BORROWED FROM OUR PREMISES, State Street, Salt Lake City, during the noon hour, July 30th, a 2¼ Bain Wagon, complete with spring seat but without bows. This wagon had been in use less than a year and is numbered 100. The tongue had about three feet broken off and was spliced with a piece of hardwood. Young man who took it away came with a pair of bay horses. We shall be pleased to have him return it at once to save us necessity of coming after it, and will pay for its return.
