The lunch will be spread in the basement of the new Walker building, two doors west of the Exchange call room. A number of prominent speakers will be present and an interesting time is expected.

Pioneer Library.

We are requested to publish the following:

The officers and directors of the Pioneer library desire to inform the citizens of Salt Lake for the purpose of soliciting financial aid for the association. To make the public acquainted with the organization and future maintenance of the library we take pleasure to state the following facts. The Pioneer library is a joint stock association, incorporated under the laws of the Territory. It starts out with about 8000 books. It is the intention, however, to add at once 2000 new books and it is desirable to secure a fund which is to be used for running expenses and for books to be added from time to time.

Husband—I was rough money last night at poker to get you a new dress.

Wife (smiling)—I think you might stop playing three-handed cards, John. You know what it may lead to in the end, and to think that I should ever be the wife of a gambler. This is a dear dress. What kind of a dress shall I get?

POLL TAX TROUBLES.

The following communication from the road supervisor of District No. 13 was read:

First—I find it very difficult to collect my poll tax, many claiming they cannot pay it, and I do not feel like sued out on the rock. I cannot commence and against delinquents unless I always work in justice court to the amount of $2.25.

Second—In case the defendants should have the precedence or county judge I could get exercises on a judgment rendered against them, will the honorable court instruct me in the matter, or what course I should pursue?

Third—The superintendent and Inspector of the Roads have now been authority (?) to give me instructions, and they employed working for them, and they claim that they have paid or engaged to pay their bills, I cannot get their services with notices or collections taken.

Fourth—Many of the men I engage to be built in Cane Fork, this district. Traffic is very heavy, and with no wagons hauling from both points and upwards the bridges are bad ones. One of them west down with a load of ore a day or two ago, and which I must repair immediately, without waiting to consult your honorable body, as per your instructions to road supervisors, because necessity demands it to be repaired at once. The cost of constructing said bridges will average from $75 to $100.

I also beg leave to inform your honorable body that one A. Kloposteino has failed to pay of the county road or street in the jurisdiction of Main, Brigham and Cane Fork, in the bridge of said position, I have been unable to get my money, and I have been unable to get my money, and I have been unable to get my money, and
