'WAS NEARLY DROWNED.

Close Call for Nels Iverson Who Fell Into the Bear River Canal.

Nels Iverson of Bear River City had an close a call to the other world last Friday as a man ever got and survives to tell the story, says the Brigham City News.

It appears that the gentleman, who is about 12 years of age and inclined to be portly, has a farm on the west side of the Malad river, four miles north of Bear River City. Along in the afternoon he attempted to cross the Malad dam near his farm to get a drink from the Bear river canal. As he stepped from the dam onto the bank, the ground caved in and he was precipitated into the stream. The water at this point took him in a large box intended to hold the head of an irrigating canal, but at the time it had fallen so very under the box and formed a pool adjustable with overhanging banks. Mr. Iverson disappeared the moment and came up in the pool gasping for breath. There was no possible way for him to get out, for, not be successful in reaching up and grasped an eight inch stick, and fortunately had been driven in the box. His shoulder had been dislocated by the fall and in this painful position, hanged on by some feet in water and suffering from his shoulder and chest through, he hung for two or three hours. At one time when he had given up all hopes of rescue, he took off his clothes and attempted to throw them on the bank above to give some chance power to a stick by which he hoped to get to Frank Jones who had fallen into and then he took into the water out of reach. In relating the incident after, he stated that when he finally reached him he could not have lasted five minutes longer. His mind was getting weak and he felt death approaching.

It happened that Walter Green was hunting that afternoon in that neighborhood and when those took him home the dam. He heard a faint cry for help but it was some time before he could locate it. Hearing other hunters the deserted man, it appeared to him he would die before Mr. Green could get him out. He called on his distressed term, but that gave no yield at this time, and after continued exertions got him on the bank. After some time, half carrying and resting for a little assistance from the neighbor mans, he reached the house and Mr. Iverson is the nominee of his father, J. E. Green where he was kindly cared for until Dr. Hooker of Corinne could be summoned. Under the doctor's care Mr. Iverson is now recovering.

HOMES FOR THOUSANDS.

To Latter-day Saints Who Desire Good Places to Make Comfortable Homes. A Good Opportunity to Accumulate Means to Pay for Them Without Incurring the Bondage of Debt.

One hundred thousand dollars in labor wanted.

Fifty miles of the Alberta company's canal to be built, for which half will be paid in cash and balance in excellent prairie land, at $5 an acre, with free water for two years to first settlers on these lands.

Lands are to be settled in bunches or settlement form, in order to afford settlers the benefit of well organized schools, including day and Sabbath schools.

All labor will be contract work, at ten cents a cubic yard for earth work. Gravel, loose and solid rock to be paid for in proportion.

An industrious, able-bodied man, with team can earn a good farm, town lot and cottage in one year.

Lands to be settled are adjacent to a railway. Plenty of coal for fuel near at hand.

President C. O. Card, writing to the First Presidency under date of September 22d, says that work has commenced on the canal that persons in Utah desiring to do work this fall would do well to bring their teams and wagons by railroad. By doing this they could be at work on the canal in less than a week after starting, speaking about wintering teams, he says that hay, if needed, will not exceed $8 a ton, and besides, it can be cut there as late as a month from the date of his letter; that no hay will be sealed on the ranch, as for miles in the immediate vicinity grass is from six to twelve inches high. When work cannot be done on the canal, men can be hunting homes for themselves. He advises men to come with their teams, leaving their families until the spring, by which time homes may be provided for them. Parties desiring to join the new settlers in making homes, who may not care to do work on the canal, can obtain land through President Card.

For special rates of transportation for passengers, household goods, teams and stock, apply to Wm. M. Egan, Room 10, Salt Lake City, or C. O. Card, Cardston, N. W. T., Canada.

THE M. I. A. LEAGUE.

Magnificent Reception Given Last Evening for Benefit of the Association.

THE GARDO HOUSE A BOWER OF BEAUTY

Six Hundred Guests are Entertained and the Leagues is Enriched by Seven Hundred Dollars.

