Lockhart and Mr. Hardie played their parts with much ease and grace; the rest of the characters were well sustained.

The play of Dombey and Son concluded the entertainment. The piece is not much. Its incidents and dialogue are flat and insipid. The character of Captain Cuttle, well sustained by Mr. Herne, is an intolerable bore; while those of Major Bagshot Bunsly, sustained with equal ability by Mr. Margetts, are no better. Mr. Dombey, as personated by Mr. Lindsay, is a parse proud, overbearing, haughty, contemptible parvenu. Miss Lockhart as Edith Granger and Mrs. M. Clawson as Susan Clipper, made the most of their respective parts. Mr. Graham was at home as the bashful lover Toots. But the dramatization of this piece contains few points of excellence, and it is seldom we have seen a Salt Lake audience more thoroughly appreciative than during its performances scarcely a single mark of approbation being elicited.

To-night Mr. Herne will take a benefit, the pieces selected, both excellent, being Ellen Wood and the Wept of the Wish-ton-Wish, in both of which parts he has star characters and will make lots of fun. He will be supported by Miss Western, Miss Lockhart and the full strength of the company. Give him a benefit worthy the name.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.—We learn by Deseret Telegraph Line, that about noon to-day, a transient person entered the house of Mr. William Butler, at Marriot settlement, Ogden, and tried to force Butler's wife. In so doing he greatly abused her and killed one of her children and severely wounded another. He afterwards tried to escape. The rumor spread, and one of the citizens started after him and met Butler on the road, who immediately joined in the pursuit. When within about a mile from the Telegraph office at Ogden, Butler overtook him, and shot him dead on the spot. He still lies where he was shot.

SEXTON'S REPORT.—Salt Lake City Sexton's report for March, 1869. Males 17, females 14. Of these, adults 11, children 20. Reported causes of death: Fevers 10, Inflammations 4, consumption 3, marasmus 3, child bed 3, convulsions 2, still born 1, peritonitis 1, dropsy 1, spinal affection 1, congestion of the lungs 1, suicide 1, total interments 31.

LANDSLIDE.—From Bro. Heber P. Kimball, whose mule train arrived from the terminus this morning, we learn that a land slide occurred on Tuesday, at some point on the line, between Echo and Deseret, which would impede travel for a day or two.

THE LECTURE LAST NIGHT.—Mrs. St. Clair's lecture was much more numerously attended last night than on her first appearance in this city. We understand that she will deliver another lecture to-morrow evening.

CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.—All Fool's Day has ushered in a very pleasant change in the weather in these parts. The rain, snow, sleet and hail which have made everything out doors so uncomfortable for the past few days, are giving place to-day to King Sol in full splendor. A few such days as this and the superabundance of mud, which at present renders all pedestrianism so uncomfortable, will have banished, and the trees will have donned their spring verdure.

MRS. ST. CLAIR'S LECTURES.—Every person who attends Mrs. St. Clair's lectures is guaranteed some article of goods, worth, at usual retail prices, the cost of tickets. She lectures to-morrow evening.

POLICE.—Reuben Dodd paid $10 this morning into the City Treasury for getting drunk and disturbing the peace.

CONNECTION WITH THE U.P.R.R.—Wells, Fargo & Co's. coaches commenced to run north from this city this morning to connect with the U. P. R. R. about three miles this side of Ogden city; the coaches will leave this city every morning at seven o'clock.

INDIAN RAID.—Through the courtesy of President B. Young we are enabled to lay before our readers the following telegram received per Deseret Telegraph Line:

"Scipio, 1st.

On Saturday last a man came in from the range, stating that some stock were driven off, he had found a saddle, blanket and a tired-out horse with some other things. The next day six men went out and found that about one hundred head of cattle and horses were gone. To-day the men are all gathering up stock with the intention of finding how many are missing. They know Indians have taken them, as they have found tracks and every appearance of them. No guard at all with stock as yet."

