TELEGRAPHIC.

AGAINST LYNCH LAW

A Bill Introduced in the Ohio Legislature on the Subject.

VALUE OF A HUMAN LIFE IN CASH.

Damages to be Assessed Against the County in Which the Trouble Occurs.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—The letter written by Judge Tourge to Governor McKinley, on the subject of lynching in Ohio has borne fruit. Mr. Smith of Cleveland, has introduced a bill prepared by Mr. Tourge, providing that the legal heirs of a person killed by a lynching party in Ohio, shall recover the sum of $15,000; in case only personal injury is inflicted the person so injured shall recover the sum of $10,000 and the person found guilty of participating in the lynching shall be sent to the Ohio penitentiary for a term not less than three years. The sum awarded the victim of a lynching will be made a lien on the tax levy of the county where the trouble occurred, to be collected as taxes from the citizens of the county.

The attorney general is authorized to assist in all prosecutions of this kind.

The Washington State Capitol.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Mr. Ernest Flagg, the architect, leaves today for Olympia, Wash., to confer with the building committee of the new Washington state capitol. Mr. Flagg's design has been accepted for the new capitol out of the 109 drawings submitted to the committee, of which Prof. Ware, of Columbia college, was advisory architect. The new building, which will cost a million dollars, is of the modern French renaissance style of architecture and constructed of either Sienna or white marble. There will be an imposing dome of great height, surrounded by a lantern and balustrade. An inner dome forming a skylight will be a feature. At the end will be a semi-circle, one of the lines of sight for the senate. It is a very handsome one and secures to the state of Washington an splendid capitol building of architectural beauty as the amount to be expended could make it.

A CHINESE BABY

Bought and Adopted by a Minister of Montana.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Tom Sing, a Chinese minister of Montana has secured possession both by purchase and adoption, of a pretty Chinese girl baby, who will hereafter be known as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yut Long Fong Moo, Montana, Mont. Mr. Lee Wong, whose of a merchant who died some three years ago, was the mother of the little one.

Guarding Against Smallpox.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1.—All the railways in Illinois running into adjacent states have issued a circular letter to all conductors, station agents and others capable of reporting them to promptly report to their several state boards of health the appearance of suspected passengers, baggage and other matter regarding the prevention of small pox. The report of Dr. Hurd regarding the outbreak of the disease at Manteno, Venlos, and other Illinois central places, says that the rumors were instituted by certain persons who have caused the alarm through selfish motives. There is but one house at the Mallons farm back where the disease exists and that the house has been isolated and guards thrown around the premises.

SHE DOESN'T "GREEN GOODS."

But Managed to Land the Crooks in Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Mrs. Rose Dwars, wife of a Tacoma saloonkeeper, came here several days ago to buy "green goods." Instead of being taken to the landed three of the confidence strangers in the city prison last night. Mrs. Dwars paid $500 for what she supposed to be $2,000 worth of counterfeit bills, but which was really a number of packages of black paper with a few genuine greenbacks at the top of each package. The crooks, however, were not content to lose the few genuine bills and while riding in a street car with the woman, attempted to exchange a box containing only blank paper for the one which they had given her. Mrs. Dwars noticed the attempted deception and raised a cry. The crooks were captured by a police man as they ran from the car and attempted to escape in the crowd. Mrs. Dwars will recover her $500.

IN THE COMMONS.

The Indian Mints and Samoan Affairs.

LONDON, April 30.—In the House of Commons, the secretary of state for India replying to questions, said the statement that the government intended to reopen the India mints is entirely unfounded.

Sir Edward Grey, Parliamentary secretary to the foreign office, replying to questions on Samoan affairs, said that the provisions of the Berlin treaty could not be changed without the consent of the three powers. The government had no reason to suppose those parties would consent at the present moment to place the islands under the government of New Zealand. The matter was receiving the serious attention of the government.

Leo's Political Testament.

LISBON, May 1.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rome says: The pope's coming encyclical may be taken as, to some extent, a political testament. It will review the chief events of his pontifical reign, including the German Kulturkampf, the Irish question, the Nihilist in Russia with respect to the Knights of Luther and the South American and Africa in France with reference to the republic. The encyclical will be translated and published simultaneously in all languages.

Senator Stockbridge Dead.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Senator Frank B. Stockbridge, of Michigan, died suddenly at the residence of his nephew, J. L. Hounsfield, this evening. The senator expired while seated in a chair in his sleeping room.

The senator was suddenly attacked with stomach trouble, and later suffered with a cutting pain near the heart. He's million was at no time considered serious.

This evening at 7 o'clock he was left alone in his room with a nurse, the other members of the household being at dinner.

At 7:30 the senator arose from his chair to walk across the room, when he was suddenly attacked with pains in his left side. He made no outcry, but with his hands clasped over his heart, sat his face showing that he was suffering intense pain, for, in a very short time, breathed his last.

