NEWS OF THE WEST.

Footpads and Pick-pockets are Actively Harvesting in California.

A BISHOP ARRESTED FOR LIBEL.

Another Street Railroad Car Casualty.—An 18 Year-Old Boy On Tour.—TIRED to Death, Etc.

Montana has 149 coke ovens in operation.

The Gold Springs (Idaho) Republican is sinking.

The Nampa Leader says that Idaho ought to have the next irrigation congress.

Hyde, Colo., on the Harlington line, has a town society in successful operation.

Saratoga, Wyo., challenges comparison between its Bar and the best Cognac product.

Montana's World's Fair exhibit has been donated to the agricultural college at Bozeman.

At Evanston, Wyo., the Alley and streets have been mulled in gulch. The mud is to be dried down.

The cutting camps in the vicinity of Del Norte are sending a lively time in this beautiful mountain town.

The quail hunting craze has struck Idaho and Nevada. The sport is said to regard the pinnacle with charity.

In Butte, Mont., a two-year-old girl lighted a match, ignited a bottle of house extract and was turned to coal.

At Elliott, Colo., a large vein of pure black tin has been discovered by the proposed new company at that place.

Reno, Nevada, shipped earliest last year 101 cars, containing 2,000 head of sheep, 11 head of horses and 11,000 pounds.

An entomologist of Seattle, Wash., who inspected the fruit trees of that vicinity, says that they are all pestiferous.

The new railroad bridge of the Florence and Cripple Creek railroad, 1,200 feet long, is rapidly nearing completion.

Idaho City reports heavy rains falling upon deep snows, which, now dripped into its, promises abundance of water next summer.

Another Colorado colony from Weld county has located at Westland, north of Cheyenne, Wyoming. They have bought 1,000 acres of land under cultivation.

The weak lots has been getting in his fine work during the past few days at Denver, over a dozen cases of larceny having been reported to the detectives.

In Vela, Colo., will have new stockyards and transfer depot as soon as carpenters can be spared from the Cripple Creek branch road to do the work at La Veta.

Edward Martin, of Oroville, Cal., bought a chicken the other day from a Chinese poultry dealer. When he opened the crate he recovered therefrom about $8 worth of bright river gold.

A movement is on foot in Seattle, Wash., to organize a company to corner fish. Cod and halibut caught in northern waters, and enterprising business men see in this scheme big money.

Between Huntington and the mouth of Powder river, Ore., a distance of about twenty-five miles, not less than fifty miners are engaged with rocker and sluice, fine-gold mining on the bars of Snake river. From $1 to $2.50 per day is counted as good pay.

Portland police officials are in a quandary. They have just released from jail a tramp who served a ninety-days' sentence for vagrancy. He claims that the world owes him a living and will not work. He hangs about the court and the officers do not know what to do with him.

Lizzie McKeon, the five year old child and whose living near the Philadelphia theater, at Pueblo, Colo., was seriously burned on Monday evening. Her clothes caught fire at the kitchen stove into the open air. The little one was turned down the back from the neck to the thighs and may die.

There is a pretty little row at Walla Walla, Wash., over the proposed construction of a water works system. The council has issued an advertisement seeking for bids for $185,000 bonds to be used in the construction. The water company announces its intention to contest and prevent the issue of the bonds.

Otto Belling, a young man who arrived at Evanston, Ills., recently from Louisville, Colo., mysteriously disappeared a week ago. On Monday morning his body was found three miles from Evanston, frozen stiff. He had attempted to walk three from a neighboring town during a storm and had frozen to death.

H. L. Collier, special examiner of surveys, left Boise City, Idaho, on Monday, for Pocatello, where he will at once commence the surveys of the Indian reservation. In every survey which has been made of that reservation, including that of 1892, there have been errors which have prevented a farm being thrown open for settlement.

A Lincoln, Neb., special to the Republic says that great excitement has been caused by the arrest of Bishop Bonacum on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Father Corbett of Palmyra, who, dissatisfied with the outcome of the ecclesiastical tribunal before which he preferred charges against the bishop some time ago, determined to put a stop to the persecution by the bishop.

Forty passengers on a Lake Shore train narrowly escaped a fearful death in an accident near Toledo on Monday afternoon when the car left the track, at Fayette, Ohio. While coming quite rapidly one of the wheels broke, the wheels jumped the rails and the car was sunfished off the right of way some fifty feet. Considerable glass was broken. No one was seriously hurt, but many bruises were received. A similar affair happened in San Francisco last week, but with more alarming consequences.

