THE STORE is present a very lively appearance today.

PROFESSOR CRAM of the territorial asylum at Provo, both insane and exciter, have been sent by the World's Fair commission to Dr. Pike, superintendent of the insane department, who carts available information with respect thereto.

THE popularity of our local fire insurance company is strongly evidenced by recent paragraphs in the two Provo papers and in NEWS correspondence from Provo, which is seeing the premium in the city of Mr. H. G. Whitney, representative of the Home, state that Mr. Walter Cox, a heavy property owner there, had met with a considerable loss by fire which was promptly and liberally settled by the Home; also that Mr. Cox appreciated the advantage of having his line effected by his friends, and that he proposed to insure with no other company except the Home.

THERE WAS NO BLOOD SHED

But Adrian Ellis is Going Around With a Damaged Eye.

Two Young Lawyers Meet and a Knife is Drawn by One of Them—Scene Near the Postoffice.

Readers of the NEWS will remember that during the recent session of the Territorial Supreme court, Gerald U. C. Jackson created quite a stir among the members of the bar by presenting a petition relenting in some measure upon the conduct of a brother attorney, one Adrian Ellis, in a certain case in which he was interested. On Thursday last, Mr. Jackson claims, while he was standing at the White house corner, Ellis advanced towards him with the remark, "You may strike at me!" To this the former replied that he was no trawler, and further responded to the generous invitation by assuring the other young gentleman that he had no intention whatever of giving a free exhibition of his pugilistic abilities on the public streets. They then parted without anything more eventful occurring.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the morning Jackson was coming out of the postoffice building when he noticed "the silver fellow" on the pavement with an open knife in his hand. "Hallo!" ejaculated Jackson, "you big coward, do you?" and was thereupon requested to "look out for himself." "I thought he meant business," said Jackson to a NEWS reporter afterwards, "and that he was going to strike me again, like he did once before, as he raised his hand. But I didn't mean to give him the chance this time, so I struck him three times in the left eye, bunging it up."

When hostilities had thus been opened the two men soon to have closed together. Jackson fell and Ellis immediately landed on the top of him, but before the belligerents had the chance of getting their hands into play some of the bystanders went to the rescue and separated them.

Jackson, to use his own expression, "escaped without a scratch," but Ellis has since been nursing a badly damaged, highly colored optic.

Jackson asserts that Ellis has been going around among his friends saying that he ought to have stuck the knife into him when he had the opportunity, and insists that his behavior towards him has been very cowardly.

AMUSEMENTS.

WARDE AND JAMES season opens tonight with Julius Cæsar. The financial success of their engagement, which is limited to three nights, is a foregone conclusion.

THE HOME CLUB sale opens tomorrow morning for the Magistrale and the World. A heavy rush is anticipated and town patrons will do well to be on hand early. The season opens Thursday night.

THE TABERNACLE CONCERTS open Wednesday night and tickets are now on sale at the usual places.

Wonderland.

Visitors during conference week who desire a little amusement and wish to witness a good show at a very low price of admission are invited by the proprietors of Wonderland to visit this amusement resort. In the Curio Hall many curiosities are on exhibition, including John Hanson Craig, the human mastodon; also the Jaumeis collection of musical literature. On the Bijou stage a first-class vaudeville show is given by star specialty artists. In the Theaterium the laughable comedy, "Behind Time, or Love's Trials," is presented by the stock company. To accommodate the large crowds, continuous shows, running from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m., will be given during the week.

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION.

A Petition Asking that Sandy May be Incorporated. It was to be Considered this Afternoon.

A session of the County court was held this morning, Probate Judge Blair presiding. Selectmen Cahoon, Bamberger and Morris were also present. Deputy County Clerk J. F. Jack took the desk for the first time since his appointment and recorded the minutes of the proceedings, which during the recession old not cover any considerable ground.

The clerk was instructed to draw an order on Kelly & Co. for the supply of certain books, including a copy of the compiled laws of Utah.

A petition was read from taxpayers in road district No. 41 (Sandy, March 1st) asking for a survey of the county road running east of Sandy town, on the south line of section 32, township 2 south, range 1 east, and that such road be made useful for traffic. The request will be granted.

The resignation of James F. Turner as constable of West Jordan precinct was accepted.

The board list of county prisoners for the month of March was submitted and ordered filed. During the period named, to thirty prisoners, a total of 1461 meals was served.

County Physician Worthington reported the following county patients in the three city hospitals at the present date: St. Mark's 2, St. Mary's 1, Deseret 6, Utah 0.

A circular letter was read from the office of the territorial board of equalization calling attention to sec. 3027, comp. 11, laws of 1888, with reference to the providing of maps by county courts for the use of the assessor, showing the private lands owned or claimed in the county towns and school districts, etc. It was pointed out that the county courts had in many cases failed to comply with the law, while in some instances the maps provided were so incorrect as to be practically useless.

SANDY INCORPORATION.

Attorney G. E. Allen (ex-county clerk) presented a petition from the persons asking that the town of Sandy be incorporated; also a plat showing the proposed city limits.

Upon motion of Selectman Morris, seconded by Selectman Bamberger, it was resolved to let the consideration of the matter stand over until 2 p. m., when it was arranged that any interested persons who desired to be heard could come forward and state their views. Meanwhile the petition was held as private.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

The Law and Motion Calendar Set Called, as Expected, this Morning.

Chief Justice Zane had given it out previously that he would at 10 a. m. today make a call of the law and motion calendar, for as a motion for a new trial, likely to occupy a large part of the day, had been set down for hearing, his honor upon taking his seat announced the call of the calendar would be deferred until that was disposed of. The following short orders were made:

George C. Swan vs. the U. P. Railroad company. By consent judgment in this matter was entered for the plaintiff for $300, without costs.

