THE PRAYER-SEEKER.

Along the aisle, where prayer was made,
A woman, all in black arrayed,
Close-veiled, between the kneeling host,
With gliding motion of a ghost,
Passed to the desk and laid thereon
A scroll which bore these words alone:
"Pray for me!"

Back from the place of worshipping
She glided like a guilty thing;
The rustle of her draperies, stirred
By hurrying feet, alone were heard;
While, full of awe, the preacher read,
As out into the dark she sped,
"Pray for me!"

Back to the night from whence she came,
To unimagined grief or shame!
Across the threshold of that door
None knew the burden that she bore:
Alone she left the written scroll,
The legend of a troubled soul:
"Pray for me!"

Glide on, poor ghost of woe or sin!
Thou leav'st a common need within;
Each beam, like thee, some nameless weight,
Some misery inarticulate,
Some secret sin, some shrouded dread,
Some household sorrow all unsaid:
"Pray for us!"

Pass on! The type of all thou art,
Sad witness to the common heart!
With face in veil and seal on lip,
In mute and strange companionship,
Like thee we wander to and fro,
Humbly imploring as we go
Pray for us!

Ah, who shall pray, since he who pleads
Our want, performance hath greater needs?
Yet they who make their loss the gain
Of others shall not ask in vain.
And Heaven bends low to hear the prayer
Of love from lips of self-despair:
Pray for us!

In vain removes fear and hate
Beat with brutal hands against a fate.
Whose walls of iron deny more,
And open to the touch of love.
He only feels his burdens fall
Who, taught by suffering, pities all.
Pray for us!

He prayeth best who leaves unguessed
The mystery of another's breast.
Why cheeks grow pale, why eyes o'erflow,
Or heads are white, thou need'st not know.
Enough to note by many a sign
That every heart hath needs like thine.
Pray for us!

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Correspondence.

ST. GEORGE, Feb. 27th, 1871.

Editor Deseret News:—We stand on the brink of a mountain, having descended a long dugway and ascended one equally difficult—to construct. We gaze with admiration on the beauties of nature with which we are surrounded.

I have often heard our Dixie described, but had formed a very slight conception until an ocular demonstration partially satisfied me. Were I an artist, I fancy I could sketch an admirable scene. About three miles west of us, is Washington; Middleton lies some three miles further on, only partially seen, nestling midst its rocky hills. Three miles still further on, around a mountain, is St. George. A little north of west; six miles to the north of us is Harrisburg, and three miles still further north is Leeds; and six miles N. E. is Toquerville, over a sandy ridge all hid up in little pockets with springs of water; the only water in this vicinity; and I can safely say that the remainder of the country, as far as can be seen, is a continuation of sand hills, rocks and mountains, of almost every hue imaginable. Without a road way one would fancy himself lost, never more to be found, surrounded with cactus, muskets, muscrem and ooze, or soap root, which is used here for woolen clothes, and is equal if not preferable to soap.

We held a meeting at Washington where the Cotton Factory is doing well, with additional woolen machinery to work up the products of the country. After holding meeting at Toquerville we crossed the Rio Virgin and ascended Hurricane Hill to Pulpit Rock, a distance of nine miles, through gulches, which lead to an open country where the Kane County Co-operative Herd of 2,500 sheep, paid last year, forty-nine per cent. above all current expenses. It is in charge of Elder Day. The evening found us at Short Creek, over thirty miles from Tokerville. The Kane County Co-operative Herd of horned stock, numbering 1,100, is kept here.

This evening, 16th, we arrived at Kanab, passing considerable sandy roads, excellent range, but no water for about twenty miles, each way from Windsor Castle, (Pipe Springs,) where a fort is in process of construction. There is an excellent herd of sheep and stock at the small but beautiful springs. The country is rather open, with fine scenery. Kanab is an Indian name, Willow Wash. A fine city is laid out, thirty-six blocks of six acres each, in a square. A small stream of clear, cool, pleasant water runs from the north. The city slopes to the south, with mountains on the north and west, and is a delightful country and climate. A stone house, the first out of the fort on the city plat, has been built by Bro. Pugh, of Cottonwood. Bishop Stewart and a few of us dined with Bro. Pugh, and enjoyed the first dinner in his new house. We held several meetings here and one at Windsor Castle. We returned via Tokerville to St. George, where we held four meetings and one at Santa Clara. From St. George to Kanabe, via Tokerville and Virgen City, is about one hundred miles.