John Pontral, the eighteen-year-old lad who ran away from his home in Vancouver, B. C., and was taken in charge by the San Francisco officials on the arrival of the steamer City of Puebla from the north, will be asked to use the Montana Pete, which was his original intention in leaving home. Chief Crowley has received word from the boy's father that he is willing to grant the lad's wish if he would be satisfied with a week's chastisement. Pontral will be given the chief duty during his stay in the city.

All sorts of robbers are in an conspiracy to make their exchanges to carry out their class of robbery in San Jose, Cal. For several weeks past residents in various parts of the city have been accosted by persons, who, at all times their appearance at windows or in hallways, and offered them for sale or exchange jewelry, showing samples of their wares. The real object of the visit, however, was to take a survey of the premises and take an estimate of the desirability of coming back in robbery. Numerous burglaries have been committed in the past few weeks.

Rosa's in the school fund for orphans attended by delegations from the agencies of the great Mississippi Exposition affected, Chief of Police Crowley and Captain Lees detected all their detectives, as well as a number of regular officers in uniform, where for days on the grounds has disappeared. The result was the Chronicle, was a beautiful "release" of the disinclined conspiracy, one which will tend to keep the wits of others who hurried here from the East with the expectation of filling some enviable good "stiffs." The efforts began twelve of the most expert pickpockets in the country during the day and evening, leaving a women and twelve.

The Kind of medicine you need is the old reliable tonic and blood-purifier.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

It can have no substitute. Cures others, will cure you

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Amelia J. Sloan, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, executrix of the estate of Amelia J. Sloan, deceased, late of Salt Lake County, Utah, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said executrix, at the office of Dickson & Dickson, in Salt Lake City, in said County of Salt Lake.

Dated January 8th, 1894.

SARAH CLARK,
Executrix of the estate of Amelia J. Sloan, Deceased.

H. S. LAMB, Attorney for Administratrix.

MARSHAL'S SALE.

PURSUANT TO AN EXECUTION TO me directed by the Third District Court of the Territory of Utah, in the cause of Frank Dickey, plaintiff, vs. Thomas Dickey, defendant, I, the undersigned, Marshal of said Territory, do hereby give notice that I will sell at public auction, at the Court House, in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 12th day of February, 1894, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m. of said day, all the right, title and interest of said defendant, Thomas Dickey, in and to the following described real estate, to wit: [illegible]

Terms of sale, Cash.

RAY N. BURGHAM,
U. S. Marshal.

By L. L. [illegible], Deputy Marshal.

Dated January 20th, 1894.

Geo. W. Dickey, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT pursuant to an order of the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, Utah, I will sell at private sale, on the premises hereinafter described, the interest of the estate of Henry G. Fowler, deceased, in and to the following described real estate, to wit: [illegible]

Terms of sale, Cash.

Dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, January 19th, 1894.

[illegible]
Administrator of the estate of Henry G. Fowler, deceased.

[illegible], Attorney for the estate.

Dated January 19th, 1894.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT in pursuance of an order of the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, Utah, I will sell at private sale, on the premises hereinafter described, the interest of the estate of Hans Peter Olsen, deceased, in and to the following described real estate, to wit: [illegible]

Terms of sale, Cash.

Dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, January 19th, 1894.

[illegible]
Administrator of the estate of Hans Peter Olsen, deceased.

[illegible], Attorney for the estate.

Dated January 19th, 1894.

H. L. Collier, special examiner of surveys, left Boise City, Idaho, on Monday, for Pocatello, where he will at once commence the surveys of the Indian reservation. In every survey which has been made of that reservation, including that of 1892, there have been errors which have prevented a farm being thrown open for settlement.

A Lincoln, Neb., special to the Republic says that great excitement has been caused by the arrest of Bishop Bonacum on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Father Corbett of Palmyra, who, dissatisfied with the outcome of the ecclesiastical tribunal before which he preferred charges against the bishop some time ago, determined to put a stop to the persecution by the bishop.

Forty passengers on a Lake Shore train narrowly escaped a fearful death in an accident near Toledo on Monday afternoon when the car left the track, at Fayette, Ohio. While coming quite rapidly one of the wheels broke, the wheels jumped the rails and the car was sunfished off the right of way some fifty feet. Considerable glass was broken. No one was seriously hurt, but many bruises were received. A similar affair happened in San Francisco last week, but with more alarming consequences.

John Pontral, the eighteen-year-old lad who ran away from his home in Vancouver, B. C., and was taken in charge by the San Francisco officials on the arrival of the steamer City of

BEWARE OF THE GRIP

Dr. Edson fears another epidemic, and sounds the alarm.

