The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

No. 149. SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1896, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXIX.

LONDON SOCIETY.

Princess to Be Presented at the Ex-Drawing Room.

DELIGHTED AT GRACIAN PRINCE.

Social Gossip at Newmarket—Jubilee Fetes Concerts—Sales in Theaters.

LONDON, May 15.—[Copyrighted by the Associated Press.]—The social world, my brother of the press, is now busily engaged in the strenuous duties of a very full of pleasure and enjoyment. Everybody is in love and the whole time is devoted to the pursuit of Hymen and Bilingsgate, where the Jubilee is concerned. Wise people are not interested. The mirror of fashion is again crowded with the gay and gaudy Indian, and the dancers are still in demand. Society is now in full swing, and the season is in full blast. The Princess of Wales is expected to be presented at the drawing room, which is to be held on the 20th of May. The Princess of Wales is expected to be present at the drawing room on the next day, and it is said that the young Duke of Marlborough (formerly Marquis of Blandford) and the young Duke of Westminster (formerly Earl Grosvenor) will be married on the same day, the latter to the daughter of the Duke of Leinster.

The festivities will be prolonged to the end of the month. The Princess of Wales, and represent Queen Victoria and Princess of York at the opening of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the Princess of Wales is to be the guest of honor at the opening of the Imperial Institute in Kensington, which is to be formally opened by the Queen in person. The Prince of Wales will be present