This the chief justice's sheet was wiped clean for the morning, and at 10 30 court was adjourned till 2 p. m. (the store order having been made as Wednesday) was taken till tomorrow morning.

JEWS AND JERUSALEM.

Lecture Delivered Last Night by Dr. J. M. Tanner.

An appreciative audience assembled in the Seventh ward meeting house last evening to listen to a lecture by Dr. J. M. Tanner, his subject being "The Jews and Jerusalem." And well were they repaid for coming together, as the subject dwelt upon was a very interesting one, especially when treated by a man familiar with the subject as is Dr. Tanner.

The first part of the lecture was devoted to a statement of the condition of the Jews at present in Russia and other countries, of their customs and habits as well as their desires to possess the land of their forefathers, and while the Turks at present have a firm grasp on the holy lands, the Jews are slowly but surely gaining ground and obtaining concessions from them.

The speaker then turned his attention to Jerusalem and gave a very lurid description of the many points of interest to and about that city, the most important of which was the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, erected on the spot where the Savior is said to have been crucified. The picture was followed by with representations through out. It was given under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. of the Seventh ward.

Notice.

The Eighth Quorum of Seventies will not meet in the vestry of the Twelfth ward meeting house tomorrow (Friday) evening, as the usual meeting is unavoidably postponed until next month.

AMUSEMENTS.

T. D. FRAWLEY, the manager and leading man of the new stock company which is to open the new Opera House in Moline on Christmas eve, has arrived and was being shown about town by Manager Rogers yesterday. Mr. Frawley is an artist of recognized standing in the profession, having supported Crane in the Senator and later played with Nat Goodwin.

MISS WELLS'S KINDERGARTEN.

An Enjoyable Time Arranged for Children and Parents.

Miss Wells's kindergarten school, in the Eighteenth ward Independent hall, is to have a happy time tomorrow, Friday. The exercises will begin at 9.30 a. m., and an invitation is extended to parents of the children and to the public to attend.

The tiny tots have been preparing presents for their parents, and have provided three presents each. They are very pretty and appropriate; a sample might be mentioned in the form of an calendar, heart-shaped, on which a kitty leaf is fastened. There will be a Christmas tree in all its beauty, and a program of recitations, songs and marches that cannot fail to please and interest.

After the exercises are concluded, the school will be closed until the Monday after New Years—January 7, 1895.

A LIVE SEAL.

It Attracts Much Attention at a First South Street Shop.

"On exhibition from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m." is the legend on a window at Brown & Gibson's fish market, on First South street, around which a large crowd congregated during the day. The object which attracted so much attention was a living seal which arrived this morning from San Francisco. The animal is quite tame, being laid out on a table, and does not appear to mind the crowd of spectators, which seem deeply interested in watching its movements. The weight of the seal is about 70 pounds.

TWO INDICTMENTS.

An Idaho Grand Jury Finds Them Against J. W. Tiff for Forgery.

In the district court yesterday, says the Boise Statesman of the 18th inst., the grand jury reported two indictments against J. W. Tiff for forging the name of Attorney General Parsons to two checks, aggregating $72.

The case against Tiff is prima facie. He purchased a small bill of goods from Frank Block, the grocer, Saturday evening, giving the $31 check in payment and receiving cash for the balance. He then purchased $10 worth of shoes of the firm of Logan & Walker, where he disposed of the other check. Both other Tiff left Mr. Block's store the proprietor became convinced that the signature on the check given him was not that of the attorney general. Later on he met the attorney general, who pronounced the check a forgery. Complaint was at once lodged against Tiff, whose residence was located by the chief Sunday. Mrs. Tiff declared her husband was not at home, but the chief made a search of the place and found Tiff in bed, covered head and ears with the bedclothes.

Tiff lives with his family at the corner of Eighth and Hancock streets. He claims to be a brother of Dr. T. C. Tiff of Salt Lake, one of the best known characters in the northwest.

Last night Chief Hollsworth received a reporter Tiff had hired attorney General Parsons' name to another checks for $20.78 which he passed at Evans' grocery store. The chief believed other forged checks would come to light shortly.

A Mind Diseased.

Charles Carr, an elderly man, by occupation a machinist, was examined before Probate Judge Blair and the Worthington and Rockwood on his afternoon to be examined as to his mental condition. For the last a days he has been an inmate of the county hospital, and yesterday morning jumped out of one of the second story windows, sustaining his ankle. He has been subject to epileptic fits for a long time past and looks very ill.

Mrs. Foulger's Funeral.

The funeral services of Susannah Foulger, the beloved wife of the late John Foulger, will be held in the Twenty-first ward meeting house on Friday, Dec. 21st, at one o'clock p. m. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

It Was Paid Up.

Two deputy marshals came down from the Junction city to levy upon the personal property of the Salt Lake and Ogden Gas and Electric Light Co., under an attachment issued on a judgment recently obtained by the Utah National Bank of Ogden. The amount in question was about $10,000, but the matter was satisfactorily settled and the officers returned without being required to enforce the writ.

Will Get Their Money.

Attorney Eichner stated today that the thirty-eight laborers who worked on the sewer for Sub-Contractor McDonald, and who petitioned the City Council and board of public works that a sum of money aggregating over eight hundred dollars which was due them, be withheld from the estimates of the original contractors, would get their cash on Saturday next. At its session on that day, by presenting the reserves at the office of Treasurer Dyke, the men will get the warrants due them and which they can convert into cash forthwith.

Rounding Up the "Vags."

The police are industriously engaged in the commendable work of rounding up or running in vagrants and other lawless characters who are preying upon the community. A comparatively large number of arrests of those kinds of persons have been made during the last twenty-four hours. Many more might be asked to with profit. It is claimed that twenty-four such were arrested in the city one day this week on one train.

CONFIDENCE OPERATORS.

Two Of Them Arrested by the Police this Afternoon.

The following advertisement in a morning paper today attracted a young dude named George McCubbin to the place named:

Wanted—A steady man; $10 weekly; $25 cash required. 110 Main street room.

He was burning work but got there, Sir, however, found two very prodigal men in charge of the office and in a short time lost $10 of his money. They gave him a receipt for that amount and in lieu with the positive promise given him that he was sending a good situation. As he was going out of the door a man named Evans, from Singer House came who had been beaten out of $50 by the same game and by the same men, entered and instigated them. Their arrest by Officer Lewis followed. They were taken to jail and $50 in green backs was found in their possession.