Wm. Perego vs. Wm. E. Dodge. Motion to file supplemental complaint placed on the docket.

McNary vs. Hammond et al. Attorney W. C. Hall was appointed guardian ad litem for the minors in this suit.

Hourigan vs. A. L. Williams et al. Default, and decree of foreclosure entered, $100 being allowed for attorney's fee.

Phœnix Furniture Co. vs. J. M. Barrell et al. Default, and judgment as prayed.

The People, etc., vs. Scott et al. Motion to strike out answer overruled by consent. Default entered.

The People vs. John, charged with adultery. The defendant was admitted to bail on his own recognizances in the sum of $400.

The case of Bigler vs. Vance et al. was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff.

K. H. Ranch vs. the Blue Jay Consolidated Mining company. The demurrer herein was overruled by consent.

AN OLD SUIT.

His honor next listened to the arguments of counsel for a new trial in the ancient suit of the Old Jordan Mining and Milling company vs. the Niagara Mining, etc., company et al., by Farley L. Williams and Judge Marshall for the plaintiff, Arthur Brown, W. H. Dickson and W. C. Hall for the defendants. The case was tried before Judge Anderson in November and December, 1891, and resulted in a verdict for the defendants. It was an action brought to settle a question of title to a certain mining claim at Bingham, and damages were also demanded.

DEPUTY COUNTY CLERK BROWNE

Goes Out and J. F. Jack Succeeds Him as Clerk Bailey's Assistant.

Mr. J. F. Jack, who held the position of city recorder for about fifteen months, has been appointed by County Clerk Bailey as his deputy, and entered upon his duties this morning, in succession to Camden Browne, Jr. Mr. Browne had acted as deputy during greater part of the incumbency of the late county clerk (C. L. Allen), and by his always courteous bearing and genial disposition had won many friends. It only needed sat on Saturday night that he was about to sever his connection with the County court office, and the change is due to private reasons merely.

Disappointed Sports.

A crowd of nearly fifty sports went down to Agricultural Park on the banks of the Jordan yesterday to witness a footrace the result of which involved considerable money. The police learned of the affair and Sergeant Eisinger with an officer proceeded the crowd to the park. The two peace preservers took seats on the grand stand and when the sports arrived they immediately took in the situation at a glance and with mutter-ingand curses left the ground without attempting to see the race thrown go.

In Police Circles.

Justice Geo's docket was made up today of the following charges: Twelve drunks, fast driving eight, gambling four, vagrancy three, fighting three, malicious mischief one, petit larceny one, prostitution one. There were no sensational developments in any of the cases.

At Eymon's Shrine.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Bailey: Fred Brand, 28, and Rachael Humphries, 19; Thurster F. Randolph, 28 and May Donaldson, 20; Martin Nelson, 45, and Amanda Erickson, 22. All the parties belong to Salt Lake.

Counterfeit Coins.

Chief Paul said today that he had just recovered an additional number of counterfeit coins. There are still a good many in circulation. It is expected there will be an attempt to put them in circulation during the Conference rush.

WITHIN OUR GATES.

Erastus Williamson of Ephraim is in the city in attendance on the Miller's convention and has time to drop in on the NEWS during recess.

***

Harry Emerson, ex-mayor of Beaver, ex-clerk of Beaver county, mining man, merchant and speculator, who has been here for a week past, returns home in the morning.

***

Ex-Councilor Greaves of Ephraim, in the county of Sanpete, is among those who have left their imprint upon the Territory's legislation and are now at the place where the same was accomplished.

***

C. B. Tullis, the business man; R. A. Jackson and wife, of Palmyra, Mo., S. D. Porter and wife, Miss Fanny Herriman and Howard Kyle, of the Wasatch-Jones company, and D. S. McLennand and wife, of Philadelphia, are guests at the Cullen.

***

The denizens of Beaver city were conspicuous by their presence today. Among them were some that persisted undertaker in the fall of southern Utah journalism, Joseph Field; while other familiar faces were those of Daniel Tyler the veteran, W. G. Nowers, Thomas Frazier and many more heard of but not seen. In the language of Shakspeare, "Alcohol is all a hearty welcome."

***

Joseph McRae, of St. David, Ariz., who has been here since the death of his father, Bishop McRae, nearly two years ago, will leave for that place accompanied by his wife tomorrow. The cause of this sudden departure is the serious illness of his son with typhoid fever, which was learned only last evening. Mr. McRae is an old time agent and friend of the NEWS and is a good citizen anywhere. Let us hope matters are not so bad as represented to him.

***

D. F. Johnson of Globe city, Arizona, dropped in on the NEWS today for the first time in 13 those many years. He is a brother of J. E. Johnson, one of the earliest journalists of the frontier and one of the most persistent and capable workers in the way of building up southern Utah that part of the country ever had. Mr. J. gives the information that palm trees planted by his brother at Mesa eleven years ago are now two feet thick in the lower part of the trunk and are altogether too stiff to behold. All things are prospering in that tropical clime.

***

"Uncle Jimmy Smith," of anywhere in Utah where there are geological interpretings showing gold, silver, copper or lead in place and in goodly quantity, was heralded today. He is a Democrat of the chief school and the strictest type and was surveying the remains of what was left of the lake of Como on First South street when accosted. After looking at his specimens and switching off on other subjects, the interviewer drew from him the remark—"I have four years more to live short, sweet time. It was promised to me in a dream that I should live till the government was Democratic again in every branch, and as the giddy thing I guess it will have to happen by 1897 anyway."