Damage by a Cloudburst.

OMAHA, April 30.—A special to the Bee from Corning, Ia., says: News has brought in this morning of a heavy cloudburst in Johnson township, Adams county. It has covered the ground to a depth of three inches and the Williams branch of the Nishnabotna river overflowed so quickly as to cause great loss of livestock. The damage will be about $50,000, all on the farms.

AN UNHOLY ALLIANCE.

The French Clergy and the Anarchists.

PARIS, April 30.—There was a lively debate in the chamber of deputies today. M. Jaurès, socialist, questioned the government in regard to the alleged subsidies which the clergy and royalists have given to anarchists. M. Jaurès declared the capitalists had seduced the anarchists. Tournade, who, it was another, was hired to foment the attack of the Catholics district to violence. M. Jaurès asked what the government intended to do in regard to the clergy, who, while offering themselves to the government as the bulwark against socialism, actually fostered socialistic agitation among the authors.

M. Dubief replied that Jaurès's statements were unfounded and that the researches of the police had failed to reveal any connection between the anarchists and clergy.

Comte De Mun repudiated the accusations of Jaurès and declared there was no analogy between Catholic and socialistic doctrines.

M. Hugues, a member of the right, said that it was not proved that the clergy supported the anarchists, but it was proved that Baron Reinwald had given money to the anarchists. The speaker demanded that measures be taken against capitalists.

The deputies, by a vote of 340 to 179, decided there should be no further discussion of the subject.

Anti-Chinese Society.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Chicago Anti-Chinese Society, whose society passed out of existence today, having accomplished its purpose. The secretary said that, with one exception, the religious instruction of Chinamen was now in the hands of men, so gross words not be permitted to land therein.

GEN. COXEY IN WASHINGTON

The Army Before the Eyes of the Nation, Says Browne.

Coxy Interviewed with Discouraging Results—Intends to "Sat at Home."

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—Carl Browne, the marshal, put in his appearance about 5 o'clock this afternoon. He was galled in his spectacular buckskin suit, and occupied the seat of a grocer's wagon loaded with bread. The men crowded around the wagon with angry mutterings, but the suggestions of Marshal Browne was absolutely unquestioned.

"You crowds down town this morning told us they would make all arrangements for supplies," he shouted mounting the seat of the wagon and waving a huge loaf of bread. "Brother Coxey took them at their word and left them to care for the provisions, while we attended to more important things. We have been arranging for the grand parade and demonstration tomorrow morning, and we have secured a new camp ground for you. I do not blame you, boys, for feeling hot, but, as Shakespeare said, 'All's well that ends well,' and the army is still before the eyes of the nation." This harangue mollified the men somewhat.

Coxey started out early this evening to obtain an interview with Messrs. Stevenson and Crisp, to request them to suspend for tomorrow the regulation closing up of the Capitol grounds to parades. It was not until 11:30 that Coxey was able to obtain an interview with Mr. Crisp. At that hour, however, he was received, and in company with Carl Browne, remained forty minutes.

Mr. Coxey asked that his men be allowed to enter the grounds of the Capitol as individuals tomorrow, and later to assemble on the steps for the address.

Mr. Crisp replied concerning the nature of the address which would be delivered, and Coxey outlined his well known doctrines. Mr. Crisp declined to interfere with the laws concerning the Capitol grounds and buildings.

"The chief representative of the Democratic party in Congress," said Coxey, as he came down stairs, "has refused to grant the rights of American people."

Mr. Coxey went to the Normandie hotel (where during the evening he was the vice-President) but Mr. Stevenson was out. Mr. Coxey's plan, as outlined this evening, is to take every step to bring about his object, not with the expectation of success, but for the purpose of telling Congress before the country in the legal ten which he expects. He will proceed tomorrow until he is stopped by the officers of the law. His plan is then to demand that he be arrested and he will appeal to the courts of law. The chief of police today issued a permit allowing the army to parade.

TALK STUDENTS TOO.

NEW HAVEN, April 30.—The students of Yale law school raised a fund of $50 to buy bread and butter for Coxey's contingent of the Coxey army, which arrived today. The students intend to parade with the unemployed tomorrow and make arrangements to get the students, exclusive. Henry Wayland Hart, of the project, will have into a meeting of the Yale "army." He hopes that the students who are degrees themselves and Yale College by associating with a conglomerating and vermin-haunted rabble. The boys abandoned the plan.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 30.—The bodies of Frederick Lewis, the unfortunate boy who froze to death in the storm on the night of the 19th, and Mr. Lewis, who died from exposure, were found in a deep ravine near Ankeny, Polk county, Iowa, yesterday afternoon. The bodies