ARROGANCE OF JACK JOHNSON

Big Black Cause Disgust Among Australian Fight Fans.

INFLATION OF THE HEAD.

Letter Says: "Since His Victory Over Burns He Has Sickened Everybody By His Conduct."

They don't seem to like Jack Johnson much in Australia since his crushing defeat of Tommy Burns in the boxing day little carnival at Rush Cutters bay, writes Ed W. Smith of Chicago.

Letters and clippings from newspapers are beginning to sift in, all containing more than sly raps at the elongated black man. Some of them, in fact, are vigorous in their denunciation of Jack's unsportsmanlike conduct in making personal and insulting remarks to Burns after he had the white man in deep distress.

In a long letter from Charley Mullett of Sydney, a prominent caterer of that place, Johnson is soundly berated for his conduct, not only during the battle, but since. It seems that Johnson is swelling around in different sections of the little continent and putting on so many "lugs" that the white people are entirely disgusted with him. This, even in Australia, where blacks, on the average stand well up.

Peter Jackson, the greatest black heavyweight of the age, stood better with all the people, irrespective of color, than any fighter that ever came out of the Antipodes—and some dandy boxers were shipped from those shores.

The entire tenor of Mr. Mullett's letter is to the effect that Burns proved greater in defeat than Johnson did in victory.

"The defeat itself was not so bad to swallow and Johnson could have made himself a favorite but for what Mr. Mullett calls his "caddish and entirely unsportsmanlike attitude."

Enclosed are some clippings that rap Jack pretty hard:

"Burns had no chance at all right from the start, but he put up the grandest, games fight ever seen in this country and today stands vastly higher in the estimation of the Australian public than the winner does or ever can, after the way he has acted since the battle. Burns accepted his defeat in a spirit that endeared him to everybody.

"There wasn't the semblance of an excuse, excepting that he met a man that was vastly better than himself. He doesn't scream out for a return match, and as far as I am able to learn he will never fight Johnson again and believes that the white men will be foolish to tackle the task.

"Jack was hooted and hissed throughout the fight, especially by those close enough to the ring to hear his personal remarks to Burns, even after he had Tommy beaten. In this country we are generous to even our bitter enemies in the hour of victory, and like to see the strangers act the same way. Considering that Burns had so much the worst of the fight—it was 14 stone against 12 stone—200 pounds against 172—he acquitted himself with great galantry, all the more so in the face of Johnson's coddish, cowardly remarks during the contest.

"Since the victory Johnson has sickened everybody, with his overbearing conduct and entirely uncalled for inflation of the head. He has forgotten the people who were his friends before the contest and almost to a man those people are crying out for Jim Jeffries to get back into the ring and whip this fellow within an inch of his life.

"America's colored population can hardly feel glad about this fellow when they get him back.

"Burns, I find, is a true sportsman. He did not boast before the match and many of the things attributed to him are fabrications pure and simple. Everybody here is glad of Sam Fitzpatrick's success financially, for Sam, you know, is our old comet, and never to be forgotten. But he is to be pitied for having to tie up with this sort of a champion.

"Hugh McIntosh, the promoter, also became vastly inflated after making a big success of his venture. Hughey used to be a nice lad, but his friends fear his fortunate affair has turned his head completely. He used to make a specialty of sending light winners a fine cooked chicken as his personal tribute to the occasion and achieved quite a reputation over the little stunt. But he's too cocky now to deal with anybody.

"The receipts would figure close to $100,000 in your money, and believe me when I say that fully 17,000 persons were denied admission to the arena merely because the fences were bulging out with people as it was."

Another interesting bit contained in Mr. Mullett's letter is the fact that when it was written friends of young Griffo were then gathering a purse for the purpose of sending to this country for him and fetching him home, as it was reported there he was in a bad way.

MATCH FOR MANTELL.

Has a Chance to Meet Kid Williams at Sacramento on 26th.

Frank Mantell, whose go with Jack Tippets was called off, has received an offer of a match with Kid Williams of Stockton, Cal., the bout to take place at Sacramento on the 26th and Mantell has accepted and will leave for the coast at once.

Mantell is in splendid condition and will have to do but little training for the route. Tippets has gone to the coast where he also has a match.

FAMOUS WHITE SOX PASS THROUGH OGDEN

Headed by Charles Comiskey, owner, and Tip O'Neill, president of the Western league, the Chicago American league (White Sox), passed through Ogden yesterday on their special train. They are on their way to the coast where the ball tossers go into practise in preparation for the great struggle for the American league pennant.

