BUTCHERED BY A MOB

Negro Prisoners Shot to Death in a Mississippi Jail.

A WOMAN AMONG THE VICTIMS.

They Were Suspected of Burning a Mill in the excuse for the Dastardly Deed.

COLUMBUS, Miss., Sept. 15.—Pickens county, Ala., comes to the front again with an awful butchery of prisoners confined in jail at Carrollton. Paul Archer, Will Archer, Polk Hill, Ed. Gordon and Allen Fant, all negroes, and the latter a woman, were shot to death Thursday night by a mob of masked men. The men overpowered the guards at the jail and forcing their way to the cells of the victims, placed Winchesters through the grating and fired a volley. The negroes were suspected of burning a mill.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

The Stanton Estate is Organized for a Variety of Purposes.

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 16.—The Stanton Estate company is the name of an organization which will begin business next month, with a capital of $9,000,000, $4,000,000 of which is in stock. The directors are D. O. Mills, Henry B. Ludlow, Frederick W. Cossitt, William C. Oudens, Charles W. Pelatiah of New York City, Francis G. Newlands of Reno, Nev., and Milton Ferry of Bayonne. The organization was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. The objects of the company are very extensive, as it also the territory in which business is to be transacted, including New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ireland and all other states and territories in the Union, as well as foreign countries. Further, piers and wharves are to be purchased, property improved, water sought and secured for the purpose of irrigation, constructing and mining to be settled, minerals and ducts to be constructed and operated and an agricultural, horticultural and pomological business to be carried on, in conjunction with the building, purchasing and operating of sailing and steam craft in all the channels of trade.

The Sons Gathered Quarrel.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 15.—The Leader publishes the following editorial:

The Louisville Courier-Journal of yesterday contained an editorial in which that paper sought to explain its action in withdrawing from the Associated Press, and stigmatized to excuse the connection of Mr. Halteman, the owner of the Courier-Journal, with the United Press. Mr. Richard Smith, at one time a prominent owner of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, has also written an open letter, the intent of which was to demoralize the Associated Press.

Messrs. Halteman and Smith were for a great many years, as the Louisville Courier-Journal states, the trusted directors and two of the members of the executive committee of the Western Associated Press, and while acting in that capacity they made a secret contract with the United Press, under which all the news of the Western Associated Press was delivered to the United Press, practically without compensation.

Two years ago, when the members of the Associated Press discovered the situation, Messrs. Halteman and Smith were retired from the board of directors and executive committee and the secret contract was abrogated by the new board. It was discovered that Messrs. Halteman and Smith each had $25,000 of United Press stock, which was absolutely worthless until the secret contract was made. The abrogation of the contract and the exposing of the deal is what led to the rupture between the two associations, the contest now being to determine whether or not the pilfering shall be managed by the newspapers themselves or by a stock corporation, which is not controlled by the publishers of newspapers.

Whatever may be the outcome of the present controversy, as long as Messrs. Halteman and Smith each hold $25,000 of United Press stock, for which nothing was paid, common decency requires that they should remain silent.

A Dangerous Negro.

KENNER, La., Sept. 15.—Pinella Julian, a negro, ran amuck this morning while being arraigned in court for wife beating. As the sheriff approached to search him Julian drew a revolver and fired at him. Judge Estopinal ordered the negro to be shot and was instantly killed. The negro then fled, but returned and fatally shot Estopinal's son, who was pursuing him. He then disappeared.

Speed of a New Gunboat.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 15.—The speed trial today of the new gunboat Castine was a signal triumph for the builders. Her sister boat, the Machias, made a record in the speed trial of 19.37 knots (recorded 19.491). The Castine made 19.42 knots.

A Terrible Storm.

WAUSAU, Wis., Sept. 15.—A terrible tornado passed over the city this afternoon, unroofing buildings and tearing down house piles, scattering lumber in every direction, practically made lies and scaring people half crazy throughout the city. The people rushed from their houses in great terror, and for a time it looked as if the town would be swept out of existence.

SHEBOYGAN BAY, Wis., Sept. 15.—This afternoon a terrible wind storm set in. The pipe line terminal of Mellen's mill, located mile in Fort Howard, increased in volume and in less than twenty minutes the fire reached the lumber yards and mill and damaged them. The loss is over $50,000.

The Religious Congress.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—At Life All Palace today discipline of Theosophy and objects of current agitated in hour Mrs. Annie Besant under an address on doctrines of Theosophy. She closed with a tribute to Madame Blavatsky.

Among the speakers in the religious congress today were George Washburn of Constantinople, Professor Thiele of Leuna, Ching Hsien Ho of Shanghai, Dr. Miner of Boston and Rev. Stanley of Sweden.

Trouble in Tampa.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 15.—A telephone message reports Liberty, Mo., burning up. The chief business portion is entirely in ashes. The loss is heavy.

