NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Noted Female Criminal Works the Unsuspecting of Colorado.

A VICTIM OF THE LATE STRIKE.

Trying to Arrange a Duel Fight in Denver.—A Boy Pardoned.—Passed Up a Bullet.

A very rich gold ledge has been discovered on Willow creek, fifteen miles from Boise, Idaho. Two and a half feet of ore has been stripped for that feet. Its value is variously estimated from $1,000 to $2,000 per ton.

The Home Savings Bank at Phoenix, Ariz., which was established a couple of years ago, has decided to close up, and will go out of business. Want of patronage is the cause.

John Wood, a Boise valley (Idaho) farmer, says he has just completed threshing his grain. His rate yielded 60 bushels to the acre and his whole 20 bushels to the acre. The crop as a whole was several hundred bushels less than that of 1893.

Lively preparations says the Lorenzo (Wyo.) Boomerang, is being made by many of the miners in the Morgan district to prosecute winter work on their claims. Logs are being cut, boards sawed and crosscut winter tunnels on the ground. Others are exerting every effort in development work and many claims continue to improve in quantity and quality of ore.

A young married people arrived in Reno, Nevada, from Chicago last week after a novel honeymoon. The young people were married in July. He lost his job on account of the strike and lost his money and furniture, so the two plucky young people beat the sheriff, bagging all the way out to Reno, arriving there to shine days and leaving the next day on a passenger train.

In vital contrast with the engine mileage on the Union Pacific during July of 1893, is the service during that month in 1894, says the Rawlins, Wyoming, Journal. The total for the system during July, 1893, was 1,179,952, as against 1,153,755 miles in 1894. The greatest decrease, however, is noticed on the Wyoming division. Last year the service for the month of July amounted to 402,609, while this year it footed up to miles 371,358.

John Shaughnessy has been pardoned from the Wyoming penitentiary by Governor Osborne. Shaughnessy is a boy of 17 years, and was sentenced in April, 1892, to six years' imprisonment for burglary, into which he was led by a tough, Bishop Hensley, of Salt Lake. Prosecuting Attorney Palmer, and the prosecuting witness, C. H. Hussey, whose store was robbed, united in a request for the pardon. Shaughnessy is the sole support of a widowed mother.

Evanston, Wyo., News-Register: Engineer Nelsonsh is over on Black's Fork working on that big canal which is to irrigate 200,000 acres of land in this county and furnish splendid farms for 1,000 families. This is by far the most fertile part of our county and it is quite certain that within a year our county will have 2,000 to 3,000 more people in that locality alone than now. The climate is favorable to the growth of nearly every Utah product and the soil is marvelously rich and productive. It offers the best opportunities for new farmers to be found in the whole state of Wyoming.

Word comes from Silver City, says the Idaho Daily Statesman, to the effect that the Indians who have been hunting in the Juniper mountains have not confined themselves to the slaughter of wild animals, and some of the citizens of Gaphee are said to be very nervous in consequence. A few days ago a Chinaman was found dead in the mountains in the vicinity where the Indians have been hunting. The colonist had been shot through the eye and his body had been mutilated after the fashion of the Indians. Every indication points to the murder of the Chinaman by the Indians, and considerable bitter feeling has been stirred up over the affair. This feeling has been intensified by the attitude of the redmen towards Game Warden Hodgins. The warden, hearing of the wholesale killing of game by the Indians, started out to put a stop to the wanton slaughter. The Indians, heading of his complaint, sent him word they would kill him if he attempted to interfere.

The Denver Republican says: Alderman Hunter and one W. E. Moore are endeavoring to arrange for a lifeline representation of a Mexican bull fight to be given in Denver in the near future. It is the intention of the promoters of this novel enterprise to arrange the affair in such a way that there will be no actual killing of the animals nor any suffering on their part, their bodies being protected by a combined padding and other appliances from injury. It is said they have received a permit to give the exhibition from the county and city authorities, and yesterday Secretary Lindsley was called upon and asked if he would impose any objection to the scheme. When the plan was unfolded to him he declined to commit himself in the matter, but said he could not very well see how two animals at the Tamm variety could be goaded up to the fighting state without a certain amount of cruelty being used. The state law is clear and explicit in the matter, and he could not see how such an exhibition could be given under it.

A woman who is thought to be a noted operative, says the Denver News, was yesterday taken to the county jail. Her name is supposed to be Mrs. Kate Levi and her aliases are Levison, Irwin, Imhoff and Wheelan. The prisoner will be taken today and sent to Eastern police officials as the county detectives are of the opinion that she is wanted in other parts of the country. The woman, in the capacity of dressmaker, gained entry to the homes of the best families in the city and after gaining the confidence of servants would carry away silks and other valuable property. She was convicted in also prisoner in Pickett's court last April, but was released upon good behavior. There are six latch cases of false pretenses now against her. The amount involved in each case is quite large, and if conviction is gained on each count, Levi will go to the pen for a long time. The woman left Denver some weeks ago when the numerous complaints regarding her were made to the city detectives. She was located in Canon City and landed from that place by a detective.
