AN ATTORNEY ARRESTED.

He Is Charged With Conspiring to Commit a Fraud.

Officer O'Reilly of the police department of this city last night arrested A. F. Groves, a mining man and attorney, on a charge of conspiring to cheat and defraud. The complaining witness is Alexander Woods and states that the accused on or about July 23, 1891, conspired to swindle him out of a mortgage for $15,000.

It appears that a Mr. Donovan and Groves negotiated with Wood for the purchase of some valuable mineral claims in Beaver county on or about the date given. [illegible]

Groves was put under $[illegible] bonds to await a preliminary hearing, which will be held on Wednesday next at 2 p.m.

STUDENTS' SOCIETY.

Lecture By Prof. Willard Done on "The Origin of The English People."

The Students' Society of the Latter-day Saints' College convened for the first time since the holidays, on Friday evening, Jan. 15, at the College building. At the appointed hour the chairman (Instructor J. J. Walton) called the assembly to order, and after the usual opening exercises introduced Professor Willard Done as the lecturer of the evening; subject: "The Origin of the English People." The lecturer referred briefly to the location of Great Britain, also to the positions occupied by the English, the Scots, and the Welsh. The first inhabitants were known as Britons and were first discovered by the Phoenicians, a people dwelling in the western part of Asia, [illegible]

The New Khedive.

CAIRO, Jan. 16.—Prince Abbas, the new Khedive has arrived at Alexandria from Trieste. He was received with royal salutes from all the war ships in the harbor. The Khedive landed from the steamer and was received with great enthusiasm. He was met by the principal civil and military officials and a guard of honor composed of British and Egyptian troops. He took a special train and proceeded to Cairo.

Admiral Brown Interviewed.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 16.—Admiral Brown was interviewed for his opinion as to the report that a vessel had been chartered by the government to take a cargo of coal from Nanaimo to Chile. He said he did not believe a word of it; that the government would not take coal there except under a stress of circumstances. With reference to the probable future movements of the cruiser, the admiral would not admit that he knew anything. "Baltimore," "Charleston" and "San Francisco" were under orders to await future instructions.

From Guatemala.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 16.—Dispatches have been received here from Guatemala to the effect that Dr. Lainesta has been elected president and that Manuel A. Saborio, a Guatemalan exile in this country, will be made secretary of the treasury.

A Disastrous Fire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—E. M. Vandasell's big grain elevator and warehouse, together with the old stables of the Knickerbocker Ice company, burned this morning, involving a loss of $200,000. It is known that two workmen perished in the flames. Henry Kopp, a carpenter, was burned to death on the fourth floor, and John Kinsley, also a carpenter, is missing and supposed to have been burned. There were several narrow and thrilling escapes.

Van Tassel's warehouse and elevator and new machinery cost $150,000. The insurance was only $40,000. In the elevator there were 20,000 bushels of oats and 10,000 bags of wheat, bran and flax seed on hand.

Speaker Crisp's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Speaker Crisp's condition today is somewhat better than yesterday. He is still very weak and is not likely to be able to resume his work before the week after the next. His complete recovery is now thought to be simply a matter of time and prudence.

Archbishop Ireland Sails for Europe.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, sailed for Havre this morning. He will call on the Pope and will attend the international Catholic conference at Leis, returning next May.

Population of Newfoundland and Labrador.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 16.—Census returns show the population of Newfoundland and Labrador to be 202,000, an increase in the last seven years of only 4100. This showing is a great disappointment.

The Death of the Duke, and the Theatres.—The Funeral.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—General gloom caused by the death of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale will have a very bad effect on the London amusement world. The death of the Duke means a heavy loss and a bad season, and the caterers to all kinds of public amusements are already heavy losers through the bad weather and for which preceded Christmas, and the long period of State mourning [illegible]