The train was made up of standard Pullmans with baggage car and diner. There are 70 persons in the party and everywhere the train has stopped during the long journey they have been received enthusiastically by eager baseball fans. The reception at Ogden was no exception to the rule.

Among those who met the train were "Dad" Gimlin, "Maggie" Murphy, Morrison, Mead, Taylor and Marx of Salt Lake. There were a number of other Salt Lakers, among them being Charles Quigley, an old-time friend of Comiskey's, and the first words spoken by the later when he got off the train were: "Where is Charley Quigley?" The latter soon put in an appearance and the two immediately forgot all about present-day baseball to talk over back lot games and the things they did when they were kids together.

Comiskey said he was confident of inducing Fielder Jones, White Sox playing manager last year, to be with the team again, but Jones, who is in Portland, declares he will not be with the aggregation. Dad Gimlin was the conductor on the S. P. to carry the ball players west of Ogden and, as there are 40 players in the party and, as some of them are sure to be let out, it will not be surprising if Dad lands a few for the Ogden team. As the party pulled out of the depot O'Neill called out: "Tell the Salt Lake fans we will be on hand March 31."

BURNS AND YOKEL; NEXT EVENT ON MAT

"Farmer" Burns, a world famous wrestler, is due to arrive in Salt Lake the latter part of this week, and upon his arrival here all the details pertaining to his match with Mike Yokel will be settled. Burns agrees to throw Yokel twice in one hour's actual wrestling time and he will have a mighty big job on his hands.

The affair is under the auspices of a committee from the Y. M. C. A. and the match promises to be one of the most interesting and sensational ever seen here. The well known ability of both men is a sufficient guarantee that the bout will be a good one. There are many here who do not think Burns can throw Yokel within the prescribed time and certain it is he will have to work hard to do so.

ARRIVAL AT OGDEN.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Feb. 28.—The White Sox special passed through Ogden yesterday afternoon en route to the Pacific coast, where they get into trim for the season. President Charles Comiskey was in charge of the party, which numbered 81, including the players, their families, newspapermen and photographers. The special left for the west at 5:05. "Dad" Gimlin, conductor, and "vet" ball player of Ogden had charge of the train.

MILWAUKEE VS CHICAGO IN CITY WALKING MATCH

Chicago, March 1.—Citizens of Milwaukee are to meet representatives of Chicago in an inter-city walking match. This is the result of the Saturday night contest, in which seven prominent Chicagoans started and which attracted the attention of Mayor David S. Rose of the Wisconsin city. He has sent a challenge to Chicago, which reads:

"I hereby challenge the winners of the walking race Saturday night, Albert J. Moore, the broker, and Dr. L. Blake Baldwin, city physician—to a match race between Louis W. Hamilton and Charles E. Gavin of Milwaukee, time and place to be determined this week, for a purse of $200 a side."

Dr. Baldwin said that the match would be welcomed and details quickly arranged.

CHALLENGE FOR CUP.

New York, March 1.—Pursuant to a decision reached at the recent meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis association, an American challenge for the Dwight F. Davis international cup will be cabled to the Australian Lawn Tennis association today. The Australian association is the present holder of the trophy. The formal cabling of the challenge does not mean that Beals C. Wright and Frederick B. Alexander, the American challenging team of 1908, will necessarily make the trip again this year. It is expected that some difficulty will be met in getting a team of sufficient merit.

JEFF IN OGDEN.

Big Fellow Passed Through On His Way to Chicago.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Feb. 28.—James J. Jeffries, retired heavyweight champion of the world, passed through Ogden Saturday evening en route east where he goes to accept a vaudeville engagement of 20 weeks. He was accompanied by his wife and Sam Berger, his sparing partner. The big fellow claimed to a few admirers who met him at the depot that there was absolutely nothing doing in the fight line for him.

JOB FOR HOLMES.

Former U. of U. Coach May Go to Colorado School.

Denver, Feb. 27.—Harvey Holmes, athletic director of the Denver Athletic club, may be chosen athletic director of the Colorado School of Mines and have charge of next fall's football team and other athletic teams of the school.

Claud Rothgeb, coach of the Colorado Aggies, is also being considered for the job.

Whether or not Rothy or Holmes would accept if chosen has not been made public, but it is probable that either would, as the job would be more remunerative than the present positions respectively held.

