A HOPEFUL FEELING.

Demands for Rediscounts at the Banks Lighter than Before.

A NEW MONEY SYSTEM SUGGESTED

The Treasury Department Quietly Preparing Statistics for the Benefit of the Administration.

NEW YORK, July 7.—At all of the large banks it was said today that the demands for rediscounts was lighter than for months. Receipts came from all parts of the country, and the indications were today that early next week there would be a steady flow of currency here to this city. On the whole there was a much more hopeful feeling among bankers.

The Clearing House loan committee issued $200,000 today, making the total amount now outstanding $22,818,000.

Philadelphia still continues to attract close attention on account of the sign rules of New York exchanges. The assay office received from the sub-treasury Monday about $900,000. Some banks received small quantities of gold today from country correspondents. It was reported at noon today that a large sum of gold was brought in unannounced by one local bank. A contingent of $20,000 of the National Hanover Bank was the cause of the rumor.

PLANS OF RELIEF.

An Entire Change in the Money System Recommended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—The fear says that while members of Congress and leaders in financial matters are discussing various plans by which the present situation can be relieved, the officials of the treasury department are quietly preparing valuable and histories of financial transactions for the benefit of the administration as a guide in its views of the vital subject.

Several plans have been suggested to Secretary Carlisle. Among them is one which contemplates an entire change in the money system of the United States. In short, the plan is to pass a specie resumption act redeeming all the various forms of money now used in the country, and issuing instead a United States treasury note, whose value shall always be fixed. There are at present nine different forms of money in circulation and the fact of the wide difference between the gold and silver coins, while they are theoretically of parity, is one of the causes which has suggested the plan proposed.

Bretton in Mining Stocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—There was a further decline in mining stocks today. Consolidated California & Virginia is the only Comstock mine whose shares command only $1 per share. In all of the other mines shares can be bought for 95 cents down to 50 cents. Compared with the last prices yesterday morning, Potosi declined 25 cents, Union, Overman, Savage, Bullion and Jacket each 15 cents; Mexican, California, Chollar, Belcher and Ophir each 10 cents; Nevada, Curry, Norcross, Kentuck and Crown Point each 5 cents. The Best & Belcher assessment of 25 cents went in the morning, raising the price from 55 to 65 cents.

THE HARDWELL LYNCHING.

The Mob Mutilating and Burning the Dead Body.

HARDWELL, Ky., July 7.—At 8:20 o'clock the negro Miller was brought from the jail to the principal street with a chain around his neck and nearly men pulling at it. The crowd was wild, and no one could guess at the fate of the negro. He was almost suffocated when the north end of the depot was reached, and the father of the girls related to some extent and suggested that he be hanged rather than buried.

At 8:37 the body was swung to a telegraph pole directly at the north end of the depot, and as he was drawn up his clothes were torn from his body by the maddened mob. He was heard to say just as they drew him up, "I'm an innocent man." But there was a report that he had made a partial confession as the mob took him from the jail. The confession implicates a partner, but nothing positive can be learned.

The negro was then drawn up. When his feet were two or three feet from the ground some one shot him from the front, the ball passing entirely through his body. In a few minutes the was extinct, it being ascertained that he was dead at 3:45 o'clock. The body was left hanging till 4:25, during which time some toes and fingers were cut off.

The body was finally taken down and the ears cut off. Nearly all of the remaining toes and fingers were severed and the body otherwise mutilated. The body was then placed between two kags and kindling piled upon it and then enough wood to complete the job of burning. The crowd remained orderly to the last but was very determined.

The men who did the hanging are from Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois and Missouri, but the work was done in such a manner and the throng was so great that no man can name an individual who participated.

MILLER'S CONVICT CAREER.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 7.—M. F. Miller, the negro lynched today at Hardwell, Ky., had been living in this city. He came here last January from Cairo and went to work in a carbet shop. He went back to Cairo three weeks ago, but his wife is still here. She is almost crazed by her husband's fate. Miller was a moulder and had been a good reputation among the negroes.

JUSTICE BLATCHFORD DEAD.

A Distinguished Career Ends in Retirement Death

NEWPORT, R. I., July 7.—Associate Justice Samuel Blatchford passed quietly and peacefully from earth at 7:30 this evening. He realized consciousness until an hour or two before death. There was no sudden change in his condition, simply the gradual slipping away which has been taking place for the last week. For many weeks he has been a quiet visitor to this city during the summer season and while not greatly given to society following he was frequently entertained in the first families. Mrs. Blatchford tonight received the following telegram from President Cleveland:

"Please accept my heartfelt sympathy and confidence on the death of your distinguished husband, whose long and honorable public service causes the nation to mourn his loss.

