reported that they had instructed the superintendent of buildings to construct a covered vestibule on the west side of the Twelfth school building; also two brick retaining walls and steps to the basement, so that the latter can be used for class rooms. They reported that the total cost of the said work was $118, and asked that their action be approved and the amount appropriated. Adopted.

BOOK PURCHASE RECOMMENDED.

The committee on school work reported as follows:

The books purchased for use of the schools are in case of a few subjects exhausted. This is due to an increased attendance, greater than was anticipated. We, however, would probably get along with the books already purchased, but for the recent increase in the number of pupils in the addition to the city of the new district. These pupils were instructed by their teachers not to provide themselves with books. We have therefore to furnish all that are needed. We recommend the purchase of the following: One hundred copies Stickney's first reader; 100 copies Stickney's second reader; 100 copies Stickney's third reader; 100 copies Franklin fourth reader; 50 copies "Tales of the Grandfather;" 50 copies of "The Two Great Retreats;" 100 copies Modern spellers.

We recommend that the Barnes Geographies now here, be purchased, but that the American Book company be informed that we do not hold ourselves bound to continue to use that geography in our schools for five years.

The report was amended to read, "but that the purchase shall not be construed as an acceptance under the contract," and was then adopted.

FARMING IN THE ADIRONDACKS.

A Beautiful Country, but No Place to Which to Make a Living.

The writer was driving along a lovely hill road overlooking the sparkling waters of Lake Champlain in their setting of blue mountains when he came to a pretty, white farmhouse, with the sign "For Sale" posted on the veranda. Big barns and outhouses loomed up behind the house, and a man was mowing long hay in the orchard.

"How much do you want for this farm?" was asked.

"A thousand dollars," was the reply.

"How many acres?"

"One hundred."

"How many cleared?"

"Sixty."

"How much wood lot?"

"About forty."

"Any springs on the place?"

"A fine one that sends its stream through an iron pipe right into the kitchen. It's ice cold and never fails."

"The buildings look as though they cost more than $1,000."

"So they did."

"How much?"

"Five or six thousand."

"Why put them on so cheap a farm?"

"This farm was held high before the west opened up, when this house was built."

"Could a man make money off it yet?"

"Yes sir-ee. I work it on shares with the owner, and I made all of $150 off it last year for my share."

"Great Scott! all that. Do you live in the house?"

"No, I live on another farm about four miles off. I work both."

"Make as much off the other as you do off this?"

"Sometimes."

"Suppose I offered to rent this house and orchard and outhouses only, what would the owner charge me?"

"Well, he'd charge you pretty steep, stranger, bein city folks. Perhaps more than you'd care to pay."

"Perhaps so. How much do you think?"

"Well (cautiously), mebbe as high as seventy-five dollars a year."

The writer looked longingly all over the pretty, nine room, white house, with green blinds and wide veranda, commanding a view of mountain, valley, plain, forest and lake hard to excel; counted the big apple trees in the quiet orchard, and compared sadly all that room for seventy-five dollars a year with his hot New York flat, where seventy-five dollars hardly sufficed for two months' rent, and turned away reluctantly. For what is the use of renting even paradise if you must live in some other place?—New York Tribune.

How to Keep Lace White.

Lay it in a box, sprinkling magnesia over it and through the folds. This can be easily shaken out when the lace is used. Magnesia will remove the oily substance which gathers on lace after contact with the hair.

OGDEN CITY NEWS.

Destructive Fire at an Early Hour this Morning.

THE VACANT CLERKSHIP.

The Ordinance Providing for the Issuance of $50,000 Improvement Bonds.

[Ogden Standard.]

A week from tonight the Ogden City brass band will give a concert and ball in Scowcroft's new hall, at Five points.

Davis Bartholomew, one of Weber county's oldest settlers, died of old age yesterday. He came to Ogden forty-one years ago and has lived in the city ever since.

Superintendent Welby of the Rio Grande Western is in Ogden, having come up in his special car last evening to meet a party of eastern capitalists, who are interested in the Western.

Several similar cases involving lands in Box Elder county purchased by Tarpey from the Southern Pacific, which have been farmed by the residents of that county for several years will be tried this term.

J. P. Jones was last evening granted twenty-four hours in which to obtain bonds by the United States marshal and unless he has secured them by afternoon he will be taken to the penitentiary at Salt Lake.

The Union Pacific overland passenger which should have arrived in Ogden at 10:20 yesterday morning, was delayed three hours on account of the storms and late eastern connections. The delay threw out all other trains.

Judge Miner has as yet made no appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Clerk McClure, but it is now definitely understood that Kenner Bowman has a sure thing and will receive the office as soon as he has become fully initiated.

The derricks for the gas well will be completed and in place by tomorrow night, and immediately upon the arrival of the machinery drilling will be commenced. The delay has been caused by the failure of the contractor, who was employed to put down the hole well, to live up to his contract, thus necessitating the ordering of machinery from Findlay, Ohio.

The Columbus club opened its doors to its charter members last evening. This club is located on the second floor of the Grand opera house block in rooms that are handsomely fitted up. It consists at present of fifty charter members, business men, prominent in political and commercial circles, who have decided to have some excellent club rooms for their use during the coming winter.