On account of a recent fall of snow in Pine Valley, about twenty-four inches, we shall not return via Pine and Pinto valleys and the iron works. We have found an excellent spirit in all of these Southern settlements, and none but good Latter-day Saints with the guidance and wisdom of President Brigham Young could have endured the arduous task of sustaining these new flourishing settlements under such adverse circumstances in this rough mineral soil and most forbidding country.

EDWARD STEVENSON.

P. S. Instead of twenty-five meetings up to correspondence of Feb. 13th, it should have been thirty-five; we have held, up to this present date, Feb. 27th, fifty-one meetings. E. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Reception of Spanish Minister—Preparing for annexing.

WASHINGTON, 8.—Lopez Roberts was formally received by the President yesterday, as Minister of the new Spanish dynasty. The usual addresses of courtesy and congratulation were exchanged in presence of the Cabinet and Spanish legation.

Several owners of large steamers and other vessels now under foreign flags, have obtained from Baez, Dominican registers, to be used in case of annexation.

NEW YORK.

Elected.

AUBURN, 8.—Thos. Kilpatrick, Republican, is elected mayor.

MISSISSIPPI.

Legislative.

JACKSON, 8.—The Legislature is trying to evade the enactment of laws preparatory to the election this fall. Yesterday Governor Alcorn informed a committee that he would order an election for all the offices to be filled under the Constitution, whether they enacted laws or not. He also informed the committee that he would not occupy his Senatorial chair until the election held in November.

CALIFORNIA.

German emigrants for Oregon—Fire—Innocent.

SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—Ben Holladay leaves for Portland in the morning, having just perfected arrangements for forwarding 50,000 German emigrants to Oregon, to settle on the lands of the Oregon and California railroad. A special line of steamers is to be put on between Bremen and Aspinwall, connecting with the new line which the N. P. T. Co., will establish between Panama, San Francisco and Portland, in opposition to the Pacific Mail Co. Passengers from Bremen to Portland will be landed for seventy dollars

The American hotel and adjoining building in Santa Barbara, were burned yesterday; supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Conductor G. S. Wood, of the Pacific R. R. obtained from the Brooklyn Independent, yesterday, $500 damages, for charging him with the seduction of a young girl, a matter of which it was shown he was wholly innocent.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Thanks and denunciation.

LILLE, 7.—Gen. Faidherbe, on the disbandment of the 23d corps, composed of national guards, thanks them for the manner in which they fulfilled the duties imposed by the government of national defense, and tells them that they may now return to their homes honored by their compatriots. They have, in themselves, elements of a superior army. He denounced those who shrunk from their duty to their country, declaring that public opinion would pursue them with eternal infamy.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Strike at Newcastle—No knowledge of a secret treaty.

LONDON, 7.—A thousand workmen have struck at Newcastle, because the masters refuse to pay them weekly instead of fortnightly.

In the House of Commons to-night, Gladstone, in replying to a question, which Disraeli gave notice of last night, denied that the government had any knowledge of a secret treaty between the Czar and Prussia. He also intimated that the conference on the Euxine question would not adjourn for some time.

SWITZERLAND.

Return of French soldiers postponed.

BERNE, 7.—The return of the French soldiers in Switzerland is postponed, at the request of the French government, in consequence of the interruption of the Lyons and Paris railroad.

GILLET'S BAKING POWDER
ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

A beautiful Snow-White Powder, guaranteed Strictly pure,—and unlike the majority of so-called Baking Powders, which contain Ammonia, Alum, Lime, Alum, or Potash, is an absolutely sound.

It is preferable to Cream Tartar, or Soda, for Light Biscuit, Rolls, Pastry, &c.

Ask your Grocer for it. Best of all Baking Powders, and if he demurs, you may safely infer he is interested in some other article. Gillet's Saleratus, Saleratus, Saleratus Cream, Saleratus, Saleratus Powder, &c., are kept by all Grocers in the country, and have been long and favorably known.
