"Ideal Politics" will be the sermonic topic at Plymouth church, Third North near First West, on Sunday evening. It will not be a partisan address, but will bring out some immortal facts which partisan speeches are apt to leave forgotten, but which cause of all parties must come to see and act upon. Every voter especially invited. At 7:30.

A New Move in the Right Direction.

Arrangements have been made by the manager of the Keeley Institute of this city by which ladies receive the Keeley treatment for nervous disease unknown to their most intimate friends, if they so desire. This is a new feature of this commendable work and one that will give many a woman the opportunity to recover the health that has been destroyed by the injudicious or ignorant use of stimulants or opiates during periods of sickness.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Robert Reilly, of Fairview, Idaho, Meets Under a Roller.

Special to the NEWS.

On the 24th of October, 1896, at Fairview, Oneida county, Idaho, Robert, the 14-year-old son of Edwin and Matilda Reilly, met with his death in a very sad way. He was herding some pigs in Mr. Elmer Rawlings's field and to pass the time was riding with Mr. Rawlings on a roller so the pigs were no trouble to watch. Mr. Rawlings said to him, "If you will drive the team a round (we had to go and get some wheat to sow," he said, "All right." So Mr. Rawlings went to the house, about three-quarters of a mile, got the wheat and securing another first the team was stopped, but thought the boy had gone after the pigs. When he got to the team, however, he discovered to his horror that the boy was under the roller. It is thought that his feet were caught and that he was dragged under the roller and the stopping of the latter just as it was between his hips and shoulders crushed life out of him. He was a good boy, always willing to do what was required of him, and of a quiet disposition. It is a great blow to his parents and they have the sympathy of the whole settlement.

DEMOCRATIC ENTHUSIASM.

It Was to a High Pitch at Last Night's Big Rally—King and Powers the Speakers.

Democratic enthusiasm ran to a very high pitch at the Salt Lake Theater last night at the big rally arranged for Judge King and Powers on the occasion of their return from their political pilgrimage throughout the states of the Central West. Judge Baskin presided and the building was packed from the resident part of the stage to the topmost circle of seats in the upper gallery.

Judge King spoke first and occupied a good deal of his time in an eloquent plea for the white metal. He was followed by Judge Powers, who handled the question in a very happy manner. Both speakers were loudly applauded and both announced their firm belief that Bryan would be elected President of the United States.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Mayor's Veto Not Disposed—Coal Bids Rejected.

At last night's meeting of the city council consideration of Mayor Glendinning's veto of the ordinance abolishing the office of captain of police was postponed for one week.

COAL BIDS REJECTED.

The special committee which had had under consideration the bids for furnishing the city's coal, offered a report recommending that all the bids received be rejected. The report was adopted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The sanitary committee recommended that the Lambie canyon and its tributaries supplying water to Forney's canyon be cleaned out at a cost not to exceed $100. The report was adopted.

F. J. Fabian and others asked the immediate connection of Fort Douglas with the Main street sewer. Referred to city engineer.

C. W. Higgins and several other citizens asked that First West street, between Fourth and Sixth North, be graded.

The Pioneer Electric Power company of Ogden, Utah, asked a right of way for its pole line from the northern limits of the city along Fifth West street to Tenth South, and thence easterly on Tenth South to East Temple. Referred to the committee on municipal law, streets and improvements.

City Recorder Emery reported having collected $95.10 dog tax during the months of August and September, and that ninety dogs were destroyed.

William Jaeger & Co. in a communication, stated that they had recently invented a smoke consumer that is pronounced by experts to be a good thing, etc., and need permission to place one in the joint building plant on trial, provided that if not satisfactory the company will remove it without charge. Referred to the committee on sewers with power to act.

A resolution was passed authorizing the removal of all unauthorized telephone and that permits for such lines be revoked.

The sanitary inspector presented a request for two extra garbage wagons, and the request was granted.

Students' Society.

A very interesting meeting of the Students' society was held last night, Friday, October 30, when the following program was rendered:

Song, The Spirit of God ..... Congregation
Prayer ..... Brother Foster
Talk, The Immortal Relief Society ..... Sister Emma Y. Jacobson

SHORT LINE FORECLOSING.

Decisive Steps to That End Being Taken—to Leave the Union Pacific in January.

The Laramie Boomerang of Oct. 29 says: The American Loan and Trust company has filed its application for permission to intervene and sell the Oregon Short Line & Utah Northern railroad. This is obviously the first important step taken looking to the sale of the Short Line and its divorce from the Union Pacific system.

The reorganization committee of the Short Line was formed several months ago, and it is generally conceded that it has made such progress that after the granting of the petition of the trust company the road will be foreclosed at once and bid in by the bondholders and then the reorganization plans will be put in operation. It is asserted that the date for leaving the Union Pacific is set for January 1.

Pleasant Valley Items.

HONTVILLE, Oct. 29, 1896.—On Monday we were suddenly changed from Indian summer to bleak winter, and it has been snowing and blowing ever since.

Last Sunday the Pleasant Valley ward conference was held. Elder Reed Smoot of the Stake presidency was up from Provo. The afternoon meeting was held in the upper part of the ward (at Winter Quarters) and the evening meeting in the lower part (at Hontville). The Saints enjoyed themselves very much. The different organizations of the ward are in a flourishing condition.

Both Hontville and Winter Quarters have excellent day schools, with two teachers each. There are prospects also for having night schools, and we are in a fair way for intellectual advancement during the winter.

The P. V. Coal company's mines are working pretty steadily now, and the old ladies who work on their farms in the summer are about all back to their "Winter Quarters."

Keep Away

From "cheap" trousers if you need a team, you need one that will fit you exactly, for a month at least, to increase rather than lessen the trouble.

Many people are now wearing trousers, and wondering why they don't get well. Those people had better compare the cloth they are wearing with the new Style trousers.

Try to one you'll find that you are wearing the wrong trous.

Better see these anyway, even if you are perfectly satisfied with the one you have.