The case of D. P. Tarpey vs. Leaman Johnson was decided in favor of the plaintiff yesterday afternoon in the Fourth District court by direction of Judge Miner. The defendant was granted sixty days in which to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial and a stay of execution was also allowed. The suit is one of considerable importance and involves many questions of law, equity and fact. Tarpey claims to have purchased sixty acres of farm land which Johnson has been cultivating for many years, from the Southern Pacific and sued for a writ of ejectment and damages. The defense set up the claim that under the statute of limitations the plaintiff was debarred from recovering, but the evidence was ruled out by the court and the case taken away from the jury.

The residence of A. W. Wers, on Twenty-fifth street between Monroe and Quincy was partially consumed by fire this morning about o'clock. The damage was between $1000 and $1500. The fire started from a defective flue and by the time the brigade reached the scene it had gained considerable headway, the upper portion of the building being in a bright blaze. In order to properly fight the fire ladders with which to reach the roof were needed and a summons was sent to the Central station. The chemical responded and with the aid of the ladders a position of vantage on the portion was gained and the fire was soon under control and extinguished. The damage from water was heavy and much of the fine furniture and carpets in the house was thoroughly soaked and practically ruined.

At the City Council meeting yesterday afternoon that body considered the propositions made by E. T. Maison and David Kay to sell certain tracts of land to the city for park and cemetery purposes and also to read for the third time and pass the ordinance providing for the issuance of $50,000 improvement bonds. The committee on finance (composed of Graves, Spencer and Clawson) reported as follows: "In pursuance of the instructions of the council we have advertised for sealed proposals for $50,000 twenty years, five per cent general improvement bonds of Ogden city. This money if obtained will pay all the bills for current improvements which will be due between now and January 1, 1893, and leave a considerable amount in the treasury for the next council. Concerning the proposition to purchase lands for cemetery and park purposes, we recommend that all papers pertaining to the matter be filed with the recorder and that the present council take no action upon this subject. While favoring the purchase of lands by the city for this purpose and while believing that they should be secured at an early date, we think that no further action should be taken by your body." The report was adopted without objection. Inasmuch as the committee on laws had not reported back the bonding ordinance, no action was taken on the matter was laid over until Monday night.

PROVO LETTER.

Wedding Bells.—Utah County Will Have a Poor House.—Society. Notes.

[Special Correspondence of the News.]

PROVO, Dec. 9.—The county court yesterday resolved to establish a poor farm. Selectman Holdaway was authorized to purchase the land and make other necessary arrangements.

Mr. Bob Irvine and Miss Dora Davis were united in the bonds of matrimony on Wednesday evening by Judge Dusenberry, at the residence of the bride's parents. The ceremony was witnessed by a select circle of relatives and friends. The presents were choice and appropriate. The groom is the son of Mr. H. H. Irvine of Irvine & Barney, and is universally respected. He has many friends in Salt Lake City, where he resided until within a couple of years, as well as in this city. Mrs. Irvine is especially noted for her sunshiny disposition and musical talent. Her circle of friends is large. We wish them joy and prosperity.

The second ball of the Young Men's Social Club is to be given at the Opera House on Friday evening.

The I. O. O. F. lodge of this city have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: A. K. Fant, N. G.; H. L. Rawlings, V. G.; Simon Christensen, secretary; R. D. Sutton, treasurer; John A. Brown, trustee. The order appointed a committee to draft resolutions of respect in honor of Peter Maurer of Benjamin, a brother who recently died.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Edward A. Clark and Ozella Gasly of Springville and James E. Snyder and Lucia Mecham of Provo.

Sick and indigent tramps are becoming numerous. One has made his appearance in Lehi with his feet frozen, and another applied to the county court yesterday for a railroad pass to get out of the country, which was granted him.

Abna Andrews, Salemus Gardner and J. E. Wilson of Spanish Fork were tendered receptions by their friends on Wednesday evening in honor of their departing for the United States to preach the gospel. They went to Salt Lake City yesterday.

We are having some bitter cold nights. The ice cutters will doubtless soon commence work.

Local Sparring Exhibitions.

The announcement was made a few days ago that Choynski, the pugilist, would not be here on the 14th inst., to give a joint exhibition with Peter Jackson, the colored champion as before given to the public. The announcement was correct but it now transpires that he will arrive in this city two weeks later and that he will, under his manager, "Parson" Davis, give an independent exhibition.

On Wednesday night next the sparring exhibition with Peter Jackson as the principal figure of interest to local sporting characters will take place in this city.

SCROFULOUS BABY.

Our Family Physician Recommends Cuticura Remedies, and Says They Cured Our Child.

Father Went 25 Miles to Get Cuticura, and Feels Thankful and Wants Others to Do as He Did.

My child broke out with scrofula when two months old, and we tried everything that the doctor could do. It took on the worst and broke out on his face and neck. It was then I got CUTICURA REMEDIES. were recommended by our family physician, and I was induced to try them. The doctor said CUTICURA REMEDIES cured my child, and recommended them for all diseases of the skin and blood. I did not take but one set of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went twenty-five miles to get them. My child is well and has a fine head of hair as can be, for which I feel thankful to you, for my wife is in bad health. I have recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to others. Tell me if you think it will cause any person to do as I did.

D. F. PENSION, Lawyer, Fort Gibson, Ark.

I am the doctor that recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to D. F. Pension. I have known them to cure several bad cases of skin and blood diseases, and I say they are wonderful.
