NEWS OF THE WEST.

Distressing and Fatal Accident on Board Ship at Victoria, B. C.

A BIG THEFT OF POSTAGE STAMPS.

Oil Shipments from Casper, Wyo.—Shocking Accident to a Child.

There is every prospect that the Rolling Mill soon will have a boom, says the Cheyenne Daily Sun. Cheyenne has been discovered there in large quantities and Denver capitalists are going to invest and develop the district.

The committee appointed by Mayor Bennett to interview the purchasers of Greeley, Colo., and as many others as could be seen for the purpose of finding their sentiments in regard to a Fourth day in Greeley are said to be meeting with grand success.

The three-year-old son of John Dunning, of Hawkins, Wyo., a few weeks ago fell from the top of a hay-board on to the lower two boards, one of the pointed projecting his right side just below the ribs on the right side. The lad may recover, though the wound is dangerous.

The sickness for Alice M. Harlan, now in the county jail, convicted of the killing of M. H. Foney, Marcus Gordon & Dolan, wife, says the Reno News, Monday, prompted a petition to the court asking that the defendant be admitted to bail pending her suit for a new trial to be made November 12th.

In regard to the Russian thistle investigations have developed the fact that the pest has got a foothold and numerous patches are found within an area of the city along the lines of the Burlington and the Cheyenne & Northern Colorado railroads. Reports from Casper, Wyo., indicate that the weed has been found in that vicinity.

Edith Gray, an inmate of a house of ill-fame, at Great Falls, Mon., has committed suicide by taking a dose of morphine. She had threatened to end her life on several occasions, and to-day she made two attempts previous to this one. She was 25 or 26 years of age and had resided there for the past three or four days. She leaves a husband, a boy, about a year old.

The Pennsylvania Oil company, says the Lander, Wyo., Mountaineer, is making preparations to begin the shipment of oil from their Salt Creek wells at Casper in large quantities. General Superintendent Harris and other Eastern officials officials were there Friday making arrangements to tank the oil. The company will ship Sunday several cars of the product each week.

Reports from Ashley county, say that horse thieves are numerous in that section. Some 200 head have been stolen during the last month. Most of these horses are taken north to Montana. Where the "rustlers" find a market up there no one knows, but it seems they do. Horses are so cheap nowadays that it seems like nonsense to steal them, thus running the chance of going to the "pen" for a number of years.

The saloon of Charles Rayner, at Telluride, Colo., was robbed by thieves on Monday night after closing hour and robbed of $10 in silver and a small amount of whisky from barrels. Suspicious points strongly to certain individuals who are now under surveillance and will probably be arrested. This is the third time within a year that a similar offense has been committed in Rayner's place.

H. M. S. Royal Arthur, at Victoria, British Columbia, was the scene of a shocking accident Saturday evening. Two British men had been sent up aloft to furl some sails, when a passenger by from the home office, happily belong to extract the oranges. The boy took the gun to the ship and in the gun room one of them was discharged, instantly killing poor little steward Reeve. The news was brought quiet by the naval officers, pending a hearing.

The new electric light plant at the Denver county jail is almost completed. A $1,200 dynamo has been placed in the basement and in a few days the entire building will be lighted by electricity. The whole outfit will cost about $2,000. There will be 110 incandescent lights in the jail and a large cluster will be placed on a pole in front of the building. Connections will be made with the criminal court rooms and will be lighted by the same power as the jail.

Daniel E. Griffin, of Lima, Mont., has been arrested and taken to Butte on an indictment from the U. S. grand jury, charging him with the larceny of about $120 worth of postage stamps. How he got possession of the stamps is not stated. He was out a clerk in the service at the time of the alleged theft. Griffin is a young married man of good family and has many friends, to whom his arrest will be a shock. In default of bail he was turned over to the sheriff.

Louis Chavez, an old Mexican, who has been a resident of this city for many years, was instantly killed at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon by a Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf switch engine on the railroad bridge across the Arkansas river at Pueblo, Colorado. Chavez was walking on the pile approach when his engine came up behind him. He got confused and stepped off in front of it. His right leg was cut off above the knee, a hole was knocked in his head and his body thrown into the river. The firemen pulled him out and he was quite dead.

Phoenix, Ariz., Gazette: Superintendent Charles N. Tomlinson and N. Ellis have returned from the Bradley mine in the Superstitions. They brought a great report from the mine. Wednesday, on the Big-Hook lead a drift was started, and on which up to last night had been sloped twenty feet of rock that will run at least $10 to the ton to free gold. This is from a Freeblee streak located in the main ore body, which is about twenty-one feet in width. Though one of the main lodes has not yet been well defined, the owners believe that they have a great contact lodge, between granite and porphyry wall. The mine is now within 100 feet of the level of Hieroglyphic Canyon. A Hawkins pump has been put in place, and by its aid enough water is now being pumped to supply a twenty-stamp mill. There seems little doubt that the Bradley will ring out one of the bonanzas of the southwest.