CALLED.—We had a very pleasant call this morning from Major J. W. Powell, who is in charge of the Colorado River Exploring expedition, which has been engaged on a geological and topographical survey in Colorado and part of Utah. He is acting on behalf of the Natural History Society of the State of Illinois, to which he makes his reports. The expedition is assisted by the Smithsonian Institute, the funds for the purpose being appropriated by the Government. He has twenty-five men under his charge, and this last season explored the Grand and Green River Kanyons. He is now getting boats made in Chicago, with the intention of embarking at Green River City, to go down the Colorado as far as Callville, to connect with the survey of Lieut. Ives, made some few years since.

The Major expresses himself as being very highly pleased with everything he sees here, and considers our city and country very interesting to a student of nature. He has come in, principally, to obtain what information he can respecting the Colorado.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington.—The Senate received the House resolution to adjourn on the 6th of April. A motion to table it was lost. A discussion ensued.

Fessenden, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, said it would be impossible to finish pending business by that time, and the Senate should not fix a day for adjourning until the Indian appropriation bill was disposed of.

Sumner desired that Georgia, Mississippi and Texas should be legislated for before adjourning. After considerable further discussion Hamlin moved to amend by fixing April 10th for final adjournment.

At the expiration of the morning hour the resolution went over, and the Indian appropriation bill came up. After some discussion the bill was informally laid aside.

Trumbull reported from the Committee of Conference the Tenure of Office act, and explained the provisions of the substitute agreed on by the committee. The bill, as passed by the Senate, required a direct vote, refusing to confirm a new appointee or an order to reinstate the old officer. The change made by the committee provides that the suspended officer shall be reinstated at the end of the next session of the Senate, unless his successor is confirmed. After brief remarks by Thurman the report of the committee was agreed to 42 to 8. The following voted nay: Bayard, Casserly, Davis, McCreery, Sprague, Stockton, Thurman and Vickers. The Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

A resolution was adopted that the Ways and Means Committee should consider the propriety of renewing and enforcing a direct tax in the late rebel States.

A number of bills were reported and referred, when the House proceeded to consider the bill for the organization of a provisional government in Miss.

Farnsworth offered a substitute, proposing the resubmission to the people of Mississippi the Constitution already framed, with separate votes on some objectionable features. The bill reported from the Committee authorizes the Convention to reassemble and appoint a Provisional Governor, etc. The discussion was interrupted by Butler, who reported a substitute from the Conference Committee on the Tenure of Office Bill.

Bingham explained the report. He said it would be acceptable to the Republican party and to the country generally.

Davis suggested that the whole thing was yielded to the Senate, in leaving the first section of the Senate amendment untouched, which forbids removals without the consent of the Senate.

Butler explained the report. He said everything was stricken out which gives the Senate power to reinstate suspended officers, which he considered effectually repealed the Tenure of Office Act. He did not think it altered the power of the President from what he had under the Constitution.

Banks understood that the effect of the substitute reported by the committee was that if the President removed an officer, calling it a removal, the Senate's refusal to confirm it reinstated the removed officer; but if the President called it suspension the Senate's refusal to confirm did not restore the officer, and the President could make another nomination.

Butler said he had the same power that he now has under the Constitution.

Banks—"Then suspension is a synonym for removal?"

Butler—"Yes."

The debate was continued by Niblack, Wood and others.

Poland opposed the report, as depriving the Senate of its power to check the President in the matter of appointments.

Dawes desired to move a time for the consideration of the matter, and suggested that it go over till to-morrow.

Hoar opposed the report, as putting it in the power of the Senate to compel the President to reinstate removed officers or not to fill the office at all.

Logan preferred repeal, but regarded the report as amounting to the same thing, in a round-about way.

Butler moved the previous question, which was seconded and carried, 98 to 61. The report was agreed to, 107 to 67.

Woodward introduced a bill for testing the Constitutionality of questionable acts of Congress; referred.

Dawes reported the Deficiency bill which was made a special order for two o'clock to-morrow.

Butler reported a bill to provide for a general system for the removal of political disability.

The House resumed the consideration of the Mississippi bill.