It is known that the Mines authorities are considering both men and that some members of the board of control look with favor upon Rothgeb and some look with favor upon Holmes. It is not at all improbable that one will be selected.

"If Holmes is chosen or if Rothgeb is chosen we will do away with separate coaches and make the man decided upon athletic director," said a prominent official of the Colorado School of Mines today.

CHAMPION GOTCH AND YUSSIFF MAHMOUT MATCHED

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler of the world, and Yussiff Mahmout have been matched and will meet here about April 14. The match will be for the world's championship, the title Gotch won from Hackenschmidt last April.

The purse is said to be $10,000, with the division yet to be decided upon. Mahmout has defeated Fred Beell, Hasani de Rouen, Tom Jenkins, Charles Olsen and many others since coming to this country.

PITCHER LEEVER SIGNS.

Agrees to Go to Pittsburg for Coming Season.

Pittsburg, Feb. 28.—Pitcher Sam Leever has signed to pitch for the Pittsburg team next season, but declines to join the pitching squad under Tommy Leach, which will start for West Baden March 8, in advance of the rest of the team.

Leever, in his letter accompanying his signed contract, says he has not been drinking this winter, hence does not think West Baden treatment necessary.

It is announced that Hans Lobert of the Cincinnati squad, who lives here, has declined to sign with Cincinnati at the terms offered by Griffith.

CHANCE WANTS KLING.

Kansas City, Feb. 28.—Manager Frank Chance of the Chicago Cubs has written a letter to Johnny Kling, serving notice that the famous backstop must be in Chicago Monday, March 1, to start for West Baden, where the pitchers and catchers of the team will begin working out in preparation for securing another pennant. Chance emphasized by declaring this to be the "last notice."

"I'm sorry," said Kling, in discussing the letter of instructions, "but I shall have to ignore the demand. My business here is in such shape that I cannot possibly leave it before th first of April."

TURK AND BEELL.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Yussiff Mahmout, the Turk, will attempt to throw Fred Beell, the Wisconsin light heavyweight wrestler, once in 30 minutes at the Empire theater tonight. Beell reached the city yesterday and named the conditions of the handicap himself. He said he did not think any man living could get one fall from him in that length of time when he is strictly on the defensive.

Beell announced himself in fair condition for the contest with the Turk, and said he was glad to get a chance to show against him again.

TALK FOR BALLPLAYERS.

New York, Feb. 28.—"When I get the team to Macon I'm going to lock all the boys in a room and have a talk. I have got to show them that I know more baseball than the whole bunch put together. If I cannot prove that I will not be a success, because I must make them respect me for what I know."

Thus writes Manager Stallings to Frank Farrell. He also adds that he will make no predictions as to where the club will finish, and Farrell says that's the best news he ever heard.

OFFICIAL SCHEDULE OUT.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The official schedule of the American association of baseball clubs for the coming season was given out tonight.

Provision is made for the playing of 158 games, the season to open April 21 and close Sept. 27. It is the longest schedule yet adopted by the association. The western clubs open in the west. The season begins with St. Paul at Milwaukee, Columbus at Louisville, Toledo at Indianapolis, and Minneapolis at Kansas City.

LONG AUTO RACE.

New York, Feb. 28.—The Automobile Club of America has sanctioned the proposed transcontinental automobile race, which the management of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition proposes to hold during the coming summer between some point on the Atlantic seaboard and Seattle, Wash.

A handsome trophy has been offered for the race by M. Robert Guggenheim and in addition substantial cash prizes will be given to drivers. Entries comprising the principal makes of France, Italy, Germany, Great Britain, Belgium and the United States are expected.

BIKE RIDERS ARRIVE.

Ten Come From Europe to Compete In Six Day Race.

New York, Feb. 28.—Ten of the European competitors who are entered in the international six-day go-as-you-please team race at Madison Square Garden, March 8 to 13, arrived today from France, Italy, Belgium, Holland, Ireland and England.

Many other countries will be represented in the race. The most novel of the teams is that of the Igorrote tribe of the Philippines. The diminutive semi-civilized natives can run for hours without resting.

Practically all the noted six-day men are entered and there will also be a military and letter carriers' and an Indian team.

Fred Appleby, the English runner, the only man in England who defeated Alfred Shrubb in a distance race, also arrived. He is here to enter some of the 10, 15 and Marathon distance races.