The reception tendered for the benefit of the Mutual Improvement Leagues by Mrs. A. W. McCune last evening was a most delightful affair. The palatial Gardo House presented a scene of surpassing interest, as hundreds of guests thronged the spacious rooms, while the decorations were lavished and artistic. Rare California chrysanthemums and autumn gathered in the main parlor. Dollar arrangements adorned the chandelier and tender decorations, while autumn leaves were in evidence throughout the mansion. Vases containing the choicest of flowers were to be seen everywhere, and ferns and palms added to the beauty of the scene.

The rare and costly statuary which Mr. and Mrs. McCune had purchased while in Italy was a source of pleasure to all lovers of art and attracted admiring attention.

Upon meeting the mansion the guests were taken in charge by a reception committee composed of Mrs. A. W. McCune, assisted by Mrs. N. A. Anderson, Mrs. Nancy C. Taylor, Mrs. R. C. Hampton, Mrs. Louisa Beck, Mrs. Lucy W. Cannon, Mrs. A. W. Ottinger, Mrs. Ruth Fox, Miss Aggie Cannon, George A. Smith and S. H. Herrick.

In the dining room refreshments consisting of chocolate and ices, served by Sister Julia Mae, were served by all who accepted the invitation. The portion of the affair was in charge of Mrs. Julia Dewey, Mrs. E. C. Wood, Miss Mae Taylor, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Annie Campbell and Miss Anna M. Cannon.

During the course of the evening the following program was rendered:

Piano Solo.....Miss Jessie Murdock
Vocal Solo.....Henry Mary
Violin Solo.....Miss Carrie Edwards
Recitation.....Miss Ruth Lowden
Piano Solo.....Miss Louie Lowden
Cornet Solo.....Miss Lettie Lowden
Recitation.....Miss Vida Fox
Violin Solo.....Master J. M. Tanner
Piano Solo.....Mrs. Mary H. Rees
Recitation.....Miss Jack McCune
Violin Solo.....Mrs. E. D. Sheldon
Recitation.....Miss Ruth Fox

It is estimated that nearly six hundred ladies and gentlemen were in attendance at the reception and the evening's entertainment was both a pleasant and enjoyable occasion. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the presentation of a check for $100 by Mr. A. W. McCune to the president of the Improvement Association, for the benefit of the association contributing $100 each.

Appropriation for Bridges.

The board of county commissioners yesterday appropriated the sum of $1,000 for the purpose of making necessary repairs on roads and bridges in the various road districts. A resolution was introduced by Commissioner Hawkins which authorized an outlay of $1,000 for roads and bridges, but it was not adopted, the $1,000 being deemed sufficient.

What Utah Sheep Bring.

From a reliable party who was present at the sale which took place at South Omaha October 11, we learn that the following prices were paid for the Hambleville sheep of W. H. Hansen of Gallatin. They were sold at auction and the amount realized was spot cash.

Mr. Hallwell of Missouri purchased the following: 1 ram, $[illegible], 1 ram, $[illegible], 1 yearling ewe at $25 each, 1 yearling ewe at $24 each.

A. Dolan of Omaha bought 1 yearling ram, $[illegible], 1 yearling ewe at $26 each, 1 yearling ewe at $23 each.

Wright of Omaha and Ohio bought 1 yearling ewe at $22 each.

Other parties purchased yearling rams at from $[illegible] to $[illegible]. 1 for $[illegible], 1 for $[illegible], 1 for $50, 2 at $40 each, 2 at $30 each, 1 lamb, $40.

Total number sold, 22; total amount realized, $1,[illegible]; averaging $[illegible] each.—Brigham City News.

North Point Irrigation.

The county commissioners were yesterday asked that the irrigation of the alkali Brein water from the trans-Jordan country be granted relief in accordance with the supreme court's decree. It was asked that they desired the county be cleared the nuisance also river water erected. While take or to drain the lake into the Salt Lake. The board decided to do nothing in the matter as they considered it a bad proposition.

Another Football Accident.

Yesterday afternoon the collar bone of Edward Roberts, a Lowell school boy, was broken while playing football in a game between the Lowell and Grant schools. It is not known exactly how the accident was caused; but it is supposed when the scrimmaging started some piled on top of him like a great handful of worms, as other injuries in Football games. The boy was soon under the care of a physician, Sawyer, and doing nicely. It will be expected to be able to attend school again in two or three days.