Dawes favored its postponment till next session. Without disposing of the bill the Senate joint resolution respecting the pay of enlisted men was passed. Adjourned.

GENERAL.

New York, 31.—The Congress Conference agree to report on the Tenure of Office bill; but the character of the report is still untold.

Johnson introduced and the House passed a bill to transfer Sierra County to the Marysville land district, and Mendocina to San Francisco.

The Conference report on the Tenure of Office bill repeals the first two sections of the original act. The first section of the Senate bill stands; the second section empowers the President, during recess to suspend any officer except Judges till the end of the next session and to appoint a new incumbent, subject to removal at his direction, who shall fulfill the duties and enjoy the emoluments while serving; and that the President, within thirty days after the Senate assembles, shall nominate parties to fill all vacancies whether thus temporarily filled or not. The effect of the Conference report is to retain the provision requiring the Senate's consent to removal, but deprives the Senate of the power to reinstate a suspended officer.

J. W. Billings is nominated for Postmaster at Santa Clara.

The House after three o'clock, agreed to the Conference report, 66 to 67; the Democrats were all against it.

Albany.—The freshet continues. Trains on the Hudson River and New York Central routes are all delayed, only one track of the former is in use, and that is under water in many places. Accounts from various points report great damage to property.

San Francisco, 31.—Judge S. W. Brookway, a prominent lawyer and politician of California, died at San Mateo yesterday.

Legal tenders 77¾.

Washington.—The following nominations were made to-day: Emil Hechter, Consular agent at Bremen; Wm. A. Arnold, Receiver of public moneys at Central City, Colorado; for Postmasters, J. M. Billings, at Santa Clara, Cal.; T. E. McClelland, at Cheyenne.

The President is quite well to-day and received callers, among whom was Senator Cole.

Among the nominations to be made for Justices of the Peace in this district there will be one colored man.

Attorney General Hoar made his first argument in the court to-day.

The President has recognized Ely Squires, as Consul General for Honduras in New York.

The Senate has confirmed Charles Lafollett, as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Oregon.

It appears that Geo. A. Halsey, who reluctantly consented to accept the registership of the Treasury, cannot be appointed owing to an opinion of Attorney General Hoar, who rules that Halsey, being a manufacturer, is precluded from being appointed by the act establishing the Treasury department.

The House Committee on the Pacific Railroad has commenced its investigation of the charges represented by Bingham in relation to issuing bonds to the Central Pacific. Caleb Cushing and Wm. E. Chandler appeared on behalf of the Union Company, and L. E Crittenden for the Central. Huntington, Vice President of the Central, was also present. After the adoption of a resolution calling on the proper departments for copies of the documents used, receiving evidence and listening to the argument of Chandler, reviewing the laws bearing on the subject, discussing the progress of the roads, reviewing the charges, the committee adjourned till to-morrow, when the Secretaries of the Treasury and Interior will be present with the necessary maps and papers.

New York.—After to-morrow a rigid quarantine will be established for all vessels from the southern ports.

General Sickles declines the mission to Mexico.

A Washington special says that Boutwell has concluded to dismiss all the special agents of the Treasury because he does not know which are honest and which are not. It is believed that the investigation, after dismissal, will prove no one really worthy.

Chicago.—The following is the second section of the Tenure of Office Bill, as amended, the first section of the Senate amendment being left untouched. That during any recess of the Senate, the President is hereby empowered at his discretion to suspend any civil officer appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except Judges of the United States courts, until the end of the next session of the Senate, and to designate some able person, subject to be removed at his discretion, by the designation of another, to perform the duties of such suspended officer; and in the meantime such person, so designated, shall take the oaths and give the bonds required by law to be taken and given by the suspended officer, who shall, during the time he performs his duties, be entitled to the salary and emoluments of said officer, no part of which shall belong to the officer suspended. And it shall be the duty of the President, within thirty days after the commencement of every session of the Senate, except for any office which in his opinion ought not to be filled; to nominate persons to fill all vacancies in offices which exist, to the meeting of the Senate, whether temporarily filled or not, and so in the places of all officers suspended; and if the Senate, during such session, shall refuse to advise and consent to the appointment in place of any suspended officer, then and not otherwise, shall the President nominate another person as soon as practicable at the said session of the Senate for the said office.