GROVER CLEVELAND."

Chinese Statistics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—Acting Secretary Hamlin has instructed collectors of customs, in order that the department may be fully advised concerning the admission of Chinese persons into the United States, to prepare and forward to the department a statement showing the number of Chinese persons admitted by them from January 1st to June 30, 1893, and the number of such persons to whom admission was refused, and the reasons, the number permitted to land for transit to another port, to sail from the United States. The collectors are also directed to make a weekly report of the Chinese persons seeking admission into the United States, through giving the names, description, occupation and place of destination in the United States of those admitted, and the evidence upon which such action was based; and also the names, description and occupation of those to which admission was refused, also the names, occupation and description of such persons permitted to land or transit through the United States.

Fair Rates.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Seven and eleven day excursions from all points in the Western Passenger association territory are now an accomplished fact. The association meeting was taken up entirely by the discussion and arrangement of the excursions. The first sale of tickets is to be made July 15th. Another meeting of the association is to be held August 1st, and such action will be taken regarding the continued sale of one fare tickets as the July excursions shall warrant.

Algeld and the Anarchists.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The red flag waved, and all existing institutions were denounced at tonight's meeting of anarchists at Windsor theater in the celebration of Governor Altgeld's pardon of the three anarchists. Albert Ulman nominally presided over this meeting, but Superintendent Byrnes was the real presiding genius of the demonstration. Chairman Ulman praised Governor Altgeld, and declared the press which thought America cowered before Russia, he dared to be a true American.

Johann Most was neared to a threat when he said, "If the police had attempted to stop the late meeting they would have been as foolish as the Chicago police."

Not Stars.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., July 7.—A man who professes to know the benefit Henry Starr intimately called at the Traveler office today, and said the Cherokee Spring robbers were not Henry Starr. He says Starr is still in the Territory, with sixty men ready to repel any attack that may be made upon the stronghold by marshals and Indian police.

For the Saloons.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 7.—Judge Hudson, in an injunction to restrain county dispensers from opening in Darlington, today decided against the state, declaring the law unconstitutional. He decided it as a great monopoly and said it was not the regulation of the liquor traffic, but the intended return to revenue for the state.

An Important Land Decision.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The celebrated "Gulfford Miller case," which involves the rights of so many settlers on railroad grants, has received an official ruling upon a motion for review in the case of Charles Coll vs the Northern Pacific company, which involves the ruling of the department in the case of the Northern Pacific vs Gulfford Miller, and in which counsel for the railroad company asked that the decision in the Gulfford Miller case be reversed. Secretary Hoke Smith has affirmed the decision of the department heretofore rendered in the last named case, so far as it held that statutory withdrawal provided for by the sixth section of the act of July 2, 1864, in the Northern Pacific Railroad company upon filing a map of the general route, became effective in Washington territory. When the map of July 30, 1870, was filed and approved, and said withdrawal once exercised thereby exhausted it and could not be repeated.

The secretary holds that his second filing made February 21, 1872, in said territory, is without validity of sanction of law, either as to executive or legislative withdrawal. He further holds that the map of July 30, 1870, then the territory of Washington, was, as shown by the certificate of the chief engineer of the company, the result of surveys and explorations made for the purpose of determining the proper location of the road and indicate with a certainty that it was the intention of the company that the route thus designated should be a general route contemplated by the act upon which legislative withdrawal should take effect.

As the case of Coll was controlled by a ruling upon the first proposition, it is considered unnecessary to pass upon the question as to the right of the secretary to withdraw lands within indemnity limits of this road after definite location thereof, and hence no decision is made upon this point.

NEW GERMAN ARMY BILL.

It Gives Germany Over Four Million Trained Soldiers.

A Debate Follows in Which a Social Democrat Says Some Hard Things.

BERLIN, July 7.—The keynote of the speech of Chancellor Caprivi introducing the army bill was that foreign countries, not knowing the German character intimately, had been led to believe that Germany had lost confidence in herself, and the countries composing the German empire were no longer united. This the chancellor declared was erroneous and sound to quickly dispelling by the adoption of the new bill. The chancellor referred to the action of Russia in increasing the peace footing of her army 94,000 since 1890. He said she had not yet announced her reasons. Germany, he declared, must increase her peace footing or her voice was to continue to have weight in the European steeples.