Will Not Surrender.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—The government officials express some doubt whether the Costa Rican government will surrender Francis H. Weeks, the New York absconder, as there is no extradition treaty between the countries. The United States, will, however, acquiesce in the request for the absconder's extradition made by the state of New York.

The Rate War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—It is reported today that the Southern Pacific will make a reduction of $15 on first-class fares out of Los Angeles east-bound via El Paso next Monday. The Santa Fe is expected to follow suit. This will make the Rock Island rate from Los Angeles to Chicago $36.75.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—The following promotions in the navy were confirmed by the Senate in executive session: Lieutenant-Commander, Jas. W. Wadsworth, to be Commander; Lieutenant H. M. G. Brown, to be Lieutenant-Commander; Lieutenant Geo. W. Denfeld, junior grade, to be Lieutenant; Ensign James C. Drake, to be Lieutenant, junior grade.

She carried no the time, however, and if it proves successful she will sail for Rio Janeiro at once on her return.

THE RUSH FOR HOMES.

150,000 People Will Be on the Strip

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Sept. 15.—At noon tomorrow the Cherokee strip passes from the government to the homeseekers.

The entries for the race are estimated at 70,000. Twenty-five thousand will go from Arkansas City and Winfield, 15,000 from Caldwell, 5000 from Kiowa, 3000 from Hennessey, 11,000 from Orlando, 9000 from Hulbert and 5000 from other points.

Half the strip is in Oklahoma. It is estimated, have families and the population of the strip tomorrow night will be at least 150,000.

A Winfield, this afternoon, J. H. Carroll of Gainesville, Tex., was robbed out of $200. As soon as he realized what had been done, he started for the confidence man, who had taken the gambler ran, but the Texan brought him to the ground, with a bullet in his shoulder, and not only recovered his own money, but $100 in addition. The commendation was so general that the gambler made no effort to recover his money.

At Guthrie a contraband business in certificates has been going on since Tuesday, and it is estimated that there are at Oklahoma City from 500 to 1000 persons have given $5 for certificates. If they are genuine, trouble is in store for the South clerks. The plan of operation was for a man to sign an official declaration where was taken to Orlando on the afternoon train and a certificate returned the next morning. The persons in the scheme all this and say they divided the profits with the clerks.

Tonight thousands are camped along the line, their fires making almost an unbroken chain along the border. Today was cool in comparison to the last few days, the thermometer standing at 85, with a wind from the north. The indications for tomorrow are for a clear, warm day, with northerly winds.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—A special to the Republic from Guthrie, Okla., says 15,000 people are massed along the Santa Fe depot, ready to fight for a place on the first train tomorrow. The railway company will not be able to carry over half of these people, and the struggle for a place on the trains will be a terrible one.

Nineteen people were injured with foot today and three died. One young man went raving crazy and was locked in jail here with no clue to his identity. Several large fires were started upon the strip tonight and it is feared many settlers will be caught in them tomorrow and burned.

News Notes.

The highwaymen who held up the Agent (Oregon) stage last Sunday afternoon, stopped the same stage on Wednesday and relieved two Chinese passengers of $90 and returned to the driver two revolver shells, part of the spoils of his first adventure. The express box and mail pouches he left untouched this time.

Peter Dethlesen, a Swede about 40 years of age, cut his throat at Denver on Wednesday night. He had been sick with insomnia for nearly a year at the house of his brother, and recently tired of life went out in the yard and hacked away at his throat with a knife. The wounds are serious and he will probably die.

Charles D. Sleed, an artist seventy-five years of age, died suddenly at his residence at Alameda, Cal. He returned from the city at 4 o'clock, and as he stepped off from the train complained of dizziness. He was unable to walk to his house and was carried there, gradually sinking until he died.

Mr. Henry Howes has sustained a very painful and distressing accident, says the Lodi Sentinel. He was cutting a wagon loaded with sacks of grain and his foot caught. He fell to the ground and the wheel passed along his leg, tearing the flesh in a most frightful manner. Fears are entertained that he may be crippled for life.

Preparation for an attempt at reinstatement was thwarted at Silica City, Idaho, Wednesday morning, in the seat of a building on Main street occupied by Stowell & Foster as a law office, and the adjoining one as a fruit store. The rest of Judge Stowell's office was converted in a heaped of ruins of lost not, and hay, paper, mirror, quarter and a line which failed to burn were found in close proximity to the buildings. This is the fourth attempt that has been made to burn these buildings, and a man named Hanson is now serving a term in the state prison for complicity in a former attempt.

NEWS WIRED FROM ABROAD.

Another Exhibition of Mutiny in the British Army.

Much Damage Caused by the Sea Heroes Incorrigible—Natalie Tailed—The Race for the Cup.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The latest exhibition of mutinous spirit in the British army took place Wednesday night at Aldershot. A number of prisoners belonging to the First infantry managed to obtain liquor, with the result that they became boisterous and finally broke down the door of the guard room. The disturbance raised so much noise that the guards turned from sentries and the mutineers were overpowered.