New York.—The best opinions relative to the Tenure of Office bill hold that removals made during a session of Congress are completed when the Senate confirms a successor; but that during a recess the President may suspend, appointing a temporary successor, and when the Senate meets the President nominates him or some one else for confirmation. If the Senate fails to confirm, the vacancy continues, which the President may fill temporarily; but the suspended officer is never restored unless the President re-nominates him.

Sargent, Stewart and Nye are urging Frank G. Guyle for Postal agent.

Secretary Boutwell is disinclined to abolish the cording and sealing regulations.

New York.—A Washington special says the President has decided to remove General Stoneman from the command of the department of Virginia, for which the necessary orders will be issued soon. Stoneman's course on political matters in Virginia is said to be the cause of his removal.

The Tribune's special says the Kuklux, at Greenville, Ala., yesterday attempted to murder S. S. Gardner, Probate Judge of Butler County, who was shot while sitting near a window; the wound is thought to be fatal.

The Times says revelations before the Court of Justice develop the most monstrous frauds in the Pacific Railroad matters. The vice President of the Union Pacific, when forced to testify, admitted that the construction contracts had been made out at rates varying from $42,000 to $96,000 per mile, and that these prices were notoriously three times the actual cost of the construction to the company. Comparing these prices with the receipts it appears that they are calculated with great exactness to strip the company, as, such of every penny of its frauds, so its property will soon be sold under a foreclosure of the first mortgage bonds, leaving the United States in the lurch for its paltry loans of 30 to 50 millions.

Chicago.—The Tribune's special says Gen. Sherman, yesterday, relieved Stoneman of the command of the department of Georgia, which was turned over to the next officer in rank, who was also ordered to reinstate Governor Wells.

Bids for the great spring mail lettings will be opened to-day; about 2,500 routes are to be let. About 15,000 bids have been received.

The German residents of Washington entertained Carl Schurz with a dinner yesterday.

FOREIGN.

Dublin.—The Dublin Synod met at St. Patrick's Cathedral to-day, and elected delegates to the Conference on the Irish Church question.

Munich.—Orders have been issued to grant unlimited leave of absence to thirty men out of each company of all the infantry regiments of the army of Bavaria.

Athens.—The Greek chambers have been dissolved. Elections will be held on the 16th of May for new members, who will meet on the 5th of June. The Turkish ambassador has presented his credentials to the king.

Madrid. In the Cortes yesterday, a new loan was required by the Provisional Government, which was voted. Hostility to the conscription law continues in the provinces and a fresh outbreak is feared.

Advices from Cuba, from patriot sources, state that Cespedes has replied to Dulce's declaration of war to the knife by a decree that all volunteers taken hereafter shall be immediately put to death.

Havana.—The British Consul has sent the gunboat Seron to the Carribean sea where the British ship Jeff Davis has been captured by a Spanish cruiser and some volunteers and two Cuban passengers from the Davis were immediately shot and then the Captain and crew were thrown into jail. The consuls expect to have a British fleet soon cruising among the Bahamas. Two schooners and two steamers landed men and arms at Cape Mozi, on the extreme eastern point of the Island.

Advices from Santiago to the 22nd report that the steamer Orickett and two schooners had landed an expedition on on the northern shore.

News from Neuvitas to the 26th says the insurgents were very active in that vicinity. Government troops occupied Manohi and expected to restore communication with Tunis.

London.—The royal commissioners appointed to inquire into the subject, recommend a law recognizing naturalization abroad as alienating British subjects from allegiance to England; they also propose the total abolition of aliens disabilities to hold landed property.

London, 1.—A district of country near Cape Town, Africa, about four hundred miles long by fifty wide has been burned, a few of the natives have perished.

Madrid. Latorre has been appointed Captain General of the Phillipenes.
