Eureka's Tournament—Lawyers Exchange Blows—An Escaped Prisoner Recaptured.

The Wyoming state Sunday school convention will be held at Cheyenne, June 19 and 20.

The Nevada State Board of Agriculture has decided that no state fair will be held this year owing to dull times.

A bolster house on Fourth street, San Francisco, was set on fire three times Monday morning. The proprietor of the house has been arrested, charged with arson.

The Cheyenne (Wyo.) Leader states that the soliciting committee for the Queen's tournament has met with very gratifying success so far as they have prosecuted their labors. They late so far collected over $900 for the coming tournament.

Ophir (Cal.) women have formed a party called the Ladies' Athletic Club Club, and vowed to patronize Ophir for any purpose. Already fifty 20 Sunflowers were recently purchased vigorous and trust of Mongolian peddlers are trading with white men.

Joe Marie Sattilon, convicted at Prescott, Arizona, last week of murder, by carrying alive his infant child, has been sentenced to be hanged July 27th. The crime was committed upon the Hualapai Indian reservation in November, 1892. The mother of the baby is a Mexican Indian woman.

Judge Morrow of the United States District Court at San Francisco, has sentenced George Wickman, Louis Gerstenfeld and George S. Thomas, the convicted members of the Emerald Gang, to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary at San Quentin, and to pay a fine of $5,000 each.

Says the Idaho City World: For the first time in its history this town now sees the music of the stamps of a quartz mill. At night the heavy tread of the stamps of the South Africa mill are plainly heard, when the wind comes down the creek, and sounds as if it are more than 100 yards away.

In the office of the clerk of the Justice court at Phoenix, Ariz., on Wednesday, a dispute between two boiling lawyers ended in blows. Francis J. Henry, attorney-general of Arizona, resented a remark of Jerry Mulvey by slapping Mulvey's face and knocking him down. Several blows were exchanged before the combatants were separated.

Maurice Flaherty, the 19-year son of a prosperous rancher living near Bozeman, Montana, committed suicide Sunday by hanging himself in the barn, while his parents were absent. There has been known why he committed the rash act. The boy was subject to fits of melancholy, and it is supposed that during one of these spells he took his life.

William Arnapp, a young seaman on the British ship Pamela Kerr, which arrived in San Francisco from London a few days ago, fell from the jiggerboom to the deck of the vessel—fully seventy-five feet—Tuesday morning and was fatally injured. The unfortunate man was taken to the receiving hospital, where it was found that his skull was badly fractured and his left leg broken.

The Lewiston (Idaho) Journal suggests the following as worthy of consideration: It says the propriety of abolishing the fee system and substituting official salaries is a good subject for discussion by the different political clubs in the state during the present campaign. The question will come before the people sooner or later, and the sooner it is discussed the better prepared the people will be to act upon it.

George Ellis, the negro, who broke jail at Boise (Idaho) Sunday night was caught at Caldwell on Wednesday by Deputy Marshal Brown. He had been there during the day exhibiting a roll of bills, claiming he wished to purchase steam and wagon. When caught Ellis was riding a black mare which he claimed to have purchased from a stockman near Boise. No money was found on his person, and it is thought he gave it to some one for safe keeping.

International complications are threatened at Tucson, Arizona, over a supposed case of counterfeit. A stranger passed Pat Campbell, a musician, a few days ago offered a suspicious-looking $5 piece. The coin would not ring. He was arrested and appeared before the United States commissioner several times. On Wednesday he was discharged. The coin had been sent to San Francisco and was pronounced genuine. Campbell is a citizen of Mexico and as such will lay his troubles before the consul, with the demand that reparation be made for the wrongs done.

An explosion of gasoline occurred on Wednesday at the Troy steam laundry, Portland, Ore. Five Chinamen were turned to death and four others were seriously injured, one probably fatally. J. B. Henderson, one of the proprietors of the laundry, was badly burned about the face and body and is seriously injured. The building occupied by the laundry, together with all its contents, was burned, entailing a property loss of about $10,000. Since the high water compelled the gas works to close down the laundry has been using gasoline to run its irons. About twenty-five Chinamen were employed in the laundry.

The good people living in the vicinity of Star were startled and shocked Saturday morning, says the Boise (Idaho) Statesman, by the appearance of a man, who, dressed of all clothing, was running about muttering to himself. After some difficulty the man was captured and brought to Boise. It was found he was T. C. Webster and that his family lived at Horse Shoe Bend. Mrs. Webster was at once sent for. When she arrived she said her husband had been insane for some time. Hoping he would soon improve, the family took turns watching him. Last Wednesday he made his escape and was not heard of until he was stopped at Star. Webster was brought to this city and committed to the asylum for the insane by Probate Judge Hyde. The unfortunate man is a believer of the hallucination that he is Christ. When captured he shouted vehemently: "The Son of Man has come again!"

The Putnam Nail is the only exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail.

Look in your smith's shoeing box, if the nails have smooth edges for the whole length they are the PUTNAM, for they are Hammer-Pointed and are not sharp.

The above proves that when farriers use the Putnam Nail they can drive a fast horse and not injure the animal's feet. Hence the Putnam Nail is the nail for all horses, fast or slow, and almost all farriers make exclusive use of it.
