Another Affair Calling for Prompt Apology.

FROM FRANCE THIS TIME.

A Citizen of the United States Sentenced by a French Court Martial

TWENTY YEARS' IMPRISONMENT.

[illegible]

Port Louis, Madagascar, March 23. [illegible] Waller, a former American consul, [illegible] court martialed by a French [illegible] and sentenced to [illegible] years' imprisonment for [illegible] correspondence with the Hovas.

[illegible]

Waller's Grievance.

[illegible]

[illegible] the reasons for resigning that their other business required all of their time, Mr. Mitchell suggested that two [illegible] John McNulta was confirmed by Judge Grosscup as sole receiver.

In financial circles it was the general belief that, despite the assertions to the contrary, the resignations were the result of a warfare between the three men.

Burned to Death.

Chatham, Ont., March 23.—The house occupied by P. Dollard was burned by the upsetting of a lamp. Five children were in the upper part of the house and Mr. Dollard made a rush through the flames to save them. He seized the baby, one-year-old, kicked out a window and shouted to the other four children to jump out. Three children were burned to death: Nellie Dollard, aged 13; Michael, 3; Alexander, 5. Jennie, 11, jumped from the window, but she is so badly burned that her recovery is doubtful.

Drouth and Locusts.

Zanzibar, March 23.—Drouth and locusts have caused widespread distress in eastern equatorial Africa. The villages have been depopulated and mission schools and churches have been closed. Many natives are selling themselves and their children into slavery to obtain food. The missionaries in Uganda and Mombasa have joined others in an appeal for aid.

NO RACE QUESTION.

The Insurrection on Cuba Conducted by the White Population.

MANY NEGROES UNDER ARMS.

But They are in a Minority Among the Rebels, Says Colonel Figueredo.

Tampa, Fla., March 23.—Dispatches from Nassau, N. P., stating that the negroes of Cuba are attempting to make the insurrection a race question has caused much comment here and it is denied by Cubans generally. Col. Figueredo was questioned about it and said:

"It is merely a rumor put up by the government to discredit the revolution. There are many negroes under arms, but the whites are [illegible] in the majority. [illegible]

Report From the Committee on Legislative Apportionment.

SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.

The Scheme Proposed Will Arouse Great Opposition in the Convention—Other Matters.

The committee on apportionment and boundaries have failed in their attempt to remodel their report, which is very unsatisfactory to nearly half of their own number, and as a result their differences will be aired before the Convention at large. The article recommended for insertion in the Constitution contains the following provisions in addition to the [illegible] clause which was published in this paper on Thursday:

Section 1. One Representative in the Congress of the United States shall be elected from the State at large on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1895, and thereafter at such times and places as may be prescribed by law. When a new apportionment shall be made by Congress, the Legislature shall divide the State into congressional districts accordingly.

Sec. 2. The Legislature shall provide by law for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the State in the year of our Lord 1905, and every tenth year thereafter, and at the session next following an enumeration made by the authority of the United States, shall revise and adjust the apportionment for Senators and Representatives on the basis of such enumeration, according to ratios to be fixed by law.

Sec. 3. The Senate shall consist of eighteen members and the House of Representatives of forty-five members. The Legislature may increase the number of Senators and Representatives, but the number shall never exceed [illegible]