Referring to the expenses to be entailed by creating the government's military, Caprivi said the sacrifices would be borne as strong shoulders. They would not touch the middle classes or the agricultural population.

The chancellor briefly recapitulated the leading features of the old measure. According to this bill, the peace effective, excluding officers above the rank of colonel, was to have amounted to 492,003 men between October 1, 1892, and March 31, 1893. The strength of the various branches of the service during the period mentioned was to have been 511 battalions of infantry, 471 squadrons of cavalry, 494 batteries of field artillery, 37 battalions of foot artillery, 11 battalions of pioneers, 7 battalions of railway troops, and 24 battalions of transport. The average strength of the standing army is calculated in accordance with the principle of two years' active service with reserves for the infantry. The increase involved the expenditure of 60,000,000 marks in a lump sum. Of this 31,000,000 was to have appeared in the budget for the financial year 1893-4. The annually recurring expenditure was fixed at 64,000,000 marks. When the system should have been fully developed Germany would have to limit of War a trained army of 4,400,000 men.

In attempting to so fix the measure that it would be acceptable to the reichstag the government had accepted the suggestion of Von Huene and incorporated it in the bill, withdrawing its own demands on points on which a compromise was effected.

It was also suggested that sixty batteries of field artillery should have four instead of six guns each. The bill thus amended had been rejected, the reichstag dissolved and new elections called and now the government submitted to the new house a measure that in its details is practically the old House compromise bill.

Payer, a member of the volks party, followed the chancellor, and declared that the country had not pronounced for, nor did the majority of the house support the army bill. It could only obtain a majority by diplomacy.

Manteuffel, a supporter of the government, regretted that the government had abandoned the original bill. Germany could not be lorgiving. The more new campaigning in Paris might overthrow the government and seek strength through foreign division.

Liebknecht, the well-known social democrat leader, said the government did not want to increase the army because of fear of France or Russia, but to fortify itself against the German people. Cries of "Shame!" were heard.

A Protest.

BERLIN, July 7.—The president of the Simin Currency association has addressed a letter to the government "on behalf," he says, "of the mercantile mercantile community." He protests against the sale of consol drafts at less than 16 cents per rupee and urges that 16 1-16 per rupee for draft and 16 3-32 pence for telegraphic transfers be the minima.

CHRONIC STOMACH TROUBLE

Mrs. Margaret Farnsworth, Farmington, Utah, Had Suffered Three Years From Severe Stomach Trouble.—Says What She Says.

MRS. MARGARET FARNSWORTH, FARMINGTON, UTAH.

"I have suffered with my stomach for three years. My stomach was constantly sour, and after eating I would have a bloated feeling in the stomach, which would cause me to belch and I would have a very bad taste in my mouth. The food would remain in a bloated condition in my stomach and I would have a sick headache. I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician, but I did not get any better. I had read in the papers about Peruna and I thought I would try it. I did so, and I soon found that it was just what I needed. I took three bottles of it and it cured me. I can now eat anything I want to eat and it does me good. I recommend Peruna to all my friends.

"I have never had any return of my stomach trouble since I took Peruna, and I believe it will cure any case of chronic stomach trouble if the sufferer will only persist in the use of it long enough to get a permanent cure. I cannot say too much in favor of Peruna."

Walker Bros. & Fyler Co's

EXPLOSION

Of prices has caused a panic in the Dry Goods trade of Salt Lake City. It has around the Territory of Utah and is now reverberating throughout the adjacent States. It is destined to go sounding down the ages of time as the most appalling reduction of prices that ever occurred in this or any other community. The crowds of eager buyers who take possession of our great store from day to day can only be thinned out by a grand mass-meeting of the people, all bent on securing some of the unprecedented bargains we are offering.

This Week will be a continuation of our great Slaughter Sale,

At lower prices than ever. We must have room for our Fall purchases, which, in spite of the CITY OF THE CHICAGO DISASTER "Dull Times," will be larger than ever before. We have no cause to complain. Trade is some dull with us.

WHY?

Because we give the working man a chance. When times are tight we divide our profits with the people, and when work is scarce and money scarcer still, we cut profits to the winds and WORK FOR COST, BECAUSE we buy for cash and get heavy discounts. BECAUSE we don't owe anybody and can afford to dispose of our goods as we please.

THAT'S WHY!

If you doubt our values, come in and see for yourselves. The bargains we quote during this sale have never been equalled, never will be equalled, and can never be repeated.

Walker Bros. & Fyler Co.