To lung and chest pains, coughs, colds, pleurisy and pneumonia, no other external remedy affords prompt protection and quicker cure than

BENSON'S POROUS PLASTER.

Endorsed by over 1,000 Physicians and Chemists. Be sure to get the genuine Benson's, easy to and from all druggists.

SEABURY & JOHNSON, Chemists, N. Y. City.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE undersigned, assignee for the benefit of creditors of [illegible] Utah, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the office of the undersigned, in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 10th day of February, 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, the following described property, to wit: [illegible]

Terms of sale, Cash.

Dated Salt Lake City, Utah, January 19th, 1894.

[illegible]
Assignee for the benefit of creditors of [illegible], and not the individual property of the undersigned.

LEWIS, LEWIS & LEWIS, Attorneys for Assignee.

SUMMONS.

In the Probate Court, in and for the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

Estate of [illegible], Deceased.

E. D. Crane and Lucy Crane, Contestants.

The People of the Territory of Utah, and [illegible] E. D. Crane and Lucy Crane, Contestants.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO APpear in an action brought against you in the above entitled probate court of the Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint of the above named contestants, which is filed in the office of the clerk of said court, at Salt Lake City, in said Territory, within ten days after the first publication of this summons, if you be served within this county, and if served out of this county, but in this Territory, within twenty days, or you will be notified that unless you appear and answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the said contestants will take judgment against you for the relief demanded in said complaint, which is briefly stated as follows, to wit: [illegible]

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this [illegible] day of January, A. D. 1894.

[illegible]
Clerk.

By [illegible], Deputy Clerk.

[illegible], Attorneys for Contestants, Salt Lake City, Utah.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of George Haller, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned administrator of the above named estate, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the office of Dickson & Dickson, in Salt Lake City, in the County of Salt Lake.

Dated January 8th, 1894.

WILLIAM H. WALLACE,
Administrator of the estate of George Haller, Deceased.

DICKSON, MARSHALL & DICKSON, Attorneys.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court, in and for the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

J. H. Anderson and Viola B. Anderson, Plaintiffs,
vs.
[illegible], Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utah, and [illegible] J. H. Anderson and Viola B. Anderson, defendants.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you in the above named plaintiffs, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed in said Court, within ten days after the service of this summons, if you be served within this county, and if served out of this county, but in this Territory, within twenty days, or you will be notified that unless you appear and answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the said plaintiffs will take judgment against you for the relief demanded in said complaint, which is briefly stated as follows, to wit: [illegible]

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this [illegible] day of January, A. D. 1894.

[illegible]
Clerk.

By [illegible], Deputy Clerk.

[illegible], Attorneys for Plaintiffs, Salt Lake City, Utah.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court, in and for the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

[illegible], Plaintiff,
vs.
[illegible], Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utah, and [illegible] Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you in the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed in said Court, within ten days after the service of this summons, if you be served within this county, and if served out of this county, but in this Territory, within twenty days, or you will be notified that unless you appear and answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you for the relief demanded in said complaint, which is briefly stated as follows, to wit: [illegible]

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this [illegible] day of January, A. D. 1894.

[illegible]
Clerk.

By [illegible], Deputy Clerk.

[illegible], Attorneys for Plaintiff, Salt Lake City, Utah.

SUMMONS ON CROSS COMPLAINT.

In the District Court, in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

[illegible], Plaintiff,
vs.
[illegible], Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utah, and [illegible] Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO APpear in an action brought against you in the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, and to answer the cross complaint filed in said Court, within ten days after the service of this summons, if you be served within this county, and if served out of this county, but in this Territory, within twenty days, or you will be notified that unless you appear and answer the said cross complaint within the time aforesaid, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you for the relief demanded in said cross complaint, which is briefly stated as follows, to wit: [illegible]

Given under my hand and seal of said court, this [illegible] day of January, A. D. 1894.

[illegible]
Clerk.

By [illegible], Deputy Clerk.

[illegible], Attorneys for Plaintiff, Salt Lake City, Utah.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of [illegible], Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, administrator of the above named estate, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the office of [illegible], in Salt Lake City, in the County of Salt Lake.

Dated January 8th, 1894.

[illegible]
Administrator of the estate of [illegible], Deceased.

[illegible], Attorney for Administrator.

Dated Jan. 10, 1894.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, HENRY WILLIAMS, BISHOP of the Aaronic Priesthood of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, and Trustee in Trust for said Church, by his deed of trust, dated the 1st day of [illegible], 1892, and recorded in Book [illegible] of Deeds, page [illegible], records of Salt Lake County, Utah, conveyed to the undersigned, [illegible] the following described real estate, situated in said County and Territory, to wit: [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[